PREFACE.

THE YEAR 1326 was a disastrous year for the Diocese and the Church of Exeter. On the 15th of October their true-hearted, faithful, and devoted Bishop, Walter de Stapeldon, was brutally murdered by a cruel London mob, a martyr to loyalty and to duty; and on the 27th of the following month, the Dean, Bartholomew de Sancto Laurencio, was, also, gathered to his fathers, but by a gentler fate, old and full of days. "Our Church," the Chapter wrote to the Primate, "has not only been widowed, but even deprived of the consolation of both her Fathers in God by the death of Bartholomew of blessed memory."[1]

But the work of the Church may not be hindered because the Leaders fall; and steps were immediately taken to secure its continuance and to repair these crushing losses. As soon as Archbishop Reynolds heard of Stapeldon's death, he, at once, made provision for the Administration of the vacant See, committing it, on the 18th of October, to Adam de Murimouth, Rector of Cliffe, in the Diocese of Rochester, and Canon of Exeter and of Hereford; a man of Letters, for by his Chronicle he earned a distinguished place among the Historians of England; and, also, evidently, a thorough man of business, for to his careful Register of his Acts, under this and subsequent Commissions, still preserved at Lambeth, we owe almost all that is known of the state of this Diocese during the long interval between the death of Bishop Stapeldon and the Consecration of Bishop John de Grandisson. No records of this period exist in our own Registry.

On the 3rd of November Murimouth was commissioned to deal, officially, with the Will and effects of the late Bishop, and to institute to the vacant Rectory of St. Petrock, in the City of Exeter. A month later he received a general Commission to institute to all vacant Benefices; and as these were, from first to last, as many as eleven in number, and he, also, granted, as Custodian of the Spiritualities, several Licences and Letters Dimissory, of all of which full particulars are given, many a missing link is thereby supplied to the Students of our Parochial history.

[1] The Letters and other Documents referred to in this Preface will be found in the pages which follow, set forth in chronological order. They were copied for me, in Lambeth Palace Library, by my friend, Mr. Baigent; to whose unfailing kindness I am indebted, more than I can say, for this, and for many another enrichment of my Books. And I have, again, to acknowledge, with gratitude, the continued help of the many kind Friends who have assisted me before. Mr. Baigent, Mr. Dredge, of Buckland-Brewer, and Mr. Greenfield, of Southampton, have, again, read all my proofs; and Mr. Winslow Jones has rendered valuable service in helping me to identify the names of Manors and other Estates referred to more or less obscurely in the Register.

On the 25th of November the Chapter addressed the Archbishop, promising to obey his Official, but claiming that their antient rights and privileges should be respected, and especially in the matter of the election of their Dean. They asked him to write to Murimouth on the subject, and, bearing in mind how slenderly the Office was endowed, and how sorely they had been tried of late, to spare them all unnecessary expense and trouble, lest they should have sorrow upon sorrow. On the following day they sent him their formal Petition to the same effect, and Licence was granted in due course; but at what date we shall never know, for the Entry has been cut in two by the abstraction of a folio, and the Commission "pro Eleccione Decani," which was sent to Murimouth, apparently at the same time, ends, unfortunately, with nothing more definite than the slovenly, and too common, "Datum, etc." We know, however (see page 9) that the Dean had not yet been elected on the 8th of January, 1326-7, and that the election must have taken place some time before the 1st of July, following, when the Primate again addresses the "Dean and Chapter" as usual (see page 12). Le Neve could find no earlier mention of Dean Coletone than on 6 Feb., 1327-8.

Meanwhile the far more important business of electing Stapeldon's successor had been taken in hand. The Chapter met for this purpose on the 5th of December,[1] and, by their unanimous vote, elected James de Berkeley, one of themselves, who for some years past had been Archdeacon of Huntingdon and Canon of Wells, etc.;[2] a man of some eminence as a Theologian, Chaplain to the Pope, and a member of a noble and powerful Family, for he was the third son of Thomas Lord Berkeley by Joan, daughter of William de Ferrers, Earl of Derby. They wrote to the King on the following day, informing him of the Election, and asking him to assent thereto. Berkeley himself was the bearer of their Letter. On the 12th[3] the Royal Assent was given. On the 20th, being the Saturday next after the Feast of St.

[2] On the 19th of March, 1317-18, the Pope provided him to a Canonry in Chichester Cathedral, with reservation of a Prebend, on the request of Aymer de Valence, Earl of Pembroke, whose Clerk he was; notwithstanding that he held Canonries and Prebends in the Churches of Exeter, Wells, Hereford, St. David's, and Bosham.—Register of Pope John XXII., Regesta Vol. LXV., fol. 252b (F.J.B.)

Lucy, an Ordination had been appointed to be held, as usual; and, as the Archbishop was unable to undertake the Duty in person, he issued his Commission, on the 11th, to Peter, Bishop of Corbavia, to ordain in his room.

All was proceeding regularly, therefore, at home. But Pope John XXII, at Avignon, had already exercised his authority. There can be no doubt that he had been greatly moved by the circumstances of the late Bishop's death; and he had, probably, heard of the consternation and consequent disorder that prevailed throughout the Diocese. Accordingly, on the Vigil of St. Katherine, the 24th of November, he announced, in his Consistory, that he had reserved to himself the right to provide to the vacant See. This, it will be noticed, occurred several days before Berkeley was elected, and there can be no reason to suppose that it was due to any disinclination to promote a distinguished Ecclesiastick of high character and reputation, on whom he had himself, recently, bestowed a special mark of favour. As soon, however, as he heard of the Election, he took steps to enforce his right. William de Laudun, Archbishop of Vienne, one of the Commissaries who had been appointed by the Pope, on the 26th of September, to negotiate the Peace of Gascony, was then in England, whither he had been accompanied by John de Grandisson, Archdeacon of Nottingham, who had been associated with him in this important business. Arriving at Dover on the 10th of December, they proceeded at once to Canterbury, where they remained till the 4th of January, waiting the King's pleasure; and the Pope seems to have availed himself of the opportunity to communicate his Reservation, informally, to Archbishop Reynolds; for Laudun wrote to the Primate on the 24th of December, apprising him of the Reservation, and suggesting that he would do well to consider what course he ought to take in case an Election to the vacant See had been already accomplished, or was in contemplation. He knew, no doubt, what had happened, and was only feeling his way, diplomatically, along a path which, he was well aware, was beset with difficulties.

Meanwhile the King had taken alarm. He was, of course, anxious to sustain the Election, and disposed to resent an action which might prove injurious to Berkeley, to whom he was attached. And he wrote to the Pope, from Kenilworth, on the 18th of December, representing to him that the Canons of Exeter, having, according to antient custom, sought and obtained his Licence, had elected Berkeley, and that he had given his Royal Assent to the said Election. Enlarging on the merits of the Bishop-Elect, his great learning, noble birth, blameless life, and conspicuous prudence, he besought the Pope to ratify the Election; adding that, if there were any question of Reservation, he trusted that he would not insist on his claim with rigour, but would suffer things to take their course.

He wrote, also, to several of the Cardinals, asking them to use their influence with the Pope on Berkeley's behalf.

The Pope's conduct has been severely criticised; and Godwin, without the slightest foundation, as Dr. Oliver justly complains, and in the teeth of such evidence as we possess, "goes so far as to attribute the premature death of the consecrating Primate, and of the new Bishop, to the terrors excited by the acerbity of the Pope's language." But the Primate's own Register affords no justification whatever of this wild and improbable charge; on the contrary, it contains a copy of a second Letter addressed to him by the Archbishop of Vienne, on the 8th of January, in explanation of his former Letter; assuring him that he had received no formal instructions from the Pope, and that it had been far from his own intention to suggest anything which could inflict injury on any man, or deprive any of their just rights. And, as to the election of a Bishop to the vacant See, he expressed his hope that the Primate would use his own judgement in the matter, and deal with it according to reason and justice. A comparison of the two Letters reveals, beyond all doubt, the hand of the practised diplomatist; but it is certain that he would not have written in this strain, if he had not been quite sure of his ground. We have no copy of the Pope's reply to the King; but it was, probably, favourable; for Laudun's Letter, as I have said, was written in London on the 8th of January, and on the very same day the King wrote to Robert de Bilkemore, his Escheator in the Counties of Cornwall, Devon, Somerset, and Dorset, informing him that Berkeley's Election had been confirmed by the Primate, and commanding the Restitution of the Temporalities. Archbishop Reynolds wrote, also, on the same day to the Clergy and people of the Diocese of Exeter, apprising them that the Confirmation had taken place in his Chapel at Lambeth, in the presence of the Bishops of Winchester and Rochester, and before a great multitude of witnesses, clerical and lay; to the Chapter of Exeter, enjoining Obedience to their new Bishop; and to Adam Murimouth, requiring him to surrender to Berkeley the Custody of the Spiritualities and the Seals, Registers, and Muniments of the See. On the 29th he wrote to the Bishop of London, informing him of the day fixed for the Consecration, and requesting him to attend in person and to invite the other Bishops of the Province to be present. It was celebrated, by the Primate, on the 22nd of March, being Mid-Lent Sunday, in the Cathedral Church of Canterbury, the Bishops of Rochester and Chichester assisting; and on the 25th the Archbishop issued his Commission to the Archdeacon of Canterbury for the Enthronization.

As a matter of fact the Pope had solved the difficulty, not by foregoing his Reservation, but by giving it effect in favour of the Bishop-Elect. And he seems to have done so with a very good grace indeed, however reluctantly. A copy of his Bull, addressed on the 27th of April, 1327, to his "Venerable Brother, James, Bishop of Exeter," has been preserved by Bishop Grandisson in his own Register,[1] doubtless with a view to presenting to posterity in its true light the conduct of his Friend and Patron. It shews, as Dr. Oliver says, "great good sense and feeling. After affirming his right to Provision in this particular case of Reserve, he excuses the parties on the ground of their being ignorant of his intention, ratifies the Election and the Consecration, supplies every defect, and commands that no prejudice shall accrue, and no obstacle be interposed to the Canonical government of the Diocese of Exeter."

Of Berkeley's Episcopate we know little indeed. No Register or other record exists; and it was, doubtless, as uneventful as it was brief. On the 12th of January, four days after his Confirmation, he wrote to Murimouth (whose Commission as Administrator had been revoked on the 8th), appointing him his Official-Principal. He was, probably, enthroned soon after the 25th of March; and then, following the example of his Predecessors, he seems to have undertaken the inspection of the Episcopal Manors. At one of them, Petreshayes, in the Parish of Yarcombe, he died (as we learn from the Register of Newenham Abbey and from Murimouth's Chronicle) on the 24th of June.[2] He was buried in the Choir of his Cathedral, on the south side; and Leland tells us that he saw the epitaph on his tomb,—

"In Berkley natus, jacet hic Jacobus tumulatus."

As soon as the startling news that the See was once more vacant reached the Archbishop, he again committed the Administration to Murimouth. The Commission is dated 1 July; and he wrote on the same day to the Dean and Chapter, directing them, as before, to deliver up the Official's Seal and the Registers and other Muniments. He wrote, also, to Murimouth himself, authorizing him to deal with the Will and the effects of the deceased Prelate. It transpired that the stock and other property on the Episcopal Manors were claimed by Bishop Stapeldon's Executors; and, accordingly, on the 27th of July, he commissioned John de Bruytone, Canon of Wells, in conjunction with Murimouth, to ascertain whether Berkeley had entered into any contracts for the purchase of any part thereof, and to see that justice was done between the parties without delay.

It was to be expected, after all that had recently happened, that the Pope, the King, and the Chapter would soon be on the alert to advance their respective claims to deal with the unexpected vacancy. And the King was earliest in the field. He wrote, on the 1st of July [2] Isto anno [1327], in Festo Sancti Johannis Baptiste, est Jacobus, Episcopus Exoniensis, mortuus apud Petresheghes, in sua Diocesi. to the Pope, acknowledging his claim to reserve to himself the right of Provision on this occasion, and entreating him to decide in favour of Thomas de Cherletone, Canon of York, on the ground that he would rule the Diocese well, and, being of noble extraction, would be able to defend it against the assaults of malignant men, as he would be supported by his influential relatives and friends. He wrote, also, to twelve of the Cardinals, asking them to further his designs.

The Dean and Chapter, however, soon took action, in the regular course, sending two of the Canons, Benedict de Pastone and Adam Murimouth the Younger, to inform the King of Berkeley's death and to crave his Licence to elect a Successor.[1] They found the King at Aldewyrke, where the Licence was granted on the 5th of July; and, shortly afterwards, the Chapter elected John de Godeleghe, Canon of Exeter and Dean of Wells. They reported the Election to the King; who wrote to the Archbishop, on the 31st of August, informing him that he had given his formal Assent thereto; and to the Pope, and several of the Cardinals, on the 16th of September, requesting that the Election might be confirmed. On the same day the Archbishop commissioned the Bishop of Corbavia to ordain, at Exeter, on Ember-Saturday, which fell three days later. We have no record of the Pope's answer to the King's Letter on behalf of Cherletone; but, as Edward so readily transferred his recommendation to Dean Godeleghe, it is probable that he had been satisfied by a promise to provide his nominee to the See of Hereford, which would shortly become vacant by the Provision of Adam de Orletone to that of Worcester.

Meanwhile, the Pope had determined to promote John de Grandisson, a man of conspicuous merit and of great promise, an earnest and devout priest, of noble blood but free from the ties and temptations of courtly life. As early as the 10th of August he had written to him, declaring his intention to provide him to the vacant See. On the 12th Grandisson was declared Elect and Confirmed; and the Letter announcing his promotion reached him on the 6th of September, at St. Macaire. On the 18th of October he was consecrated at Avignon, together with Thomas de Cherletone, Elect of Hereford, by Peter, Cardinal Bishop of Prænestc. And the secret had been well kept; for, more than a fortnight afterwards, on the 2nd of November, we find the Primate, evidently ignorant of what had been done, commissioning his Chancellor, Robert de Reddiswelle—"ad procedendum et cognoscendum . . . in negocio

[1] De Licencia eligendi.—Magister Benedictus de Pastone et Magister Adam Murimouthe, junior, Canonici Ecclesie Cathedralis Exonie, nunciantes mortem bone memorie Jacobi, nuper Episcopi ejusdem Loci, habent Literas Regis Decano et Capitulo Ecclesie predicte de Licencia eligendi. Whatever may be thought of these proceedings by those who have no sympathy with Papal claims, they were, at any rate, justified by the result. It was a good and wise choice, and gave to Exeter the most devoted and illustrious of her Bishops. The new Bishop found his whole Diocese distressed and disordered. His Cathedral Church was unfinished; and the work of recasting the Nave, which had been commenced by Stapeldon and suddenly cut short by his lamentable death, demanded immediate measures to save it from dilapidation and ruin. The Episcopal Estates had been given over to wanton waste, and, as he loudly complained, even to extensive depredation, so that he had to face, and to endure for several years, the most grinding straitness of means. And the ordinary duties of the Clergy, especially in the remoter parts of Cornwall, were sorely neglected, while discipline, even in the Cathedral itself, was all but suspended. But he plunged into his work bravely and eagerly, without a moment's delay that could be avoided, grudging even the few days that were occupied by necessary formalities, and spurning the attractions of the Court and the flattery and praise of men. He could not rest till he was united to his "Spouse"; and, when he had once taken possession of his Diocese, it was found almost impossible to induce him to leave it again, through all his long Episcopate, and he devoted his days with untiring energy, unflinching self-sacrifice, and conspicuous success to its reformation and good government. But I must reserve my detailed account of his life and labours for my Preface to the Third Part of this Edition of his Register. If I am spared to complete my task, all my materials will, then, be displayed in order before me; and I may hope to do justice, in some measure, to the memory of so great a man.

A brief description of the Manuscript will be given by way of Preface to my next Volume.[2]

[1] It must not be forgotten that the Election of Godeleghe would have been disastrous, if it had been sustained. He was an aged and infirm man at the time (see page 33), and he died in February, 1332-3. There would soon have been yet another vacancy; and, meanwhile, the Diocese would have suffered grievous loss.

Litera directa Domino per Capitulum Exoniense, ad petendum Licenciam ad eligendum Decanum,— Reverendo in Christo Patri ac Domino, Domino Waltero, Dei gracia Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, Tocius Anglie Primati, sui Capellani humiles et devoti Capitulum Exoniensis Ecclesie facientes, reverenciam, obedienciam, et honorem debitos tanto Patri.—Vacante nuper Ecclesia nostra predicta per mortem bone memorie Episcopi nostri, cujus mortem et moriendi nomen plangere non cessamus, discretum virum, Adam Murimuthe, clericum vestrum, nostrumque Canonicum et Confratrem, Officialem, Custodem, et Administratorem Spiritualitatis, Sede Exoniensi vacante, vestra Paternitas deputavit, cui obedivimus et imposterum in Canonicis et licitis intendimus obedire, et eidem Sigilla Officialium Spiritualis Jurisdiccionis fecimus liberari. Registra, vero, et alia Acta Episcopalia eidem non potuimus facere liberari, pro eo quod omnia hujusmodi fuerunt Londoniis, in Hospicio Domini nostri defuncti, una cum rebus suis ceteris, occupata; ad quorum Registrorum recuperacionem reputaremus opus misericordie laborare, quoniam necessaria forent Ecclesie Exoniensi, nec alicui alteri afferre possint commodum detinenti. Et, quanquam ex forma Commissionis sibi facte, que sibi dat exercicium omnis Jurisdiccionis Spiritualis, nichil excipiendo, quoscumque presentatos ad Beneficia videretur posse admittere in eisdem, cum illud de lege Jurisdiccionis existat, presertim cum Magister Willelmus de Kylkenny, Canonicus noster, in ultima Vacacione, virtute hujusmodi Commissionis, omnia talia exercuerit, sicut ipse, adhuc superstes, non solum se sed et alios asserit hoc fecisse; in hoc, tamen, et in aliis quibusdam reddit se difficilem, ita quod vix vult rescribere pro Inquisicionibus presentatorum ad Beneficia capiendis, ex hoc sibi occasionem dubitacionis assumens quod vos sibi unam Institucionem, scilicet Ecclesie Sancti Petroci, specialiter commisistis; de qua Commissione, judicio nostro, moneri non debet, quia vos illud negocium inchoastis antequam ipse Commissionem sue Administracionis admisit. Placeat, igitur, Paternitati vestre significare eidem quod ipse hujusmodi personas presentatas instituat, Literas Dimissorias concedat, et alia faciat que Capitulum, Sede vacante, facere posset de jure communi, et vos facere potestis de consuetudine speciali; ut consuetudo nostra servetur illesa et subditorum parcatur laboribus et expensis. Ad hec, Pater Reverende, dolentes referimus quod Ecclesia nostra non solum est, ut premittitur, viduata, sed eciam, per mortem bone memorie Bartholomei, Decani nostri, utriusque Parentis solacio destituta; pro cujus successoris eleccione facienda foret ab Episcopo, si viveret, Licencia optinenda, et per ipsum hujusmodi eleccionis confirmacio impendenda, ipsiusque eleccionis examinacio in Diocesi facienda eciam si Episcopus ageret in remotis, prout in ultima vacacione Decanatus ipsius, et aliis, fieri consuevit, quum Episcopus, Londoniis existens, ipsam eciam ibidem inchoatam commisit et remisit ad partes. Placeat, igitur, Paternitati vestre dicto Officiali et Administratori vestro rescribere quid facere debeat de premissis, et sibi, vel alteri si opus fuerit, omnia supradicta committere; ne nos et Electum nostrum ad dictum Decanatum, qui exilis et majoris est oneris quam honoris, oporteat expensis gravibus et laboribus fatigari. Tot, enim, et tantis sumus affliccionibus, oppressionibus, et gravaminibus fatigati quod pium reputamus nos et Ecclesiam nostram immunem a consimilibus preservare, ita quod affliccio non addatur afflictis.—Paternitatem vestram conservet Altissimus per tempora diuturna! Scriptum Exonie, xxv die mensis Novembris [1326].—Fol. 150[b].

Reverendo in Christo Patri, Domino Waltero, Dei gracia Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, Tocius Anglie Primati, sui Capellani humiles et devoti, Capitulum Ecclesie Cathedralis Exonie, obedienciam, reverenciam, et honorem debitos tanto Patri.—Reverende Paternitati vestre presentibus Literis intimamus quod bone memorie Bartholomeus, quondam Decanus noster, est viam universe carnis ingressus, ipsiusque corpus Ecclesiastice traditum sepulture; pro cujus successoris eleccione, a nobis quibus competit facienda, foret ab Episcopo Exoniensi, si quem haberemus, Licencia postulanda. Cum, igitur, jurisdiccio et potestas Episcopalis Ecclesie Exoniensis per mortem felicis recordacionis Domini Walteri, quondam Episcopi nostri, vacantis, in custodia vestra et Officialium et Administratorum vestrorum existant, ad vestram Reverendam Paternitatem pro hujusmodi Licencia habenda duximus recurrendum, eidem humiliter supplicantes quatinus eligendi nobis Decanum Licenciam liberaliter concedatis. Vestram Reverendam Paternitatem conservet Altissimus per tempora longiora! Datum in Capitulo nostro Exoniensi, xxvj die mensis Novembris, Anno Domini M°. CCC^mo^. vicesimo sexto.—fol. 152[b].

Licencia ad eligendum Decanum,—

Walterus, etc., Capitulo Ecclesie Exoniensis, salutem, etc.—Exhibita nobis Peticio vestris Literis inserta continebat quod, cum Magister Bartholomeus de Sancto Laurencio, nuper Decanus Ecclesie Exoniensis predicte, universe carnis debitum persolverit, et ipsius corpus Ecclesiastice sit traditum sepulture, vobis Decanum eligendi, racione Spiritualitatis Civitatis et Diocesis Exonie, Sede inibi nunc vacante, penes nos existentis, Licenciam concedamus. Nos, autem, piis desideriis favere volentes, vobis ad presens, tenore Presencium Licenciam concedimus postulatam; salvis nostris et Ecclesie nostre Cantuariensis juribus et libertatibus in hac parte; obsecrantes et in Domino exhortantes ut talem vobis et Ecclesie vestre in Decanum eligatis qui Deo acceptus ac vobis et Ecclesie vestre utilis existat, cuique nichil obviet de Canonicis Institutis. Unde vestra Paternitas, non obstantibus nostris predictis Literis, faciat in ipsa Ecclesia quod sibi placuerit et quod judicet consonum racioni et juri. (2) Pape Rex devota pedum oscula beatorum. Virtutum et meritorum insignia quibus dilectus consanguineus noster, Magister Jacobus de Berkele, multipliciter decoratur nos excitant et inducunt ut ea que ipsius respiciunt commodum et honorem effectualiter procuremus, et eo fervencius quo in gradu consanguinitatis nos attingit. Teste Rege, apud Northamptone, xxix die Julii (1318).

(3) Magnifico Principi, Domino Roberto, Dei gracia Cicilie Regi illustri, consanguineo suo karissimo, Edwardus, etc., salutem et prosperos ad vota successus. Datum ut supra.—Rot. Rom. et Franc. 12 Edw. II., m. 11d.

—Ad Papam pro Willelmo de Ayremyne—de Jure Regio manutenendo.—This Letter is of some length; but the following extract suffices for our purpose.—"Ecce, Pater Sancte, vacante nuper Episcopatu Lincolniensi, vacavit et Prebenda de Leyhtone Busard, in dicta Lincolniensi Ecclesia, per liberam resignacionem Magistri Jacobi de Berkeleye, Prebendarii et possessoris ejusdem; quam contulimus dilecto clerico nostro, Magistro Willelmo de Ayremyne, regio jure nostro nemini, ut credimus, dubio vel ignoto; qui, quidem, clericus, ad dictam Prebendam per Loci Ordinarium Canonice admissus, ipsam possedit diucius pacifice et quiete." —The King had heard that a certain Master John de Podio Bersico claims the Prebend by Apostolick Provision, and disquiets the King's Clerk in his possession of it. And he notifies that he has enjoined Master John de Stratforde, Archdeacon of Lincoln, and Master William de Westone, Professors of Civil Law, to lay the case before his Holiness. Dated at Reading, 12 Dec., 1321.—A corresponding Letter was sent to three of the Cardinals, that they might favourably entertain the case, and hear the King's Proctors.—Rot. Rom. et Franc. 15 Edw. II., m. 12.

Le Neve does not mention the fact that Berkeley held this Prebend. Sir Hugh de Normanton obtained it, 8 Sept., 1316, by exchange with Gilbert de Middelton for the Prebend of Thame. It was given to William de Ayremynne he tells us, in 1319, and William de Weston succeeded in 1324, on the resignation of Ayremynne, who became Bishop of Norwich in 1325. He states that Ayremynne obtained the stall of Buckden, in the same Cathedral Church in 1314, and he may have exchanged it for Leighton-Buzzard with Berkeley, who held it at the time of his Election to the See of Exeter. Berkeley was, also, Chaplain to the Pope, and Archdeacon of Huntingdon from 20 Oct., 1318, till he became Bishop.

Et, quia forsitan aliqui, proprie honestatis immemores, tanquam substituti a prefato Magistro Jacobo, per partes predictas discurrentes, pecuniam, animalia, et alia bona ex causis predictis petant et recipiant, et ea in alios usus convertant illicite et inhoneste, volentes hujusmodi maliciis modis quibus convenit obviare, vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes quod, ubicumque tales in Ballivis vestris Literas testimoniales dicti Magistri Jacobi non habentes inveneritis, ipsos arestari et detineri faciatis, donec de statu et conversacione ipsorum vobis per prefatum Magistrum Jacobum constiterit. Proviso quod hujusmodi pecunia, animalia, et alia bona apud eos inventa, vel penes alios nomine suo deposita, predicto Magistro Jacobo, vel ejus certo nuncio Literas super hoc exhibenti, totaliter assignentur. In cujus, etc., per quadriennium duraturas. Teste Rege apud Westmonasterium, xx die Novembris (1320).—Rot. Pat. 14 Edw. II., p. 1, m. 7.—James de Berkeley held the stall of Pratum Majus in Hereford Cathedral, and he continued to hold it till he became Bishop of Exeter.

In cujus rei, etc., usque ad Festum Purificacionis Beate Marie Virginis proximo futurum [2 Feb., 1326-7] duraturas. Teste Rege apud Ledbury, tricesimo die Novembris (1326).—*Rot. Pat. 20 Edw. Three years later we find the King writing again to the Pope in favour of the Dean of Wells, but in a very different strain,—"Compacientes ex intimis debilitati corporis senescentis discreti viri, Clerici nostri predilecti, Johannis de Godelee, Decani Wellensis, nuper Exoniensis Ecclesie Electi." At the very time of his Election his health was failing, and he obtained permission to reside out of Wells for three years. He did not avail himself of this favour, "eo quod circa ardua dicte Wellensis Ecclesie negocia toto dicto triennio extitit occupatus," and on the 13th of December, 1330, the King supports his application for permission to leave the Cathedral City and reside "in alia Ecclesiarum ubi Beneficia optinet, vel in corpore Decanatus sui seu alicujus Prebendarum suarum, vel in alia Ecclesia Cathedrali ubi beneficiatus existit, aut in loco ubi ceperat originem, quociens sibi placuerit, prout sanitati et complexioni sue melius viderit convenire, . . . potissime cum aër in Civitate Wellensi ubi idem Decanus residens est multociens infectus et sue contrarius sanitati." The King wrote, also, on the same day, to the Cardinal Bishop of Albano,—"Johannis de Godelee, etc., vergentis ad senium, quanta fecerit ipsius industria Ecclesiis in quibus hactenus conversatus est opera meritoria merito ponderantes, condicionisque ipsius corporee continuum decrementum intuentes, Domino Summo Pontifici, pro ipsius quiete et solacio senectutis, preces nostras optulimus speciales ut ab Ecclesia Wellensi, in qua residere tenetur continue, pro tempore quo sibi viderit expedire ad alia loca Beneficiorum quibus preest, seu ad loca patrimonii et originis propter convenienciam aëris naturalis, se divertere possit et morari, prout decreverit, pro conservacione sue sanitatis."—Rot. Rom. 4 Edw. III., m. 2.

—Pape Rex devota pedum oscula beatorum.—Effecit fecunda dileccio qua personam dilecti nobis in Christo, Fratris Johannis de Courtenay, Monachi Abbacie de Tavystoke, filii nobilis viri et fidelis nostri Hugonis de Courtenay, in Abbatem Loci illius in discordia nuper electi, tam ob parentum suorum nobilitatem quam suorum eciam contemplacione laudabilium meritorum, prosequimur in visceribus caritatis, ut pro ipsius honoris augmento penes vestram Beatitudinem devotis precibus insistamus. Quamobrem eundem Fratrem Johannem, virum utique religione probatum, moribus et vita conspicuum, et in agendis quibuslibet circumspectum, vestre clemencie votivo recommendamus affectu; attencius supplicantes quatinus eundem Fratrem Johannem Abbacie predicte, que propter vacacionem diutinam non leve, ut audimus, in rebus ad eam spectantibus jam passa est detrimentum, preficere velitis in Abbatem et Pastorem. Firmam, enim, in Domino fiduciam reportamus quod predicta Abbacia, si ipsius regimini committatur, per ipsius industriam, parentum et propinquiorum suorum sibi presidio suffragante, a noxiis protegetur incursibus et salutaribus proficiet incrementis. Datum apud Eboracum, xx die Augusti (1327).—The King wrote, also, to the same effect and on the same day—"Domino Petro, Episcopo Penestrino [of Prœneste], Sancte Romane Ecclesie Vicecancellario."—Rot. Rom. 1 Edw. III., m. 3.

The Election of Courtenay was set aside; and, after an interval of nearly twelve months, Robert Bonus became Abbat of Tavistock, 12 June, 1328, on the recommendation of the Pope and many of the Cardinals. On his deposition by Bishop Grandisson, 23 Oct., 1333, Courtenay at last succeeded, on the 24th of April following.

. . . Thesaurario et Baronibus de Scaccario Domini nostri Regis, etc., Johannes, Episcopus Exoniensis, salutem, etc.,—Super quo, Reverendi Domini, pro certo sciatis quod, cum nos per Breve Regium de Cancellaria, prout moris est, onerati simus ad deputandum in nostra Diocesi Decimarum Collectores, nos prefatum Abbatem de Forde, velud in facultatibus nunc magis sufficientem, et inter alios Religiosos nostre Diocesis in secularibus negociis expertum, pro Comitatu Devonie deputaverimus, et nichilominus vos in dicto Brevi concluditis quod ipsum habere non vultis ista vice; nescimus ulterius exequi, ex quo positi per nos et ex certa sciencia tam faciliter se poterunt per indebitos favores aut excusaciones frivolas excusare, vel prece aut precio se redimere ab onere colligendi. Alias, enim, per easdem causas, et potissime per hoc quod ultra mare profecturus erat, ut dicebat, se apud nos mendaciter excusavit. Et nunc, considerans quod ulterius nos per tales adinvenciones mendaces circumvenire non posset, ad vos inmediate accessit, et vestram discrecionem subdole circumvenit. Qui, eciam, per suas fraudes flexuosas adeo primos Collectores illusit quod usque in presentem diem, prout nobis sunt conquesti, Decimam pretactam in parte vel in toto solvere non curavit; quin pocius, propter ejus violenciam et rebellionem, nec per nos, cum de nostris Decretis vel Sentenciis propter ipsius exempcionem non curet, nec per Vicecomitem, aut per Brevia Regia, aliquid levare poterant vel audebant. Et, quod mirabile et incredibile est dictu, cum alias eidem Abbati amicabiliter per Literas nostras secretas persuaderemus ad satisfaciendum Domino nostro Regi de predictis, respondit per Literam suam quod satisfaceret quando tempus videret, quia habuit alia Domus sue negocia magis cordi. Et preter hec idem Abbas binis vicibus delituit, ne Commissio nostra eidem in persona propria traderetur. Et semel, cum per unum de nostris cum tali Commissione apprehensus esset, finxit et asseruit se Abbatem non esse, set quod idem nuncius noster Abbatem inveniret in Ecclesia vel in claustro. Si, ergo, ipsius Abbatis frivolis excusacionibus magis quam nobis credere vel favere, insolitumque servitutis jugum Episcopis, Regni Paribus, imponere volueritis, assignetis loco ipsius alium pro libito Collectorem, et libenter parebimus ista vice; ita, tamen, quod exoneretur a Decimis istius nugegeruli Abbatis, qui nec de Temporalium nec de Spiritualium Decimis satisfecit aut satisfaciet, nisi

Et fiat hujusmodi prosecucio in curia domini loci quo talis casus acciderit. Et, si domini villarum vel maneriorum contra presentem Ordinacionem nostram, per se vel ministros suos, in aliquo venire presumpserint, tunc in Comitatibus, Wapentachiis, et Trithingis, vel aliis curiis nostris hujusmodi, ad penam tripli per eos vel ministros suos sic soluti vel promissi, in forma predicta, fiat prosecucio contra eos. Et, si forsan aliquis, contra presentem Ordinacionem, cum aliquo de sic serviendo pro majori salario convenerit, ipse, racione dicte convencionis, ad solvendum ultra id quod alias tali consuetum est solvi minime teneatur; immo plus solvere sub pena predicta non presumat. Venerabili in Christo Patri et Domino, Domino Johanni, Dei gracia Wygorniensi Episcopo, Johannes, etc., salutem, etc.—Breve Regis sub Magno Sigillo suo de Cancellaria recepimus; quod infra presens Retornum, sicut idem requirit Breve, vobis remittimus interclusum. Quicquid per occupatores et detentores Decanatus Ecclesie Parochialis Sancte Beriane in Cornubia, nostre Diocesis, Majestati Regie sit suggestum, facti tamen veritas sic se habet, ut per multas antiquas et modernas evidencias satis liquet. Omni tempore ex quo Exoniensis Ecclesia fuit Cathedralis et per Beatum Edwardum Confessorem Episcopalis ibi posita fuit Sedes, dicta Parochialis Ecclesia Sancte Beriane, cum clero et populo ejusdem, prout alie Ecclesie Parochiales Exoniensis Diocesis, subjecta fuit pacifice Ecclesie Exoniensi et ipsius Episcopis in omnibus, pleno jure. Ac quociens et quando Decanatus dicte Ecclesie Sancte Beriane vacavit, Nobiles Viri Comites Cornubie, temporibus suis, usque ad tempora bone memorie Domini Edwardi, avi Domini nostri nunc Regis, et, ante ipsos Comites, Religiosi Viri, Prior et Conventus Roffensis, a quibus inclitus Vir, Dominus quondam Ricardus, Rex Alemannie et Comes Cornubie, jus Patronatus ejusdem Ecclesie pro fol. 28b. Patronatu duarum aliarum Ecclesiarum juxta Castrum de Wallyngforde permutacionis titulo adquisivit. Decanos instituendos in eodem Exoniensibus Episcopis qui pro tempore fuerunt presentarunt. Decanusque dicte Ecclesie qui pro tempore fuit ad Prebendas seu Porciones dictis Exoniensibus Episcopis similiter presentavit. Qui omnes et singuli, tam Decani quam Prebendarii seu Porcionarii, postquam fuerunt per Episcopos instituti, Canonicam eis Obedienciam prestiterunt, prout hec omnia, ac eciam dies, anni, et loca in quibus, necnon nomina Personarum de quibus et per quas facta erant, per Registra antiqua Predecessorum nostrorum, usque ad[1] tempora Domini quondam Thome [Byttone], Exoniensis Episcopi, qui infra quinquaginta annos decessit, ostendi poterunt dilucide et probari. Verum, quia, defuncto Domino quondam Edmundo, Comite Cornubie, sine herede, Comitatus ipse in manus predicti Domini quondam Edwardi, avi dicti Domini nostri Regis, per viam cecidit escaete, idem Edwardus Rex dictum Decanatum . . . vacantem contulit cuidam Domino, Willelmo de Hameldone, Cancellario suo, Decano Eboraci; qui, videns se de jure communi non posse talia Beneficia simul licite retinere, suggessit Regi quod dicta Ecclesia Sancte Beriane fuit Libera Capella Regis, et sic secundum eum fuit, prout et alie Capelle Regie, sine cura; fundans se solum super hoc, quod in Libro qui vocatur Domesday dicitur contineri—Beriana Libera cum tot hidis, etc.; que libertas prefatam Parochialem et curatam Ecclesiam non ut Capellam Regiam concernit, set de tali loquitur libertate fugitivorum qualem, ob reverenciam quorundam Sanctorum, aliquibus locis et eorum incolis, utputa Beveralco et Riponie, Reges et Domini ex devocione antiquitus concesserunt. Cum, itaque, predictus Episcopus Thomas jus suum et Ecclesie sue per dictam fraudulentam suggestionem cerneret graviter esse lesum, ipse contra dictum Willelmum de Hameldone in Curia Regia movit litem, que perdebat toto suo tempore indecisa. Et, licet bone memorie Dominus, ultimus Walterus, Episcopus Exoniensis, Successor ipsius Thome, dictam litem usque ad redditionem judicii perduxisset, Domina, tamen, Isabella, que cuidam Johanni de Maunt, clerico suo, predictum contulit Decanatum, litem ipsam

A.D. 1351-2. non permisit in Curia Regis per Judicium terminari. Sicque, cum evidenti multarum animarum periculo ac nostro et dicte nostre Exoniensis Ecclesie prejudicio, totum adhuc remanet negocium in suspenso. Quamvis, igitur, Predecessores nostri, Exonienses Episcopi, Decanum, Porcionarios, ac eciam parochianos memorate Ecclesie Sancte Beriane, olim, dum eos ut Patres suos et Prelatos, Ecclesiamque nostram Exoniensem Matrem suam debite agnoverunt, affeccione paterna fuerunt in omnibus prosecuti, nos tamen modernis occupatoribus Decanatus ac Prebendarum seu Porcionum predictarum, et parochianis illius Ecclesie, qui omnes ab obediencia et subjeccione dicte nostre Exoniensis Ecclesie et nostra, per tales vias devias, velud scismatici sunt retracti, ex quo eos non possumus ad Ovile nostrum reducere; non tenemur, prout eciam juste non possemus, dum in tanta sunt rebellione pertinaciter persistentes, quecumque eis Sacramenta Ecclesiastica ministrare. Qui, tamen, si conversi fuerint, vel redire permissi ad Pastorem et Episcopum animarum suarum, et fiant unum Ovile et unus Pastor, eos, cum aliis ovibus nobis commissis, juxta Summi Pastoris graciam, curabimus et pascemus.—Altissimus Paternitatem vestram conservet per tempora feliciter duratura!—Datum apud Chuddeleghe, xiij° die mensis Marcii, A.D. M° CCC^mo lj°, et Consecracionis nostre xxv° [1351-2].

Quis, enim, de tam enormibus peccatis et excessibus citra Sedem Apostolicam absolvere posset. Taceo, propter verecundiam, que dicuntur. De manifestis, tamen, dicere licet. ADDITIONAL NOTES.

Page 70, note 3.—It was evident that some words had been omitted here. And I find that in the original the sentence runs thus,—"moderatum lucrum [et] non excessivum. [preut distancia locorum] a quibus victualia hujusmodi car[r]iantur duxeri[u]t racionabiliter requirendum."

" 80, No. 174 (Return). It is here distinctly stated (sub anno 1353-4) that Richard de Wytteslade (who was collated to the Dignity in 1329), died Treasurer of Exeter in the Pestilence, i.e. in 1349; shewing that Le Neve's List is inaccurate. He tells us that "Bernard de Caris held this Office circa 1335," giving no authority, however, for the statement (Fasti, i, 414). Oliver's List (History of the Bishops of Exeter, p. 283) is no better. He calls the Treasurer "Robert or Richard," whereas his name was, certainly, Richard; and adds that "He died in 1367."

" 85, line 11. I give these dates as they stand in the MS. They cannot be explained, and it is clear that the scribe copied them carelessly. For Athelstan died 27 Oct., 940. three years before the date assigned to this Donation; and if the words "mei Imperii vj^to" be correct, the date of the Document must have been 931.

The dates of many of these Letters are omitted; and in some the day of the month only is given. But I have supplied the year (I believe accurately), from internal evidence, in every instance. The Letters were not entered, in regular order, according to date; but I have printed them as they stand, with the exception of those which relate to Ottery. These I have placed by themselves, in their proper order, at the end of the Series. The marginal references to the folios will shew their positions in the MS.

A.D. 1327. Ecclesie talem preesse Pontificem per quem posset dicta Ecclesia utiliter dirigi et salubriter gubernari; ac, demum, attendentes concordem ipsorum eligencium voluntatem quam habuerunt in Eleccione predicta; post deliberacionem quam super hoc cum Fratribus nostris habuimus diligentem, ad te, multiplicium virtutum dotibus, prout ex fideli testimonio accepimus, insignitum, direximus aciem mentis nostre, ac de persona tua tunc absente eidem Ecclesie, de dictorum Fratrum consilio, Auctoritate Apostolica duximus providendum, preficientes te illi Ecclesie in Episcopum et Pastorem, ac curam et administracionem ipsius in Spiritualibus et Temporalibus committendo. Verum, post Provisionem et prefeccionem nostras hujusmodi de te factas, tu, adhuc earundem Reservacionis et Provisionis ac prefeccionis ignarus, innitens Eleccioni et Confirmacioni predictis, absque Licencia et Auctoritate Sedis ejusdem, a prefato Metropolitano tuo, alias tamen rite, obtinuisti tibi munus Consecracionis impendi. Nulli, ergo, omnino hominum liceat hanc Paginam nostre supplecionis, concessionis, et voluntatis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire.—Datum Avinione, x Kalendas Maii, Pontificatus nostri Anno xj^mo^ [22 April, 1327].

2.—Litera missa Domino Pape [Johanni XXII] per Romanos,[1]—

There were great disturbances in Rome soon after the removal of the Papal Court to Avignon; and the People, having driven the Nobles out of the City, chose fifty-two Citizens, four from each Ward, to govern them under Sciarra Colonna as Governor in chief.—It will be observed that Bulls, and other important Documents having no special connection with the Diocese of Exeter were entered, from time to time, in our Episcopal Registers, obviously for the purpose of ready reference.

A.D. 1328. Serenissimo in Christo Patri et Domino, eorum Domino Johanni, Divina Providencia Sacrosancte Romane ac Universalis Ecclesie Summo Pontifici, lij Electi Viri per Romanum Populum super pacifico statu Urbis, omnes Consules Arcium, totus Populusque Romanus devota pedum oscula beatorum.—Nexum inmensi debiti quo parentibus filii alligantur, insufficientes totaliter ad solvendum, in hoc saltim retribuunt, quod gaudent in illorum honoribus et obprobria detestantur. Hac certe meditacione continua, nos, veri filii Ecclesie Sancte Dei, modernis temporibus audientes iniquos flare ventos, pro Petri Navicula tempestatibus conquassanda turbamur in intimis et letaliter vulneramur, presertim quod cum Sancta Ecclesia Matre nostra, cum qua et vivere et mori unanimiter sumus dispositi, ab ea tam longevo spacio separati, presencialiter et continue non manemus. Eapropter vestre Beatitudini flexis poplicibus supplicamus quatinus Sedem vestram, primevum et verum Ecclesie fundamentum, quam oblivioni videmini tradidisse, abjectis morulis et excepcionibus, presencialiter visitetis, ubi, omni adversancium repulso turbine, Pater et filii, conflati in unum, poterunt, Deo propicio,[1] in pacis pulcritudine nupcialiter delectari. Alioquin exnunc apud Deum totamque Celestem Curiam, et Ecclesiam ipsam, ac omnes mundi Christicolas excusemur si quid sinistrum accidat vel contingat, et filii, Patris presencia destituti, tanquam acephali, declinant ad dexteram vel sinistram. Et, pro hiis seriosius enarrandis oraculo vive vocis, Nobiles, sapientes viros, Dominos Petrum Vagiani et Petrum Magistri Luce, Judices, ac Gocerium Gentilis de Insula, dilectos cives et ambassiatores nostros, ad vestram presenciam destinamus; eisdem districcius injungentes quod, quia facto opus est non verbis, ultra dies tres apud Romanam, immo Avinonicam, Curiam non morentur, set cum festinencia retrocedant, ut, eorum audita relacione, saltem nostre indempnitati consulere valeamus. 3.—[Litera] Responsalis Domini ad Literas sibi missas per Romanos,—

Johannes Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis lij Electis per Romanum Populum super pacifico statu Urbis, omnibus Consulibus Arcium, totique Populo Romano, salutem et Apostolicam Benediccionem.—Fructum paterne libertatis filiali manu importuna non expedit, nec decet, colligere et ore avido turpiter deglutire. Hec, utique, propterea vobis rescribendo prelibamus quia, visis nuper et cum diligencia lectis vestris ambassiatoriis Literis, dignum duximus admirandum. Super eo, tamen, maxime admirantes quia, etsi ventos iniquos pro quassanda turbinibus Petri Navicula, que quassari minime potest quantumcumque agitetur, flare percipitis, et proinde perturbati non modicum formidatis, nec, tamen, perpendisse videmini nos qui Navicule gubernaculum, quamvis indigni, tenemus, eidem totis viribus insudantes totaliter assidue flamine ventorum

Nether Heyford, seven miles west of Northampton where the Parliament was held.

A.D. 1328. orans quatinus id supleat infinita Dei bonitas, meis licet indignis precibus invocata. Ceterum, Sanctissime Pater et amantissime Domine, verens omnino vestre sollicitudinis animum per rumores qualescumque sepius distrahere, quem scio in tocius mundi causis arduissimis occupatum, diucius vestre Benignitati scribere differebam. Reverendo, tamen, Domino et Patri, Domino meo Penestrino,[1] graciosam a Domino Rege et suis Admissionem meam conscripsi plenius, supplicans instancius ut ipse eandem vestre Pietatis auribus pandere dignaretur. Nunc, vero, vestre Beatitudini, resumpta filiali audacia, notifico quod, post Admissionis mee predicte eventus prosperos et suaves, repente successit quedam aspera difficultas. Licet, enim, et juris et consuetudinum istius Regni noticia, in multis racione et justicia carencium, sim extraneus, tam a Congregacione quadam omnium dicti Regni Prelatorum, Comitum, et Procerum, apud Norhamptone circa periculosa et ardua Regis et Corone negocia pertractanda, nec meis potui nec amicorum precibus absentare quin ibidem juxta morem Patrie, cum sumptibus excessivis, inter alios sedere compellor; pauca, tamen, interrogans et respondens. Per hec, autem, a videndo et intrando Episcopatum meum, necnon et quicquam exinde percipiendi impeditus sum, inutiliter, usque modo. Post completum, tamen, predictum Regis et Regni Parliamentum, juvante Domino, ad Gregem et Dyocesim propriam festinabo; non obstante quod idem Dominus Rex Episcopatus mei terras vacacionis tempore seminavit, et ita earum fructus de Regni consuetudine percipiet isto anno. Unde a venturo Festo Sancti Michaelis in annum Spiritualia cum quibusdam redditibus tantum michi remanent. Unde spiritualiter, ut ita dicam, et exiliter inde vivere oportebit. Credo, tamen, et quasi scio me super eisdem fructibus, si institissem, a Domino Rege graciam invenisse. Set ne graciam ab eo modo peterem omnium amicorum consilia prohibebant; tum quia ipse Rex adhuc eget in sui principio, quo nichil difficilius omni statui reperitur: tum quia jus suum hereditarium ad Regnum Francie, quod juxta peritorum nostrorum sentenciam sibi pertinere creditur, et petere intendit et querere cum effectu. Ad cujus rei aggressum et progressum, pre sui sumptuositate nimia, magna sibi a tocius Regni Clero et populo jam subsidia petuntur. Quomodo, igitur, in hiis que sibi debentur graciam ab eo peterem nescio, qui in suis agendis necessitate coactus gracie adjutorii innititur alieni. Ordinatum est, eciam, de armatis in Wasconia et nunciis ad vestram presenciam et in Franciam mittendis; set de hiis quia dubia adhuc et pendencia

Adhuc, Beatissime Pater, inter cetera negocia dicti Parliamenti per Proceres Regni proposita fuerunt aliqua vestram tangencia Sanctitatem, que omnia Venerabili Viro, Magistro Hugoni de Engolisma,[1] quia presens ibi non intererat, lucidius explicavi, vestre per eum Paternitatis noticie revelanda. Demum, Pater dilectissime, tocius cordis unitis viribus coram Majestate vestra in preces et lacrimas me converto, quatinus a vestre Pietatis non cadat memoria illa mei Predecessoris occisio tam nephanda, cujus sceleris inpunitas Gentem nostram adeo scandalizat, ut timor Dei et Ecclesie, qui prius erat modicus, nisi vestra confortet meditacio in brevi penitus exstirpetur. Pro parte, autem, Londoniensium, si placet, excusaciones quorumcumque zelancium non esset vestre Clemencie tutum faciliter acceptare; cum inter nos dicatur communiter, et multis eciam appareat conjecturis, quod quidam Prelatorum nostrorum preciosis et magnis eorundem Londoniensium muneribus et promissionibus attrahuntur, ut in conspectu Sacrosancte Sedis Apostolice feditatem dicti sceleris falsis depingant coloribus, ne latens possit ibidem veritas apparere; quod utique famam dicte Sedis, quod absit, nimis lederet apud multos, et me filium ejus, etsi juvenem, et defensorem, licet invalidum, retunderet obrubentem. Ceterum, benignissime Pater, exempcionem Regie Capelle de Bosham, infra Diocesim Cicestrensem situate, cum Ecclesiis et Capellis eidem annexis, pie, si placet, dignemini memorie revocare ipsamque concedere, et Domino Vicecancellario mandare concessam, prout alias, ad instanciam bone memorie Regis Anglie ultimo defuncti, Predecessoris mei tempore concessistis, ac in recessu meo vestre Sanctitati humiliter supplicavi.—Ad fructuosum Universalis Ecclesie sue regimen, in utriusque gracioso profectu, vobis adaugeat Deus successus prosperos et longevos! Quod, certe, michi non minus penale quam verecundum reputo, dum longe supra quam valeo me de sacris manibus vestris percepisse recolo. Et, tamen, invitus appareo tante gratitudinis interim oblivisci. De hiis, tamen, que Camere debentur, quamvis, teste Deo, vires Ecclesie notorie excedant, propiciante Deo suis temporibus, cum grati Gregis michi commissi suffragio, satisfacere non despero. Et quamvis, amantissime Pater, in Predecessore meo Regia quondam famuliaritas, que ipsum incolis Regni plerisque, ut assolet, reddidit odiosum, non solum tamen suprapositarum destruccionum inicium fuerit et origo, verum eciam horrende sue perempcionis tempore nephario jacturam pregrandem in Privilegiis, Cartis, et Munimentis contraxit dicta Exoniensis Ecclesia; quam speramus omnes veraciter, vestro auxilio, detergendam. Confidimus, enim, Sunamitem vestram Exoniensem Ecclesiam, que jam a diu tot et tam ignominiosis desolatur injuriis, tam de trucidati Pastoris nece quam rerum et privilegiorum ablacione, a benignissima Paternitate vestra graciam et emendam consequi prompciorem. Cujus rei pretextu, si in vestre Pietatis auribus placido resonaret auditu exempcionem Capelle Regie de Boseham, ad Exoniensis Episcopi Collacionem cum Prebendis ejusdem pleno jure spectantis, ut alias in recessu a sancta presencia vestra, et iteratis postea cedulis, mea eciam nunc devote flagitaret humilitas, prout Sanctitas vestra predicto Predecessori meo ad instanciam alias Regalem extitit concessa; nam ejus condicio pendula, quousque stabiliatur in certo, perpetua erit materia Cicestrensi et Exoniensi Ecclesiis litigandi. Iterum, si placet, amantissime Pater, noverit Gloria vestra quod, dum in Vinea Domini Sabaoth, michi per vos commissa hic in ultimis Insule Partibus, pro viribus studeo laborare, Curia Cantuariensis Metropolica ita nobis est infesta, omnia quasi suffraganea jura non secundum Canones set secundum quasdam[1] siccas ac incertas et vagas consuetudines, juribus contrarias, per suas Inhibiciones, Citaciones, et Querelas indebite usurpando, quod ad salutem animarum et curam Ecclesiarum quiete intendere non valemus. Ad hec, piissime Pater, licet sinistra sanctis auribus suggerere indecens videatur, opus est morbos Gregis Pastori summo ac Medico revelare. Testis est michi Deus quod non mencior; quia Abbas Tavystochie,[1] Exoniensis Diocesis, per vestram Sanctitatem circumventam nunc prefectus, de Partibus Aquitannie ortus, ex quo huc accessit ab omni Religione et de Cultu se abstinens, Monachos suos conviciis et obprobriis indesinenter lacessendo, vicinos Nobiles et alios provocando, adeo in se tocius Patrie odium incitavit quod Domus sue destruccio et Religionis immineat eversio, vel ipsius, de quo magis timeo, perempcio propter suam vesaniam furiosam. Ego, tamen, ob reverenciam Sedis Apostolice, necnon Dominorum meorum de Peragrua, et de Garvo, ac de Mota, ipsum ad me blande alliciendo, et ad locum suum declinando, et inter ipsum et Conventum monitis et minis sepius mediando, vindictam Dei et vestram intentando, nichil adhuc proficere potui neque spero; faciam, tamen, quod in me est, quamdiu poterit tollerari. Et noverit Sancta Caritas vestra quod Ecclesia vestra Exoniensis, fere ad medium constructa, in honorem Matris Misericordie et duarum Olivarum Christo assistencium[2] edificata, cujus Majus Altare in Christi Nomine ad triplicem predictorum honorem jam dedicavi,[3] mirabili super ceteras in genere suo Regni Anglie vel Francie, si perficiatur, pulcritudine renitebit. Set, quia valde sumptuosa, et post pecuniosum modo penuriosum habens sponsum, nisi per sanctum presidium vestrum succurratur, inperfeccioni diucius subjacebit. Unde ipsam Ecclesiam et me indignum per vos Ministrum effectum Beatitudinis vestre pedibus recommendo. Ad fructuosum Universalis Ecclesie Sue regimen in utriusque gracioso profectu vobis adaugeat Deus successus prosperos et longevos! [1328-9].

Quicquid potest vel scit reverencie, cum devoto desiderio complacendi.—De multiplicibus caritatis operibus que circa indignam parvitatem meam vestra sepius exercuit mera benignitas, quia condignas gracias rependere non sufficio, neque vices mutuas reddere valeo, Ipse pro me vestre pietatis duplicatam retribuat mercedem Infusor omnium graciarum! Ego, vero, quod michi suppetit interim agere non desisto, cum humilibus precibus eadem vestra gratuita beneficia ante aciem mentis sepius reducendo. Et, ecce, Pater dulcissime, dum nedum in mundi finibus, set—ut ita dicam—in finium finibus

A.D. 1328-9. consisto, raro ad vos scribendi, et, quod magis doleo, rarius de vestra votiva prosperitate quicquam certum facultas accidit audiendi. Sic, enim, Diocesis ista, que Devoniam capit cum Cornubia, a ceteris Anglie Partibus est divisa, et, solo prospectu uno excepto, Occiano, raro tamen navigabili, undique cincta, quod ibidem solis est incolis consuetum. Lingua, eciam, in extremis Cornubie non Anglicis, set Britonibus, extat nota. De vinis quandoque Vasconie et carnibus patrie satis est habunda, set minus in frumento et ceteris mortalium usibus necessariis est fecunda. Ecclesia, vero, Exoniensis, fere ad medium constructa, mirabili, si perficiatur, pulcritudine renitebit; set quia valde sumptuosa, et post peccuniosum modo penuriosum habens sponsum, nisi per Matrem Romanam succurratur, imperfeccioni diucius subjacebit. Ad hec, Pater reverende, si placet, dilectum clericum meum familiarem, Magistrum Willelmum de Nassyngtone, Presencium portitorem, quem ad Curiam, nunc, pro Ecclesie michi commisse ac meis negociis specialiter mitto, Dominacionis vestre auxilio pariter et consilio confidenter ac humiliter recommendo. Dominacionem vestram reverendam Ecclesie Sue Sancte incolumem conservet Omnipotens per tempora diuturna!

Ista Clausula missa fuit Dominis Cardinalibus de Wasconia. — Ad hec, reverende Pater, licet ex se sit indecens Dominis sinistra de sociis dicere, tamen quod saluti Gregis et honori Divino palam liquet suboriri contrarium opus est aliquociens fol. 33. revelare. Nam ad hoc simul impellunt caritas atque cura. Testis est, ergo, michi Deus quod, dum amicum meum karissimum, Dominum Abbatem de Tavistoke, Exoniensis Diocesis, a puncto sui introitus viderim a Religione et Dei Cultu ut plurimum feriare, Monachos suos, quos pro majori parte judico competentes et bonos, vilipensivis obprobriis et contemptibus infestare, contra vicinos et potentes et nobiles lites frivolas excitare, et sic bona Monasterii dissipare, adeo in se et suos odium tocius Patrie cumulare, quod vel sue Domus eversio vel ipsius saltem perempcio timeretur, et adhuc non modicum timeatur; ego, ob vestram et Curie Romane reverenciam, nunc ipsum ad me invitando, nunc ad eum et Domum suam personaliter accedendo, Patrie modos et Gentis diligenter ostendi, et pro sensus mei modicitate consului, monui; vindictam, eciam, Dei et vestram crebro sibi replicans ad terrorem. Unde demum advertens me nichil proficere, set adhuc tumultum fieri, ad Paternitatem vestram recurro, conquerendo et rogando quatinus, si possit, furiam suam studeat refrenare et mores in melius mutare. Porro, ad testimonium veritatis eorum que de ipso jam retuli dolens, nullum omnino refugio ex suis familiaribus aut vicinis vel notis, quibus, ut presumitur, ipsa veritas plenius innotescit. Quendam, eciam, quod pudeo, Unde, accepta ab eo licencia, vacuus, ac sine commodo vel honore, cum dampno suo non modico, modo ad Curiam est reversus. [1328-9].

Quicquid, etc. Preferende Dominacioni vestre pro ostensis michi efficaciter et sepius graciosis auxilii simul et consilii beneficiis, absque meorum qualicumque preambulo meritorum, regracior uti possum. Set, certe, non sufficerem, si me totum in graciarum resolverem acciones. Et, tamen, copiose caritati ac benignitati vestre inmeritam, ut predixi, parvitatem meam, si placet, recommendare presumo, in dulcoris ipsius continuacione quam inde sepissime pregustavi. Et peto, si placet, attentissime, apud ipsam Dominacionem vestram de eo quod vobis frequenter ut volui non scripserim excusari; eo precipue quod non oblivio quidem aut segnicies est in causa, set elongacio mea ad ultimos terre nostre fines, ubi rarissime scitur de accessu vel reditu nunciorum. Quicquid, etc. Amantissime Dominacionis vestre statum, prout non inmerito teneor, ardenti spiritu scire desidero prosperum undiquaque: Reverende Paternitati vestre juxta mensuram virium graciarum referens acciones, licet exhibitis michi non premerito per vos beneficiis inequales. Ac preeminenti vestre bonitati, michi quondam favores uberrimos in Romana Curia distillanti, me vestrum, si placet, cum omni fiducia recommendo. De hoc, quidem, quod nondum vobis scripserim ut debebam, apud eandem Dominacionem vestram, si placet, tenear excusatus; quia sine dubio tam distat mea Dyocesis a corde Terre nostre, ubi tractantur negocia et rumores veniunt affluenter, quod ad Partes nostras casualis et rara est nimis accessio nunciorum.[2] De causa mea, que mecum, ut novit caritas vestra, a mea crevit adolescencia, nec adhuc maturum accipit complementum, vestre perficiendam justicie recommendo. Quicquid, etc.—Ad sciendum predilecte Dominacionis vestre statum jugiter in meditacione mea exardescit ignis. Unde et ipsum michi queso, una cum statu amantissimi et fidissimi Domini mei et Patris precipui, avunculi vestri, quem singulariter diligere teneor, teste Deo, et diligo, si placet Literarum velitis officio denudare, ut saltem per scripturam consolacionem habeam de hiis quos summe diligo et oculis non spero carneis intueri. Hoc, enim, facientes obsequium Deo et michi, vestrorum minimo, prestabitis in opere caritatis. Set certe scio quod et istud et majora pro meo rogamine faceretis, nisi forsan honoris adepti sublimitas impediret. Quis, enim, in Cardinalatus agalmate tam magnifice collocatus oculos in terram declinaret ad pauperes tam remotos, quamvis ante notos. Unde meditatus nocte cum corde meo, subito me vidi precipitem in perplexo. Nec mirum. Elevacionem, enim, vestram eatenus semper affectavi et affecto, ut locus vobis esset cenith Capitum Ecclesie Militantis. Set statim occurrit Scriptura animum disconfortans,—si exaltatus, inquid, a terra fuero, omnia traham ad Meipsum, quasi nichil tunc posset nobiscum in infimo remanere. Set alia alibi confortat,—Ascendens, ait, in Altum dedit dona hominibus. Et hic modus elevandi, quia liberalitatem innuit, est pocius acceptandus. Fluctuanti, igitur, michi et cogitanti, ut fingo, quod horum magis, ascendere videlicet an exaltari, vobis competere posset, illuxat veritas ex Scriptura ; scribitur, enim,—Quis est Qui ascendit nisi Qui descendit. Vos, igitur, qui semper mediocribus condescendere voluistis credendum est per Dei graciam adhuc superius ascensuros. Ceterum, dilectissime Pater et Domine, quia non audeo ista vice Dominum meum Penestrinum[2] exceptis quibusdam dudum inperfectis negociis onerare, ad vestrum confugio singulare presidium, omni affeccione cordis Dominacioni vestre supplicans quatinus amore mei velitis Domino nostro Summo Pontifici porrigere pro me unam supplicacionem, super qua eidem Domino nostro nunc inter cetera scribo, quam mitto Presentibus interclusam ; super quo negocio et aliis statum meum tangentibus Magistro Willelmo de Nassyngtone, dilecto familiari meo, fidem placeat indubiam adhibere. 19.—Litera missa Domino Pape [Johanni XXII],—

Quicquid potest infimus servus Domino Summo et humilis filius Patri dulcissimo atque pio. Amantissime Beatitudini vestre sepius scribere corditer gestiens, variis et dubiis ymaginacionibus reprimor, meam verecundus perpendens insufficienciam loquendi vel quicquam agendi erga tam beneficum, laudandum, honorandum, ac tremendum Patrem, Dominum, et Factorem. Set, dum viscerosam mansuetudinem vestram in omnes filios, specialius tamen in uterinos liberos vestros, usquequam diffusam considero, manum ad scribendum et os ad loquendum revoco confidenter. In primis, quidem, gracias supplices quales valeo, non ut volo et debeo, quia nequeo, pro excessivis beneficiis, ex medullis cordis refero; Eum Qui solus potest ut pro me retribuat supplicans incessanter; vestram, si placet, Ecclesiam Exoniensem, cum ejusdem indigno Ministro, devotissime recommendans; affluentem caritatem Sanctitatis vestre, cum innata filiali devocione, exorans quatinus aures pietatis

Ego, vero, qui supra vigilias Gregis elongatus maneo in extrema regionis solitudine, eventus obaudiens varios, sororium[1] meum cum sorore, si michi crederent, longius a Regiis turbinibus mecum consulerent avolare: felices judicans quos faciunt aliena pericula cautos. Omnipotens temporum Moderator, post longos successus et prosperos, cum commissis Gregibus, vos ad gaudia producat fidelibus Pastoribus repromissa! Data. [1328-9].

22.—Missa Domino Pape [Johanni XXII], per Decanum,[2] post mortem Episcopi Walteri [de Stapeldone], Semper, cum augmento infime subjeccionis et intime dileccionis, fundamentum tam humile quam devotum. Quamvis, Beatissime Pater et Domine tremende, pro seipsa non sufficiat modicitas mea vestre multiplici beneficiencie quicquam condigne retribuere, ex caritate, tamen, que omnem repellet indigenciam cunctamque removet pusillanimitatem, tam pro me quam meis in Christo conjunctis, ad vestram non vereor, quociens oportunum fuerit, recurrere solidam ac solitam pietatem. Unde, nunc, Sanctissime Pater, si placet, fervencius ad januam gracie vestre pulso, cum major occurrit oportunitas nunciantis. Ecce, enim, ad Sanctitatis vestre pedes, si accedere liceat, se pronus offert dilectus primogenitus meus, Decanus scilicet Ecclesie vestre Exoniensis michi commisse; vir, utique, morum ac sciencie pariter et etatis suavi refertus maturitate, pro dicte Ecclesie prioris Sponsi, ab impiis inhumaniter perempti, sanguine injuste super terram effuso, juste, Divine, ac vestre consolacionem vindicte flebiliter implorando. Et, licet alias, si vestra recolit Sanctitas, in recessu a vestra presencia reverenda, michi commissum fuerit super ejusdem sceleris horribili serie plenius inquirendi ac Sedi Apostolice referendi, quibus postea nescio fatis obsistentibus, ad manus meas ipsa Commissio non pervenit, quin pocius, ut creditur, in Vicecancellaria integra remanet et intacta; quam, si placet, quia ecce nunc tempus acceptabile in persona mea, vel pocius altera, dignemini reparare, ne tam execrandi facinoris immanitas vestris sacris temporibus libera pertranseat et inulta. Cetera hujusmodi Occidue Partis nova, presencia et sperata, licet Sanctitatem vestram non lateant, Presencium portitor prout sunt novit veraciter replicare.—Scripta, etc. [1328-9].

23.—Quicquid, etc.—Quum unde res procedit et oritur inde naturaliter alitur, illucque revertitur, me autem, vestrorum minimum filiorum, non aliunde constat quam ex Dei simul et vestre Paternitatis fecunda procreatum gracia, monet racio

A.D. 1329-30. 24.—Litera missa Domino Petro [de Campis], Dei gracia Sancti Martini in Montibus Presbitero Cardinali,—

Reverendissime Pater et Domine carissime.—Causam quam prosequor, sub justissime Paternitatis vestre felici examine, contra Dominum Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem, Inhibicionis principium sortitam esse innotuerunt Litere de Curia recenter michi misse. In quo, eciam si meram sapiat justiciam, reputo, tamen, vestre Paternitatis dulcedinem michi vestro summam graciam demonstrasse; propter quod queso toto corde ut Eternus Judex, justus, fortis, et paciens, pro imitacionis sue hujusmodi premio graciam vobis augeat in presenti et gloriam tribuat in futuro. Et, licet, Reverende Pater, ad extenuandum caritatis maxime zelum et sedule diligencie studium, quem habetis ad investigandum ipsius Cause meritum quatenus innocencie mee cedere posset ad presidium, pars adversa, prout fol. 40. audivi, non cesset michi calumpniam mendaciter impingere et diffugium; spero, tamen, quod manifesta documenta, eciam si opposuissem, prout juste potueram Deo Teste, objectis in Appellacione mea, multo plura et majora in partibus istis omnibus nota et antea inaudita me a calumpnie vicio excusabunt. Ideoque Paternitatem vestram reverendam, si phas sit, viscerosis deprecor affectibus iteratis, quod Clemencia vestra, donec fuerit de veritate gravaminum ordine judiciario informata, omnem sinistrum relacionis vel credulitatis in contrarium habite forte conceptum de sinceritate mentis evellat, ei qui in probacione finaliter potencior fuerit fidem debitam habitura. Quamvis, enim, a juventute lites nimirum aborruerim, aliorum et propriarum injuriarum vehemencia pertesus, istam Causam assumere, ne deterius contingeret, sum coactus. Scripta xx die Januarii. [1329-30].

A.D. 1333-4 25.—Litera missa quibusdam Cardinalibus,—

Reverentissime Pater et dilectissime Domine.—Placuit vestre Dominacioni michi, servo vestro, scribere quod, pro parte cujusdam—utinam, ut dicitis, Religiosi—Viri, Fratris Boni, Abbatis de Tavystoke, Diocesis Exoniensis, vobis fuit expositum et suggestum quod, licet Dominus noster, Summus Pontifex, ipsum ibidem prefecisset, ego tamen ad suggestionem quorundam Monachorum ejusdem Monasterii, emulorum suorum, non vocatum, non monitum, nec convictum, sentencialiter jam privavi; unde, qui precipere debetis, sicut potestis, supplicare dignati estis quatinus quicquid minus rite per me extitit attemptatum ad statum debitum reformaretur. Quare Reverende Paternitati vestre duxi, si placeat, intimandum quod, teste Deo, si quid in hac parte contra suum inordinatum agere et velle per me sit processum, oculis Summi Justi Judicis placitum fore credo pariter et acceptum; nec sacros me Canones re vel ordine estimo aliqualiter offendisse, sicut veritate previa processus habitus poterit declarare. Et utinam nosset Dominacio vestra reverenda quociens, et cum quanta benevolencia, modestia, ac fraterna caritate, eum obsecrando, monendo, et corripiendo ac consulendo supportaverim, et, quamdiu spes erat correccionis, tolleraverim, ob reverenciam Sedis Apostolice atque vestram. Set, heu! nec sibi nec aliis parcere novit, qui vere nec Deum timet nec hominem reveretur. Taceo, cum cordis dolore, de ceteris suis moribus, ob Paternitatis vestre et Ordinis sui reverenciam; quia nec testibus indiget nec accusatore qui seipsum operibus manifestat. Credo, eciam, Paternitatem vestram ejus gestus et linguam maliloquam penitus non latere. Unde reverende Dominacioni vestre humiliter, si placet, supplico quatinus hujusmodi et aliis detractoribus meis interiores saltem aures non facile commodetis; quia, per Dei graciam et Matris Misericordie precem, a talibus vel consimilibus temerariis ausibus abstinebo, licet virtutibus tamen obtinendis vel conservandis, hiis potissime diebus et locis, tam dubius est modus et incerta discrecio ut, si quisquam inter bonorum malorumque confinia subtilissimi discriminis servaverit mensuras, difficile sit et pene impossibile ut bene sibi consciam mentem obtrectancium venenata lingua non mordeat, et pravorum evadat obprobria cui est amica justicia.—Paternitatem vestram, etc.—Scripta primo die Aprilis. [1333 or 1334].

26.—Litera missa quibusdam Cardinalibus,—

Reverendissime Pater et Domine preferende.—Quia a primordio mundi, potissimeque hiis diebus, invalescente humani generis malicia, virtutibus adquirendis ac conservandis, quantumcumque provectis aut perfectis, tam dubius ancepsque modus est

A.D. 1333-4. et incerta discrecio ut, si quis racionis equitatisve censuras tenere contenderit, difficile sit et pene impossibile ut quamvis bene sibi consciam mentem detrahencium venenata non mordeat lingua, nec mendacium evadat improperia cui placet justicia; meque communis sortis istiusmodi extraneum non esse supponam; vestram reverendam Dominacionem affeccione obsecro filiali quatinus conquerencium aut latrancium contra me importunas voces si insonuerint, quousque pars audiatur alia, obaudiatis.[1] Dei, enim, gracia cooperante, et Matre Misericordie mediante, qua intencione id fecerint finaliter patefiet; quia, adveniente veritatis luce, obscuritas malicie evanescet. Hec, ideirco, vestre suggero Caritati, eo quod intellexerim quosdam Ovilis michi commissi, [h]edos pocius quam agnos, quibus ab errorum deviis arcendis sepius manus apposui reductrices, ut liberius insolescant aliosque per abrupta secum abducant, accusacionibus supervacuis contra me in Romana Curia insudare. Set scio fidem Petri, pro qua Dei Unigenitus oravit, subrepcionibus talibus nullatenus obliquari, quin pocius, vestra suffragante justicia, sibi ipsi iniquitas mencietur. Ad que et alia merita cumulanda vestra diucius vigeat Paternitas reverenda! [1333 or 1334].

Nuper quippe in Idibus Octobris [15 Oct.] Concilio intereram Cantuariensis Provincie Londoniis celebrato, ubi inter cetera, ut cum gracia vestra dicam, de onerosa et antea invisa Provisionum Apostolicarum multitudine admiracio non modica est exorta. Ferebatur, enim, quod eannne Prelati majores seu minores indifferenter, sine aliquo delectu status vel persone, nunquam Ecclesiarum aut suis servitoribus beneficeritis vel necessariis poterunt providere. Accrevit, forsan, ex novitate attonitis quod dubium non est multos meliores pluresque dignos doni, in suis vel alienis officiis, remansisse, quam tot alios ambiciosos ad Romanam Curiam convolasse. Nec defuit Confratrum miracioni displicencia, eo quod utiles ac sciolos Pastoralis Officii cooperarios vix ex nunc reperient cum spes premii sit sublata. Hoc, preterea, precipuum et fere solum in bone memorie Benedicto XI[1] apud plerosque extitit commendabile, Ecclesias seu Prelatos quoslibet non gravasse. Videat, igitur, et judicet de hiis Sancta Discrecio vestra, casus consimiles experta. Et, si forte percipiat se insolitis et arduis in primordiis intentam subrepcione aut importunitate clamancium aut petencium preventam, dignetur de Conservis in Christo et Confratribus, quorum primogenitus estis effectus, viceroeius (sic) cogitare. Michi, eciam, vestrorum minimo parcatis, si, teste veritate, ex corde puro, Domino meo singulariter loquor, quem caritas urget sola. Scripsi tarde Beatitudini vestre per quemdam familiarem Domini mei Penestrini, dictum Bertrandum Baffeti, quem Londoniis repperi, quia se ad Dominum suum, statimque inde ad Sanctitatem vestram, aiebat celeriter accessurum. Per quem, eciam, quosdam libellos, parvi voluminis et valoris, una cum peticionibus meis, nulli, ut reor, onerosis, vestre Beatitudini destinavi. [1] In his reference to this Letter (see page 117, note), Oliver tell us that it was "written . . . early in 1335." He gives no reason for the statement; and I am inclined to think that it was written at a later date. The question may be fitly postponed till I reach the Register of Institutions, with which I do not, at present, find it easy to reconcile the Bishop's complaints.

3.—A Monition addressed to the Warden,—

fol. 95. Johannes, etc., dilecto filio, Custodi, etc. (ut supra), salutem, etc.—Cum, sicut displicenter audivimus, pueri Choriste dicte Ecclesie in domo quam ad hoc fieri fecimus, spreta Ordinacione nostra inde facta, insimul non quiescant, quodque cum quibusdam majoribus Chori sequendo et obsequendo eisdem discurrant, eciam tempore Divini Officii, vobis mandamus quatinus eosdem moneatis attente quatinus omnes et singuli in dicta domo pro eis ordinata, infra instans Festum Sancti Thome, Apostoli [21 Dec.], dormiant nocte qualibet et quiescant, et Chorum frequentent; et, extunc, de porcione cujuslibet id facere contempnentis per septimanam duos denarios subtrahatis. Magister, eciam, Scolarum, vel locum ejus tenens, jaceat in Camera puerorum. Et, quia pena verberacionis puerorum pro eorum defectibus in Choro, vel se absentando vel alias delinquendo, Statuta in Ordinacione nostra primaria non eos cohibet a vetitis sufficienter, volumus et ordinamus quod quicumque se absentaverint ab officio, nisi causa Scolarum, pro die integro tres quadrantes, pro solempni Hora unum quadrantem, et pro alio enormi defectu denarium perdant, et, eciam, verberentur. Moneatis, preterea, Clericos Secundarios Ecclesie prelibate inter quos dissensionis et contrarietatis materia dicitur pululare, quatinus, infra idem Festum, zabulum et materias alias luteas, officientes ingressui in domum quam pro eis ordinavimus, penitus amoveant, seu faciant amoveri; alioquin, de porcione cujuslibet, quousque id fecerint, per ebdomadam tres denarios subtrahatis. Ad hec, quia intelleximus quod choriste predicti, in Festo Innocencium proximo preterito, suis dissolucionibus et insolenciis infra Parochiam dicte Ecclesie non contenti, ad loca varia extra eandem Parochiam, pluribus diebus idem Festum sequentibus, vagabantur, dictam Ecclesiam, quantum ad eos, inofficiatam interim dimittentes, vobis mandamus quatinus eos districcius interdicatis ne de cetero, sub pena amocionis eorum, extra dictam Parochiam quomodolibet se conferant dicto Festo; quinimmo nocte idem Festum sequenti ad Divina Officia in Choro devote et humiliter se disponant. Ut, autem, premissa

A.D. 1339. et alia statum Vicariorum, Clericorum, et puerorum dicte Ecclesie contingencia efficacius compleantur, volumus et jubemus quod vos et Concanonici vestri, una cum Vicariis, omni anno, unum Canonicum eligatis qui supervideat negocia Vicariorum, et eis quodammodo presit exterius; et unum de Vicariis, qui de Clericis Secundariis et eorum factis et gestibus; necnon, unum de Secundariis, qui de negociis et gestibus choristarum extra Ecclesiam sedulam curam gerant; atque de eorum utensilibus et aliis bonis communibus, per eos per indenturam recipiendis, que conservare suo periculo teneantur, eorum quilibet calculet omni anno. Et, cum aliqua correccione vel reformacione digna repererint, vobis mox—vel nobis, si facti gravitas id exposcat—denuncient et exponant. Quid, igitur, feceritis in premissis et fecerint dicte persone, nobis infra instans Natale Domini, per vestras Literas, habentes harum seriem, intimetis.—Data apud Chuddeleghe, nono die Decembris [1339].[1]

It must be regarded as only provisional; and it was superseded 29 Sept., 1339, by an elaborate Series of Statutes for the government of the College,—"Volentes . . . ea que, propter prolixitatem, in Prima Ordinacione omissa sunt supplere, vobis infrascripta mittimus Statuta, a vobis et successoribus vestris, sub obediencie et fidelitatis nobis et Successoribus nostris sacramento prestito aut prestando, imperpetuum firmiter observanda." Vicariam, vero, et Vicarie nomen in ipsa Ecclesia, dum Parochialis existeret, totaliter subducimus, et in Ministeriatum et in nomen Officii Ministeriatus, eciam de expresso consensu dicti Domini Oliveri, immutamus; cui, quidem, Domino Olivero, volenti et acceptanti, Officium Ministeriatus, cum Canonicatu et Prebenda eidem Officio annexis ac omnibus eorum juribus et pertinenciis, conferimus, et sibi providemus auctoritate ordinaria de eisdem. Ille, insuper, cui Officium Cantorie conferetur, tertius Canonicus ac Cantor existat et vocetur. Et ille cui Officium Sacristie conferetur quartus Canonicus ac Sacrista in dicta Ecclesia sit et nuncupetur. Volumus, autem, quod illi quibus supradicta Officia conferentur, tempore Collacionis eorundem sint presbiteri, vel saltem diaconi in proximis Ordinibus extunc in presbiteros ordinandi. Statuimus, insuper, quod sint in eadem Ecclesia Collegiata continue octo Presbiteri qui vocentur Vicarii Chori, unusque alius Presbiter Parochialis, et alius Matutinalis, et unus qui Capellanus Beate Marie nuncupetur, ac octo Clerici qui Secundarii dicantur, duoque alii Ecclesie clerici vocati cum duobus clericis aquebajulis; octo, eciam, pueri choriste, et unus Magister Scolarum ibidem Grammaticalium et ad informandum dictos pueros, qui minime sint conjugati. De officio Ministri et juris-dicione Archidiaconi. Ceterum, ne animarum cura, quod absit, in aliquo negligatur, statuimus et ordinamus quod Minister dicte Ecclesie qui pro tempore fuerit habeat curam animarum tam personarum predictarum et servitorum predicte Collegiate Ecclesie, quam eciam Parochie ejusdem; racione cujus cure idem Minister et Presbiter Parochialis ac duo clerici aquebajuli supradicti, et nulle alie persone ipsius Collegii, prefato Archidiacono jurare obedienciam teneantur. Idem, autem, Minister quociens in excercicio cure fuerit occupatus, super quo ipsius conscienciam in Die Judicii oneramus, pro presente in Officio habeatur. Et ne per ea que ad hujusmodi curam pertinent servicium Chori impediatur, volumus quod Altare aliquod in Navi Ecclesie ad hoc magis aptum et congruum deputetur, in quo idem Minister et Presbiter Parochialis Missas populo debitas celebrent—submissa, tamen, voce, Ecclesiasticaque ministrent Sacramenta, et cetera omnia excerceant que prefatam curam contingere dinoscuntur.

De habitu Canonicorum. Volumus, preterea, et ordinamus quod Canonici et omnes alii dicte Collegiate Ecclesie servitores, cum fuerint circa Divina occupati, utantur consimili habitu quo Canonici et ceteri, secundum status sui exigenciam, in Exoniensi Ecclesia utuntur; excepto quod Canonici ipsius Collegiate Ecclesie pellibus nigris et non griseis in almiciis eorum exterius utantur. Volumus, eciam, et statuimus quod si aliqui de Vicariis vel ceteris inferioribus de habitu honesto sibi ipsis quociens oportunum fuerit providere neglexerint, moneantur per Custodem predictum quod infra quindecim dies de hujusmodi habitu sibi provideant competenti; alioquin idem Custos extunc eis celeriter provideat de habitu ex porcione stipendiorum taliter sibi ipsis providere negligencium, quam pro tunc eis in tanto decernimus subtrahendam.

De Vicariorum.

De predicacionibus. Ordinamus, eciam, quod per aliquem de Collegio aut alium sermones solempnes fiant ad populum ad minus Dominicis—prima, videlicet, et tercia, in Adventu, atque in prima et tercia et quinta in Quadragesima; necnon in Assumpcione Beate Virginis ac Festo Sancti Edwardi Confessoris.

A.D. 1342. [Missæ pro animabus imperpetuum tenendæ.]* Statuimus, insuper, et ordinamus quod tam Canonici quam alie persone eis inferiores, in Missis et aliis eorum suffragiis, pro nostro et venerabilis in Christo Patris, Domini Petri, Dei gracia Episcopi Penestrini, Sacrosancte Romane Ecclesie Cardinalis, quoad vixerimus, statu, et animabus nostris, cum ex hac luce migraverimus; necnon pro animabus felicis recordacionis Domini Johannis Pape XXII^di, Promotoris nostri, Dominique Willelmi de Grandissono, patris nostri, et Sibille, matris nostre, ac patrui nostri Domini Othonis de Grandissono, fratrumque et sororum nostrorum omniumque fidelium defunctorum, orare imperpetuum teneantur. Obitus singulorum superius expressorum solempniter celebrentur omni anno temporibus oportunis. Et die Obitus nostri teneatur Collegium ipsum distribuere inter centum pauperes centum denarios; videlicet, singulis eorum singulos denarios sterlingorum; vel tot pauperes reficere in equivalentibus cibariis. Necnon in dictorum Domini Pape et Episcopi Penestrini, patris et matris, singulis Obitibus, triginta pauperibus, videlicet, ipsorum singulis singulos denarios, distribuat, aut in equivalentibus cibariis tot pauperes reficiat, annis singulis, sine fraude.

Ad hec, ut Canonici et ceteri eis inferiores Ecclesie ipsius servitores valeant in eadem, eo devocius quo quiecius, Altissimo famulari; et ut tollatur eis materia evagandi vel se a Divinis Officiis absentandi, statuimus et eciam ordinamus, ex consensu speciali Capituli nostri Exoniensis et Archidiaconi Exonie, auctoritate Diocesana, quod Archidiaconus Exonie qui pro tempore fuerit non possit nec debeat, per se vel Officiales aut Commissarios suos, vel alios quoscumque, auctoritate sua Archidiaconali dictos Canonicos vel alios servitores Ecclesie vel eorum aliquem, exceptis Ministro et Capellano Parochiali ac duobus clericis aquebajulis, extra eandem Ecclesiam causa vel occasione aliqua evocare; nec eciam possit jurisdiccionem suam aliqualem in quascumque personas sibi subjectas alias a Canonicis et servitoribus predictis in eadem Ecclesia, per se vel Officiales suos seu aliquos alios, quomodolibet excercere. Valeat, tamen, eosdem Canonicos et servitores Ecclesie pro suis culpis et excessibus extrinsecis in Navi ejusdem Ecclesie tantum, et non alibi, quociens oportunum fuerit, per se vel alios Canonice corrigere et punire, et cetera que ad suam jurisdiccionem pertinent quantum ad eosdem Canonicos et servitores tantummodo excercere. In Choro, autem, ejusdem Collegiate Ecclesie et a Navi superius infra cancellos, eciam, quantum ad personas eorundem Canonicorum vel servitorum, eidem Archidiacono suisque Officialibus et ministris statuendo inhibemus et interdicimus jurisdiccionis excercicium cujuscumque. De Senescallis. Statuimus, insuper, et ordinamus quod predicti Canonici residentes, annis singulis, in Vigilia Sancti Michaelis Archangeli, duos de se eligant senescallos qui fructus et commoda quecumque ad dictum Collegium pertinencia et proveniencia, necnon debita Collegii, fideliter colligant, aut fructus predictos, si expediat, de dictorum residencium consilio vendant, pecuniamque collectam per eos in thesauraria communi secure reponant, et dictis terminis modis predictis distribuant, sumptibusque communibus cetera onera Collegii subeant, ac in fine cujuslibet termini, coram Concanonicis suis residentibus, de gestis, receptis, et expensis per eos in hac parte racionem et compotum reddant et fideliter calculent sine fraude. Alia, vero, medietas in thesauro Collegii reponatur, utilitatibus seu necessitatibus ejusdem Collegii applicanda. Si, autem, dierum crescente malicia vel ex aliquo infortunio, nichil residuum fuerit ultra dicta onera persoluta, set defectus forsitan fuerit ad eadem supportanda, volumus quod quantum defuerit ad supportacionem onerum Collegii subeundam de distribucionibus Canonicorum residencium, et in duplo plus de distribucionibus Canonicorum simplicium et non habencium ibidem Officia quam habencium Officia, et nichil de Vicariorum vel aliorum servitorum ejusdem Ecclesie Vicariis inferiorum stipendiis, nisi ex necessitate inevitabili, defalcetur.

A Memorandum follows in the Copy belonging to the Dean and Chapter, that one part of the foregoing was kept in the Treasury of Exeter, another with the Custos and Canons of the Collegiate Church of Ottery, a third

[The following Document bears the same date as the "Ordinacio Primaria" recited above, with which it should be compared, as it contains some interesting variations. Unfortunately it is only a fragment, the earlier portion having been lost. In Vol. II, between folios 14 and 15, some leaves have been cut out, on which a complete Copy of this Ordinance had been written, as appears by the following memorandum on the margin of a small portion of the first folio, which was retained for the purpose,—"In istis foliis hic excisis scripta fuerat Ordinacio Ecclesie Collegiate Sancte Marie de Otery, que postea inmutata fuerat juxta correcciones et addiciones factas in Curia Romana."]

A.D. 1343. Ecclesiarum honoris et comodi cedere valeant incrementum.—Sane Peticio Venerabilis Fratris nostri, Johannis, Episcopi Exoniensis, nuper nobis exhibita, continebat quod dilecti filii, Prior et Conventus Monasterii Beatorum Apostolorum, Petri et Pauli, Plymptonie, per Priorem soliti gubernari, Ordinis Sancti Augustini, Exoniensis Diocesis, olim Patroni Parochialis Ecclesie de Ilstyngtone, dicte Diocesis, considerantes quod jus Patronatus ejusdem Ecclesie a multis retroactis temporibus eis et dicto Monasterio fuerat, et tunc erat, inutile et quodammodo onerosum, ac plura alia beneficia que dictus Episcopus eis fecerat et faciebat, et sperantes quod majora faceret in futurum; premisso et habito tractatu inter eos diligenti, communi, et frequenti, et diversis deliberacionibus successive secutis, de ipsorum communi concordi consensu et assensu unanimi, jus Patronatus predictum donarunt et conces serunt Episcopo prelibato, ad illum finem potissime quod eandem Ecclesiam, de consensu dilectorum filiorum, Capituli Ecclesie Exoniensis, in forma juris uniret, incorporaret, et annectaret dilectis filiis Custodi et Canonicis Ecclesie Collegiate Sancte Marie de Otery, dicte Diocesis, per eundem Episcopum fundate; reservata, tamen, et salva eis et dicto Monasterio Pensione annua centum solidorum sterlingorum, ab ipsa Parochiali Ecclesia eis debita ab antiquo; quodque postmodum idem Episcopus prefatam Ecclesiam de Ilstyngtone, de consensu dilecti filii Decani ejusdem Ecclesie Exoniensis et Capituli predictorum, et omnium aliorum quorum intererat, dicte Ecclesie Sancte Marie de Otery, certis modo et forma, auctoritate ordinaria, appropriavit imperpetuum; salva pensione predicta, et porcione de ipsius Ecclesie Parochialis fructibus, redditibus, et proventibus, Perpetuo Vicario tunc instituendo in ea sufficienti et congrua, per ipsum Episcopum taxata et eciam assignata, prout in Patentibus Literis super Donacione et Concessione Prioris et Conventus, necnon Appropriacione et Unione predictis confectis, ejusdem Episcopi sigillis munitis, quarum tenores de verbo ad verbum Presentibus inseri fecimus, plenius et seriosius continetur. Nos, itaque, volentes votis ejusdem Episcopi annuere favorabiliter in hac parte, hujusmodi supplicacionibus inclinati, Donacionem, Concessionem de jure Patronatus predicto ipsi Episcopo, necnon Appropriacionem et Unionem de prefata Parochiali Ecclesia eidem Ecclesie Sancte Marie de Otery, per eum, ut premittitur, factas, ratas et gratas habentes, illas Auctoritate Apostolica, ex certa sciencia, confirmamus et presentis Scripti patrocinio communimus; omnem defectum, si quis forsitan in

Universis Benedicto Christi Sanguine, de Utero Virginali assumpto, redemptis, Johannes, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, salutem, et tanto Filio talique Matri pro modulo rependere vices gratas. Quamvis Omnium Sanctorum Christi merita piis sint semper studiis veneranda, incomparabilius, tamen, Gloriosissime Virginis, Dei Genitricis, Marie, laus est preferenda et memoria frequencius recolenda. Ceteri, enim, Sanctorum specialibus quibusdam in Locis rariusque auxiliorum suffragia exorantibus conferunt. Hec, vero, Sanctorum Sanctissima, et singulariter post Deum Sancta, generaliter et ubique, locis omnibus et temporibus, se invocantibus in veritate presto est potenter pia et pie potens singulis succurrendo. Hinc nos, licet indignus ipsius Matris Misericordie servus, dudum in honorem Domini nostri Jhesu Christi et ejusdem Gloriosissime Virginis Marie, Matris Sue, Parochialem Ecclesiam Sancte Marie de Otery, nostre Diocesis, in Collegiatam, auctoritate ordinaria, de consensu dilectorum filiorum, Decani et Capituli Exoniensium, sub certa forma Canonice ereximus, et in eadem quatuor perpetua Officia, que sub Custodie, Ministeriatus, Cantorie, et Sacristie vocabulis nuncupanda decrevimus; necnon, octo Canonicatus et totidem Prebendas octo Canonicorum Capitulum ipsius Collegiate Ecclesie faciencium, et preter eos decem Presbiteros, quatuordecim Clericos, et octo pueros, sub numero quadragenario ordinavimus, Deo ibidem et Matri Sue perpetualiter servituros. Pro dote, vero, ipsius Capituli, seu Collegii, certos redditus et proventus, obvenciones, et jura, tam in Spiritualibus quam in Temporalibus existencia, eidem Collegio assignavimus; inter cetera statuentes quod quatuor Primi Canonici, qui dicta quatuor Officia in eadem Collegiata Ecclesia imperpetuum obtinerent, in ipsa Ecclesia personaliter et continue residerent, prout hec et alia in nostris et dictorum Decani et Capituli Literis super Fundacione et Ordinacione prefati Collegii factis plenius continentur. Verum, sicut dilectorum filiorum, Custodis et Capituli prefate Collegiate Ecclesie nobis oblata Peticio continebat, exigente temporum varietate et hominum malicia excrescente, onera tam ordinaria quam extraordinaria eidem Collegiate Ecclesie et ipsius Capitulo incumbencia indies augmentantur, ita ut commode nequeant, nec absque penuaria, vivere ut deberent. Quare pro parte eorundem Custodis et Collegii nobis extitit sepius, cum instancia, supplicatum quatinus, ut onera ipsa, juxta primam Fundacionem nostram, facilius et securius supportare valeant, juraque sua defendere, et presertim laicorum qui eos ad Curias trahere incipiunt Seculares maliciis obviare, dictique quatuor Primi Canonici, videlicet Custos, Minister, Cantor, et Sacrista, ad continuam

Nos, igitur, Peticioni hujusmodi racione previa annuentes, de premissis nobis suggestis ante omnia nos modo debito ac rite curavimus informare. Unde cupientes prefatis Custodi et Collegio in supportacionem dictorum onerum paterna solicitudine providere, dilectos filios, Decanum et Capitulum Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, ad tractandum communiter una nobiscum super Appropriacione Ecclesie de Ilstyngtone, nostre Diocesis,—cujus jus Patronatus dudum Canonice acquisivimus et in presenti Canonice habemus,—dictis Collegiate Ecclesie et Custodi ac Capitulo ejusdem, propter premissa et alias Canonice facienda, fecimus ad certos competentes dies et locum peremptorie evocari; habitoque super hiis cum eisdem tractatu frequenti, diligenti, et solempni, secutaque deliberacione matura et cause

[1] These words within brackets are not in our Register. They have been kindly supplied to me by Mr. Baigent from a Copy of the Appropriation of Ilsington preserved in the First Volume of the Cartulary of St. Swithun's Priory, Winchester; which contains, also, Copies of the Statutes of St. Mary Ottery—four Documents, numbered 203-206 (folios 98-106 and 107-114). All are printed either in Dr. Oliver's Monasticon of the Diocese, or in the present Volume.—It should be added that "by an undated Charter, or Letter, addressed by John the Chanter, Bishop of Exeter (1186-1191), to Martin, Prior of Plympton (1176-1188) and his Canons there, the Bishop, in order to provide for their quiet enjoyment of their possessions, confirmed to them the Church of Elstington, as Ilsington was therein called, and certain other Churches in Devon; and the Charter must have been signed some time between the years 1186 and 1188 inclusive. (Mr. Winslow Jones, in Notes and Gleanings, iii, 107). The Priory received a pension of 100*s*. yearly from the revenues, and this it will be seen, was reserved when the Advowson was granted by Prior John to Bishop Grandisson.

Nos, itaque, tuis supplicacionibus inclinati, concedendi hac vice Auctoritate Apostolica predictum Officium tribus personis idoneis, clericis videlicet non conjugatis nec in Sacris Ordinibus constitutis, quas ad illud, post diligentem examinacionem, idoneas esse repereris, prius a qualibet earundem personarum juramento juxta formam Presentibus annotatam recepto, Fraternitati tue, tenore Presencium, plenam et liberam concedimus facultatem.—Forma, autem, juramenti quod quelibet earundem personarum prestabit, talis est,—Ego, clericus non conjugatus, nec in Sacris Ordinibus constitutus, ab hac hora in antea fidelis ero Beato Petro et Sancte Romane Ecclesie, et Domino meo, Domino Johanni Pape XXII^do^, et Successoribus suis Canonice intrantibus. Consilium quod michi per se vel Literas aut Nuncium manifestabunt, ad eorum dampnum scienter nemini pandam. Papatum Romanum ac Regalia Beati Petri, et Jura ipsius Ecclesie, specialiter si qua eadem Ecclesia in Civitate vel Terra de qua oriundus sum habeat, adjutor eis ero ad defendendum et retinendum, seu recuperandum, contra omnes homines. Tabellionatus Officium fideliter excercebo. Contractus in quibus exigitur consensus Parcium fideliter faciam ; nil addendo vel minuendo, sine voluntate Parcium, quod substanciam Contractus immutet. Instrumentum non conficiam de aliquo Contractu in quo sciam intervenire vel intercedere vim vel fraudem. Contractus in prothocollum redigam. Et, postquam in prothocollum redegero, maliciose non differam, contra voluntatem illorum vel illius quorum interest Contractus, super eo publicum conficere Instrumentum ; salvo meo justo et consueto salario. fol. 108. Clemens [VI] Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, ad perpetuam memoriam rei. —Unigenitus Dei Filius de Sinu Patris in Uterum dignatus est descendere Matris, in qua et ex qua nostre mortalitatis substanciam Divinitati Sue insuppositi unitate ineffabili unione conjunxit, id quod fuit permanens, et id quod non erat assumens, ut haberet unde hominem lapsum redimeret et pro eo satisfaceret Deo Patri. Ubi, enim, venit plenitudo temporis misit Deus Filium Suum, factum ex Muliere, factum sub Lege, ut eos qui sub Lege erant redimeret, et adopcionem reciperent filiorum. Ipse namque factus est nobis a Deo Sapiencia et Justicia, Sanctificacio et Redempcio. Non per sanguinem hircorum aut vitulorum, set per proprium Sanguinem introivit in Sancta, eterna redempcione inventa. Non, enim, corruptibilibus auro et argento, set Sui Ipsius, Agni incontaminati et immaculati, precioso sanguine nos redemit. Quem in Ara Crucis pro nobis innocens immolatus non guttam sanguinis modicam, que tamen propter unionem ad Verbum pro redempcione tocius humani generis suffecisset, set copiose, velut quoddam profluvium, noscitur effundisse, ita ut a planta pedis usque ad verticem nulla sanitas inveniretur in Ipso. Quantum, ergo, exinde ut nec supervacua, inanis, aut superflua tante effusionis miseracio redderetur, thesaurum Militanti Ecclesie acquisivit, volens Suis thesaurizare filiis, pius Pater, ut sic sit infinitus thesaurus hominibus, quo qui usi sunt Dei amicicie participes sunt effecti. Quem, quidem, thesaurum non in sudario repositum, non in agro reconditum, set per Beatum Petrum, Celi Clavigerum, ejusque Successores, Suos in Terris Vicarios, commisit, Fidelibus salubriter dispensandum, et propriis ac racionabilibus causis nunc pro totali, nunc pro parciali remissione pene temporalis pro peccatis debite, tam generaliter quam specialiter, prout cum Deo expedire cognoscerent, vere penitentibus et confessis misericorditer applicandum. Ad cujus, quidem, thesauri cumulum Beate Dei Genetricis et omnium Electorum a primo justo usque ad ultimum merita ad municulum prestare noscuntur. De cujus consumpcione seu diminucione non est aliquatenus formidandum, tam propter infinita Christi, ut predictum est, merita, quam pro eo quod quanto plures ex ejus applicacione trahuntur ad justiciam tanto magis accrescat ipsorum cumulus meritorum. Quod felicis recordacionis Bonifacius Papa Octavus, Predecessor noster, pie, sicut indubie credimus, considerans, et debita meditacione revolvens quanta apud homines gloriosi Principes Terre, Petrus et Paulus,—per quos Ewangelium Christi Rome resplenduit et per quos Ecclesia Religionis sumpsit exordium, qui facti Christiani Populi per Euuangelium genitores Gregisque Dominici Pastores, Fidei lucerne, Ecclesiarum columpne, pre ceteris Apostolis pecculiari quadam prerogativa in Ipso Salvatore Fidei virtute precellunt; quorum uni, scilicet Apostolorum Principi, sicut bono dispensatori, Claves Regni Celorum misit; alteri, tanquam ydoneo Doctori, Magisterium Ecclesiastice Erudicionis injunxit,—in speciali veneracione haberi debeant, et debita honorificencia venerari, pro ipsorum memoria recolenda crebrius et reverencia a cunctis Fidelibus eis devocius exhibenda, ipsorumque patrocinio favorabilius assequendo inconsumptibilem thesaurum hujusmodi, pro excitanda et remuneranda devocione Fidelium, voluit aperire. Omnes nichilominus et singulas Indulgencias per nos et Predecessores nostros, Romanos Pontifices, tam prenominatis quam aliis Basilicis et Ecclesiis de dicta Urbe concessas, ratas et gratas habentes, ipsas Auctoritate Apostolica confirmamus et approbamus ac eciam innovamus, et presentis Scripti patrocinio communimus.—Nulli, ergo, omnino hominum liceat hanc Paginam nostre reduccionis, constitucionis, adjeccionis, confirmacionis, approbacionis, et innovacionis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire. fol. 52. Johannes de Grandissono, Dei gracia Electus per Sedem Apostolicam Ecclesie Exoniensis, Confirmatus, dilectis sibi in Christo Venerabilibus et Discretis Viris, Decano[1] et Capitulo ejusdem Ecclesie Exoniensis, salutem et perpetuam in Domino caritatem.—Divina Providencia, que in Sui disposicione non fallitur, licet quandoque occulto suo judicio indignos provehat ad qualecumque regimen Sponse sue, Ecclesie Sancte, novit tamen, prout et quando vult, de indignis dignos facere et eximia de exiguis operari. Unde, nullis meis exigentibus meritis, immo multis demeritis non obstantibus, me, pro bono pacis et concordie inter Regna Anglie et Francie in Sancte Sedis Apostolice Legacione pro modulo laborantem, et adhuc pro ipsius complemento in Ducatu Aquitannie personaliter existentem, ad Ecclesie predicte regimen dignatus est, sola Sua gracia, omnium cessante adminiculo, promovere. Nec hoc ad inanem, quod absit, jactanciam refero, quippe qui meam insufficienciam non ignoro; set pocius ad Ipsius de Cujus munere processit gloriam et honorem. Ipse, enim, novit Cujus oculis omnia nuda sunt et aperta, quod eo tempore quo hec michi primo fuerunt nunciata, certitudinem mortis Decessoris penitus ignorabam. Nec quamvis alias rumor populi favorque vanus et deceptorius in tali, ut forte nostis, michi arriserit auspicio, et si cor, ut humanitus contingere solet, tetigerit, non intravit. Satis, enim, et si nunquam aliorum precurrissent exempla, duorum inmediate me precedencium exitus ad certam ambicionem sufficerent execrandam; quorum posterior, quod dolenter nimirum refero, prout a fidedignis intellexi, nisi Deus avertat, ipsam Ecclesiam Exoniensem in magnam redegit et inportabilem servitutem. Dicitur namque quod, preter alia penes vos que melius nostis patrata, in x millibus florenorum, occasione communis servicii Camere Domini Pape et Sacri Collegii, ac in duobus fere millibus pro ceteris correspondentibus serviciis, se et Ecclesiam in Curia Quare fraternam vestram in Christo caritatem rogo et commoneo quatinus interim, quousque Deus me vobis presencialiter restituat, ad indempnitatem ipsius Ecclesie concorditer et sedule intendatis. Et, ut nichil quod mea intererit in hac parte desit, Commissionem vel Procuracionem ad omnia nomine meo facienda quibusdam Canonicis Ecclesie ipsius, amicis meis specialibus, in studio dudum notis, de quibus plenius confido, transmitto per Presencium portitorem. Set, quia, aliis diversis et arduis negociis per Apostolicam Sedem injunctis varie distractus, cogitare et plenius previdere omnia et singula istud negocium contingencia ex me non sufficio, vos, qui melius nostis, celeriter, dum in Romana ero Curia, talia et cetera, que ad utilitatem vel honorem Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis cedere possunt, per nuncium, si oporteat, proprium michi plenius significare minime differatis. [1] I have not been able to identify this Clerk, whose name is, here, suppressed twice, and I suspect deliberately. There is no record of the illegitimacy of any "N. de B." in our Register; and the Precentor of Lincoln, who has most kindly bestowed much time and labour upon examining the Registers, etc., of his Diocese, tells me that he can find no trace of the transaction there. Possibly, Nicholas de Bathone was the man; for his name occurs occasionally, in connection with the Acts of Bishop Grandisson, about this time, and I find no other name with the same initials.

Receptis Literis vestris novissime nobis missis et perlectis, memorie commendavimus continenciam earundem; gratam affeccionem vestram et diligenciam non inmerito commendantes. Verum, quia, prout ex eisdem Literis percepimus, Presidentes Curie Cantuariensis, et alii, eo quod Curiam ipsam cerciorare distulimus de vacacione Ecclesie de Wardone,[1] fol. 68b. In hoc, enim, si est ita sicut nobis datum intelligi, videmini dilapidacioni bonorum, de quibus in Curia Romana satisfieri deberet, quantum in vobis est, consentire. De alio magis duximus admirandum, quod personaliter et per ceteras interpositas personas, Abbates, Priores, et Monachos, Religiosos alios et Seculares, et precipue per Magistrum Petrum de Beare, nobis in hac parte multum suspectum, pro copia quarundam Literarum Apostolicarum habenda diligenter nimis institistis. Ad hoc, quod Appellacionem in hac parte, juxta consilium Magistri Petri predicti, interponeretis, in prejudicium et fraudem Curie predicte, prout per plures nunc tarde intelleximus. Spiritum regendi utiliter et solerter.—Per alias nostras Literas rogatorias et monitorias nuper vobis scripsisse meminimus quod Johanni de Brussinis, exhibitorem Presencium, a vestro ejecto obsequio, et ea occasione ad propria redire satagenti, de quadam peccunie summa, per vos, ut asserit, sibi debita, satisfacere, quodque quid super premissis decerneretis curaretis nobis eciam per eundem nunciare; set vos, spretis rogaminibus et monicionibus nostris hujusmodi, sibi satisfacere de petitis nobisve super eis responsum dare temere distulistis, prout ad nos ipsius Johannis recens querela et labor indicat iteratus; de quo vehementi admiracione concutimur, quinimmo in mente turbamur. Quocirca devocionem vestram denuo ex habundanti requirimus et monemus quatinus, considerantes quod idem Johannes vobis est non exterus, set de Partibus vestris oriundus; quodque, et si veritate non possit, vos tamen alias non cessabit conviciis forsitan lacerare, sibi, si est ita, reddere studeatis absque murmure quod debetur, vel saltem alia decenti via concordare cum eodem; significantes nobis celeriter quid super premissis duxeritis faciendum [1329].

Ad Ecclesie, etc.—Scripta apud Criditone, tercio die Septembris [1331].

208.—Litera Domini Archiepiscopi responsalis ad Literam precedentem,—

Salutem et fraternam in Domino caritatem.—Ut filius ille prodigus, qui jam per annos aliquot cum adulteris suam porcionem dicitur posuisse, ad graciam patris rediens, induatur salubriter stola prima, ipsum ut die Jovis proxima post Festum Nativitatis Beate Marie Virginis [12 Sept.], in quodam loco juxta Bathoniam, quo hospitabimur dicto die, coram nobis compareat, fecimus accersiri. Et si videatur vobis expediens quod aliquis de vestris assit tunc, ibidem, cum potestate tractandi de submissione de qua vobis alias scripsimus facienda, placebit utique multum nobis. Hoc, tamen, vestre Discretionis arbitrio duximus relinquendum. Nostre, quippe, intencionis existit ut, factis submissionibus hinc et inde, ad honorem Dei et Ecclesie, contencioni diutine et nocive finem celerem imponamus. In prosperitate votiva valeat et vigeat vestra Fraternitas per tempora diuturna!—Scripta apud Langesuttone, die vij mensis Septembris [1331].

209.—Litera missa Domino Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi,—

Omnem reverenciam possibilem cum obediencia debita et devota.

A.D. 1331. —Ut frater adjutus a fratre, vel pocius filius a patre, tanquam civitas firma remaneat inconcussus, ad arcem Paternitatis vestre inexpugnabilem contra vulpinam maliciam, que vestigia venatoribus nota sequenti nititur obnubilare cauda ab exordio venacionis, mente conceperam fugiendum. Satis, enim, estimabam talis Patris et Patroni inflexibilem justiciam michi assistricem, si non aliunde fucatis sibilis falleretur serpentinis. At nunc, nudatis mendacii prestigiis, cum veritas diutinis ignara latibulis palam se paternis offert obtutibus, non eget, ut reor, alienis quam vestris, ejus fervidi zelatoris defensionibus punitivis. Non, enim, preterita vindicando flagicia, iram, quod absit, pascere, set misericorditer aliis per hoc consulere, satagimus in futurum. Habent, enim, mali, juxta eximii Doctoris Augustini sentenciam, unde tam pie quam utiliter salubriterque plectantur. Habent, enim, unde vivunt, et unde male vivunt. Primum eis salvum remaneat; alterum, si Deus prestet, tanquam putre noxiumque resecandum. Et, si duo magna mala prodigus perpetraverat filius noster, multo tamen irremissibilius in Spiritum Sanctum peccasse, quod est veritatem agnitam impugnare. Nescit, tamen, peccata non remittere Qui est Remissio omnium peccatorum, si libidinem castitas, elacionem vera humilitas, duplicitatem veritas subsequatur. Dignetur, ergo, utriusque filii communis Paternitas utrique quod decet et expedit impendere, ut et tumidus humilietur et Pontificalis apex veneretur. Quod si finalem negocii moderacionem usque mutuum Londoniis colloquium reverenda

Reverende Pater et Domine,—Ecce,—quod dolenter refero, nesciens an de connivencia vestra procedat, quod absit,—dum me ad transfretandum, accepta a vobis Licencia, preparo in Causa illius Militis, in qua primo, quidem, ex variis injuriis Decani Curie vestre appellatum extitit, ac demum, mediantibus Literis vestris, Paternitati vestre hinc inde submissum, nove Citaciones ad me pervenerunt, que non solum novam injuriam michi set manifestum Ecclesie Romane contemptum pariunt, simulque manifestam Partis et Judicis maliciam ostendunt. Unde humiliter rogo quatinus dignetur Paternitas vestra veneranda, ne in dubio recedam, michi innotescere utrum de vestra amicicia paterna confidere debeam, et dictum negocium, cum aliis me in Curia vestra Causis concernentibus, vestre

Nam, Teste Deo, cicius malicie cedendo ad solitudinem convolarem, quam amplius cum subversoribus et scorpionibus habitarem. Dignetur, ergo, Dominacio vestra reverenda, si placet, in hiis et aliis beneplacitum significare; ne me ulterius, si placet, in angaria relinquatis. Omnipotens rerum Moderator det vobis in pace cum Filiis et Fratribus ambulare, ut ad Visionem Pacis Eterne, cum Grege credito, mereamini pervenire!—Scripta Londoniis, xvj die Octobris [1331].

Scio virum in Christo ante annos tres, verbis valentem virum, primi patris nomine vocatum, letum ore cognominatum, tales detestari et consimiles condempnare. Nunc idem, non secundus, ut primus Adam seductus, amplectitur quod dampnavit, sequitur quod rejecit, ut desinat ubi cepit. Furta, ut scribit Gregorius, et perjuria latrones, et avariciam cupidi, detestantur. Set forte dicet quis—Trahitur, non currit: vocatur, non se ingerit: compellitur, set non ambit. Laudabile est talia non appetere; magis oblata respuere; set rarissimum quod perfectum est deserere jam obtenta. Set ais,—Obediencia est victimis preponenda. Fateor, ubi de proprio nil habet; ubi Dei, non hominis, mens attenditur; ubi, denique, labor et dolor, non color tantum et honor; ubi lacrime panes die et nocte, non cause et nuge vespere et mane. Certe, juxta vocem justi Job (sic), ubi lignum ceciderit remanebit. Cujus finis bonus, ipsum totum bonum. Non sum, inquis, juratus, monitus, nec professus. Nescio—Deus scit—si dupliciter viam Domini sis ingressus. Exitum vide; et, si non monitus, moneat saltem tam subitus mentis motus, et perniciosum exempli monumentum ad posteros transferendum. Numquid aliud est quod ad absentandum ab Exoniensi Ecclesia vos inducit? Scio aliud; set submisse, propter metum Judeorum emulorum, auribus instillandum. Exoniensis intollerabilis est; minis, rixis, probris vos afficit. Quis cum ignibus talibus stare possit? Ibi subditi, hic Prelati. Ibi servi, hic Domini. Ibi clientes, hic Judices. Denique ibi ut ceteri hominum, hic ut Presides omnium. Audi, rogo, Capitis nostri vocem, formam nobis, si Ejus membra sumus, imprimentis,—Non quero voluntatem meam, set Patris mei. Non quod Ego volo, set quod Tu vis. Audi et ab hac sapiencia sapientem, Meliora sunt verbera patris cedentis quam oscula meretricis adulantis; disciplina in presenti quam supplicia in perhenni; probra corrigentis quam samia deridentis; rixe diligentis quam dentes retro detrahentis. Ad extremum, qui non vult esse ut ceteri hominum erit ut ceteri demonum; quia, juxta Philippi[1] sentenciam, non sunt deteriores senibus passionatis, qui, membris frigescentibus, non carnis set spiritus viciis, ut elacionis et inpaciencie, ambicionis, et avaricie, juvenescunt. Hec, karissime pater et fili, non ut vos confundam scribo, set ut amicum carissimum moneo persuadendo; Domini, tamen, et Patris nostri nutibus, quoad nos pertinet, annuendo, set Capituli consensum, propter paucitatem residencium, prestolando. Magni Consilii Angelus det tibi butirum et mel sic comedere, ut scias reprobare malum et eligere bonum. Ego, vero, secundum modulum meum, quia in fine Litere meum petis consilium, in cedula propria manu scripta hic destino interclusum.—Data apud Cliste, iij° die Junii [1334].

Tenor cedule, de qua supra fit mencio, talis est,—

Frater karissime,—Petis a me, in fine Litere tue, gratum consilium remitti per tuum nuncium. Si Deo gratum queris, do non meum set Suum, immo Propheticum, juxta injunctum tibi officium,—Cantabo Domino in vita mea: psallam Deo meo quamdiu fuero; scilicet Ejus Cantor, ne, cessante officio, injuste beneficium teneatur. Audi et Sapientem—Ecclesiastes x,—Si spiritus potestatem habentis ascenderit super te, locum tuum ne dimiseris; et alibi, Si a potente vocatus fueris, recede. Nescis, enim, quid pariat futura dies. Vulgariter dicitur—Officialitas non est hereditas nec tituli perpetuitas. Tene quod habes certum, et dimitte incertum. Melius est quod Advocatus gratis recedas cum honore, quam, Ducatum querens a Principe, aliqua necessitate cedas cum rubore.—Tuus,—

Quod si nos de facto, quod de jure forsitan non poterimus, inmutaremus gravem consciencie lesionem, et —quod magis timemus—Omnipotentis indignacionem incideremus; maxime propter Officii Ecclesie ac elemosinarum, necnon et aliorum onerum incumbencium subtraccionem, et precipue propter perniciosi exempli induccionem. Scripsi, namque, pluries vestre care Dominacioni, set hucusque responsales apices non recepi. Quod non indignantis aut neegligentis animo sed pocius majoribus intendentis occupacionibus arbitror ad scribendum. Numquam, enim, Divina Providencia vestram personam ad tante sciencie et presidencie geminum apicem sustulisset, nisi Suis servulis, quorum ultimus sum, vestra mediacione succurrere decrevisset. Nacta, ergo, occasione scribendi, non modicam ex predictis confidenciam reassumo. Celebri apud nostrates divulgatur relacione quod, ex Indulto Apostolico, ea que in Anglia vestra optinet Rothomagensis Ecclesia, ut in propinquis vobis partibus uberiora ac utiliora provideatis, distrahere proponitis et potestis, sicut inter vos et Dominum Eboracensem experiencia testimonium perhibet manifesta. Est, eciam, in Diocesi nostra Exoniensi quoddam predium cum Ecclesia Parochiali annexa de Otery, prope satis Ecclesiam nostram et Maneria Episcopalia situatum, quod nulli magis Divino et humano usui juste congrueret vel prodesset quam nobis et Successoribus nostris et Ecclesie Exoniensi imperpetuum possidendum. Unde paterne vestre caritatis ac fraterne in Christo dileccionis viscera devotissime exoramus ut nostram parvitatem, de vestra Dominacione confisam, in hac empcionis transaccione preferre dignemini in eventum. Nullum, enim, credimus in hac licitacione nos velle excedere, quia nulli poterit prevalere. Et credimus esse certi quod fiet taliter in hac parte, cum colloquium adinvicem, ut optamus, possimus habere, quod debebitis in omnibus contentari; et dictus Dominus Walterus graciam, ut desideramus, a vobis inveniet consuetam. Unde non venialiter peccant qui, occasiones adversum nos querendo, auribus benignitatis vestre hujusmodi, ut zizannia seminent, qui juste metere debent, ex subtili—utinam non alia—adinvencione satagunt instillare. 228.—Litera missa Domino per Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem—Reverende Pater,—Vestra Prudencia bene novit tam Divino quam humano jure caveri ut reddatur unicuique quod est suum, quodque hoc facias alii quod tibi vis fieri a jure naturali procedit. Unde, sicut vultis vobis quod est vestrum illesum servari, ita quesumus quod velitis nobis reddi facere quod est nostrum, quatenus ad vos et vestros dinoscitur pertinere. Sane, Pater dilectissime et amice, licet quoad certos Articulos contentos in Privilegio[1] Auctoritate Apostolica vestre Paternitati concesso, non teneamini Curie nostre Cantuariensi subesse, in ceteris, tamen, Articulis non expressis in eo, tangentibus jus et jurisdiccionem nostre Curie memorate, sibi tenemini obedire, prout vos credimus illud scire. Vosque, eciam, Curie non paretis eidem in hiis que non possunt sub dicto vestro Privilegio comprehendi, nullo in hac parte speciali jure muniti; de quo non mediocriter admiramur. Verum, quia, nedum ex antiqua amicicia speciali, qua vobis conjungimur et firmius in futurum optamus conjungi, in omnibus vobis competentibus, tam de jure communi quam vestro Privilegio supradicto tenemur, quantum cum Deo poterimus, vos fovere, set ad id nos scimus aliunde teneri; vestram Paternitatem sincero cordis affectu rogamus quatinus Inhibicionem predictam, dissonam omni juri, cujus occasio, sicut a vobis didicimus, per dicti Predecessoris nostri obitum jam cessavit, honestiori modo quo poteritis revocare velitis, adeo quod vestri subditi

Prima, contra Vicarium de Colmptone,[1] qui priusquam Exoniam venimus super homicidio voluntario, notorie perpetrato, erat coram Magistro Adam Murymouth, Vicario tunc nostro Generali, evocatus, deincepsque super sigilli Regii fabricacione conficta coram Justiciariis Domini Regis convictus extitit in Curia Seculari ac Vicecomiti commissus, et nunc ultimo fugitivus: Secunda, contra quendam dictum Magistrum Petrum de Beare, toto tempore vite sue falsitate notatum, qui se fuisse sortilegiis usum et fidem adhibuisse arti prohibite in judicio fatebatur, et, injunctam sibi moderatam valde Penitenciam subdole vitare cupiens, ad dicte Curie auditorium convolavit: Tercia, contra Priorem Capelle Sancti Jacobi prope Exoniam,[2] qui, dilapidator et fornicator publicus sepius convictus, nuper in vestrum nostrumque prejudicium visitari renuens, exemptum se esse pretendit; cui pleraque tam nostri quam priorum temporum in Archivis reperta obviant planissime Munimenta. Igitur, in hiis omnibus et similibus, utinam, visis hinc certis indiciis, et inde vanis ficticiis, vestra paterna Discrecio judicaret si non juxta Apostolorum vocem magis sit Deo quam hominibus obediendum. Quo ad facta propria, nuper, per bajulum vestrarum Literarum, intencionem nostram digitis propriis exaravimus, sicuti est in corde. Ad hec, Pater carissime, quo ad non residenciam Cantoris Exoniensis,[3] ut Officio intendat Curie Cantuariensis, salvo judicio vestro, non videtur Capitulo nostro, cum quo super hoc jam personaliter deliberavimus, nec eciam nobis, quod sufficiens causa existeret dispensandi, nisi in casu quo cum Monachis vel Sacerdotibus, ut uxorem ducerent, Romana consuevit Curia dispensare. Sunt, enim, per Dei graciam, multi tam scientes quam potentes et volentes, in vestra Provincia, dictum Officium eque utiliter excercere; et necessaria, ut melius nostis, sunt voluntariis preponenda. Alias, eciam, si placet, causas, que magis nos ligant, oretenus Magistro Wyberto ostendimus in utroque negocio prefato, Dominacioni vestre plenius exponendas. De Sequestro in pertinenciis ad Cancellariam Exoniensem per nos olim interposito,[4] jam ad preces et mandata vestra ita disposuimus quod nullum credimus exnunc auditum vestrum super eodem negocio molestare. Scimus, tamen, et experimento didicimus quod non est pejor pestis quam familiaris inimicus. Utinam nullum talem vos aut nos altrinsecus habeamus! Venerabili in Christo Patri ac Domino, Domino Petro,[1] Dei gracia Archiepiscopo vestro, ex scolastica noticia confisi scripsimus, attente supplicando quatinus, in eventu quo predium vel Manerium de Otery Sancte Marie, Diocesis nostre Exoniensis, cum suis pertinenciis, ex Licencia Apostolica ad utilitatem Ecclesie et Capituli vestri Rothomagensis alienari posset et deberet, nos et Ecclesia nostra Exoniensis, quibus maxime prodesse posset, ipso mediante, cum gracia et justicia, preferemur. Ecce, enim, amantissime Pater et Domine, quod nos de transitoriis gerimus in votis precipuum, ut, scilicet, Ecclesiam de Otery Sancte Marie, nostre Diocesis, cum dominio Loci ejusdem, nostre Exoniensi Ecclesie applicemus, ad nostrum rogatum, a vestre Paternitatis amicicia, vestro Capitulo Rothomagensi taliter est suasum quod in empcione ejusdem placet illis de Capitulo, ut Literis eorundem accepimus, nos quibuscumque ceteris antiferri. Pro cujus consummacione negocii dilectum Clericum nostrum, Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis Canonicum, Magistrum Willelmum de Nassingtone, transmittimus ad eosdem; quem, ut prefatum negocium desideratum a nobis sorciatur effectum, nostri amoris intuitu, favoribus, si placet, amplioribus prosequi dignetur et graciis vestra nobis Paternitas semper grata. Scimus, Reverende Pater, quod non oportet prudentem et expertam Paternitatem vestram super precavendis Cleri vestri oppressionibus excitare, maxime ne contricione duplici conterantur; matutina, enim, vestra talibus cupimus, precipue apud Deum et Clerum, radiis clarescere, quo ad perfectum Eternitatis diem, nebulis remotis, valeant pervenire. [2] This very severely worded Letter was, doubtless, addressed to Walter Meriet, Chancellor of the Cathedral. He had long troubled the Bishop by his disobedience to authority and persistent non-residence. And it is evident that Grandisson was much annoyed by his invoking the interference of the Archbishop when his revenues were sequestrated. See Nos. 226, 227, 232, and the Registrum Commune.

A.D. 1334. dixerim, non sine corde turbato; quum, ubicumque esset negocium quod vos concerneret, si, bona fide salva, posset per me in melius promoveri, remissus non eram. In negociis, vero, que vos, et Dominum meum,[1] olim Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem, concernebant, quum robas suas portavi, loqui fides bona nullatenus permittebat. Eya, frater mi, ecce roba virtutis egregie multo preciosior veste Christi! Illa mutos, tactu sui, loquele restituit; hec, autem, mutum reddit eloquentem, et ejus qui pro amico quandoque mori non timuit vocem gutturis intercepit. Illa indutum cunctis prebebat amabilem; hec se vestitum amoris erei efficit diruptorem. Set nimirum quia hanc, ut asseritis, fides bona portavit; fides, inquam, robusta; que, etsi sua firmitate montes non transtulit, quod tamen bone fidei multo est grandius exiguo panni, dico, non syndonis, a juvene nec a Joseph relicti pallii precio, exhibuit se venalem. Quo ad hospitacionem, in domo per nos vobis dimissa et iterum restituta, Procuratoris Domini Dei vestri, qui vos in Cancellarium elegit,[2] cum unicolores eratis, nescitis qua fronte, ut dicitis, repelleretis. Stupor miraculi dictorum accrescit, cum eligens perjurium juxta studii statuta alii revelando, et electus, ad electivum apicem nondum habilis, secundam consenciendo inhabilitatem pariter incurrissetis.[3] Que si ita se habeant, nedum nostram set et Omnipotentis offensam merito incurristis. Et infra,—Tot sunt, dicitis, hic querele et murmura de vestro inmoderato rigore, quem parochiani vestri affirmant quod amicorum vestrorum omnium aures, tociens rumoribus talibus concusse, abhorrent, ita quod alterum eorum necesse habent concludere quod aut parochianos pre ceteris mendaciores habetis aut subjectos regimini graviori. O Magister in Israel, qui nichil ignoras, hec necessitas, quam concluditis, apud perspicacius placito non torvo occulo intuentem probabilitatis limites non attingit. Nos, enim, nec parochianos nostros communiter, quia non decet, volumus, licet forsitan possemus, affirmare aliis mendosiores, nec rigorem nostrum fateri cogimur, quem aut Deo placere credimus, aut

[2] Meriet was collated to the Chancellorship by Bishop Stapeldon, 23 Jan., 1322-3. He was severely rebuked by Bishop Grandisson in 1337 for long neglect of duty and for refusing to reside (Reg. vol. ii, fol. 211).

Quod si Officium Pastorale, ut forte plerique, venando aut quicquam impertinens excercendo, aut secrecius delitescendo, necgligeremus, rariores emulos haberemus. Quod, autem, asseritis decem marcas, clerico vestro debitas, in nostris vel clericorum manibus jam diucius permansisse, et sic nos secundo, vel tercio, vel forte alibi centesimo iniquitatis arguitis, nullatenus continet veritatem. Nunquam, enim, quod sciamus, denarium recepimus de eisdem; set in manibus cujusdam Canonici Exoniensis, per executores predecessoris clerici vestri in depositum, pro fidejussoria caucione, juxta Statuta illius Ecclesie, domicilia reparandi, deposite servabantur; cum idem clericus in nostra Diocesi tales non habeat amicos qui pro eo fidejubere in tantum possent et voluerint, quod sciatur. Verum, ergo, ex hiis et aliis experimur proverbium Sapientis —Occasionem querit qui vult recedere ab amico; set certe nunquam vere accessit qui taliter nunc recessit. Scio, namque, juxta eundem, quasdam esse plantaciones non dantes radicem altam, nec firmamentum stabile collocantes. Tacitis, igitur, ex nunc que et qualia per me forte, licet non ex me, veterascentibus robis recenter cotidie sentitis, licet ad predicta rescripseritis, quia verba in scribendo vobis, qui cotidie nova scripta in Curia cuditis, deesse non ambigo; secundo os meum non adiciet respondere nec valet, nisi ad terciam ingratitudinis speciem, quod ut audio non dicitis, majus vobis primitus concessum, cum vix et tarde quod nimis est postea sit accessum. Non miremini si dictata non sunt scripta, ut assolent, manu propria, quia recenter preteriti langoris debilitas et respondendi necessaria prolixitas obsistebant. Valete, cum Messye venturi diutina expectacione. Scripta apud Chuddeleghe, xv die Septembris [1334].

Reverendi Domini et amici,—Nuperrime dilectus Clericus noster, Magister Willelmus de Nassyngtone,[1] Canonicus Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, ad vos accedens, habito aliquamdiu tractatu vobiscum super quibusdam negociis vos et nos tangentibus, vestras Literas nobis, sub data sibi certa credencia, reportavit. In qua videmini unam summam gravem, excessivam, et intollerabilem et —salva gracia vestra—irracionabilem exigere, quam non est verisimile quemquam pro omnibus que in nostra Diocesi habetis velle solvere vel offerre; cum illa omnia cxl marcas vestris usibus vix afferant annuatim. Protestamur, utique, et protestando promittimus quod supra plus offerentes bona fide et non ficte, cum de hoc vestra legali assercione, vel Procuratoris vestri sufficienti fide, nobis veraciter constiterit, intendimus summam addere competentem. Ex parte, etenim, nostra, Deo favente, nullum erit obstaculum ; set dabimus totum posse nostrum ut ad votum vestrum ipsum negocium cum omni celeritate debitum sorciatur effectum. Quantum, vero, ad Licenciam Regis optinendam, noveritis id esse nobis difficile in presenti, tum propter gravis infirmitatis nostre preterite debilitatem, nos ad Parliamentum accedere prohibentem ; tum quia nescimus alium locum ubi cum Domino nostro Rege habere poterimus celeriter colloquium personale, propter aliquas causas de quibus Procurator vester reddet vos suis Literis cerciores. Nos, tamen, pro nostris viribus innitemur cum Domino nostro Rege, quam celerius poterimus, super isto negocio habere tractatum, vel per amicos nostros effectualiter negocium procurare ; si, tamen, inter nos de precio primitus fuerit plene conventum. Nec, si placet, propter nostram instanciam precium aggravetis, ne, ad nostram quodammodo verecundiam et vestrum incommodum finale, nos cogatis a nostro proposito resilire.—Scripta, etc. [1334].

Reverendi Domini et amici karissimi,—Licet precium de Otery juxta veram estimacionem excedat rei valorem, tamen ex quo jam magnas et graves expensas fecimus, tam pro Licencia Regia impetranda quam pro Cartis inde conficiendis et nunciis ad vos sepius transmittendis, nolumus a negocio recedere inchoato; scientes quod, si a proposito nostro resiliremus, regales tamen hic, omnibus viis et inviis, ad ea que in hiis partibus habetis, in nostrum prejudicium, aspirarent. 244.—Litera missa Priori Monasterii Sancti Martini de Campis Parisius,—

Domine et amice karissime,—Miramur non modicum quod ita precipitanter revocare vultis Priorem Barnastapolie,[1] nostre Diocesis, cui curam et regimen ejusdem Prioratus, ad vestram Presentacionem, commisimus jam de novo; cum hucusque modicum vel quasi nichil percepit de ipsius redditibus et obvencionibus quibuscumque. Et revera, si sic sepius faceretis, contingeret ipsum Prioratum destrui et Religionis observanciam dissolvi, ac alias in suis Spiritualibus et Temporalibus grande sibi dispendium irrogari; quod dissimulare non possemus absque Sacrarum in hac parte offensa Sanccionum. Nam extantes fructus, et eciam diu ad ipsum Prioratum obventuri, vix sufficient vite necessariis dicti Prioris et Conventus Monachorum suorum commorancium nunc ibidem, ex eo quod maledictus Predecessor[2] suus immediatus, quod dicere pudet, et quidam Johannes dictus Colecote, fautor suus, lesionem quodammodo irreparabilem, quo dolemus, eidem Prioratui inhumaniter intulerunt. Vestre, tamen, contemplacione persone, predicto Priori ut vos et Domum vestram personaliter hac vice valeat visitare Licenciam concessimus specialem; quem talem, nostro judicio, reputamus quod a lapsu quem predictus Prioratus ad presens, prochdolor, sustinet facultatum, per sue vigilancie studium respirabit, et a noxiis preservabitur, Auctore Domino, et adversis. Ceterum de Priore Sancti Jacobi[3] nichil dicere scimus, nisi quod, honestatis laxatis habenis et Monachali modestia prorsus abjecta, hinc inde discurrit. Ad vos accedere propter metum cruciatus corporis non audet, ut pretendit. Set utinam mitteretis aliquem bonum hominem ad regimen ejusdem Domus, quia ipse Deum non timet nec hominem; quod in Regularis honestatis cedit maculam et Divinam merito offendit Majestatem. Reverendissime Pater et Domine dilectissime,—Non indignetur circumspecta Dominacio vestra si, dissensionis precavens seminaria, scribam que michi incredibilia referuntur. Dicunt nonnulli quod eos qui michi, in defensione juris et justicie mee contra excessus notabiles et defectus personales illius Simonis, Predecessoris vestri, amicabiliter astiterunt, anathematizatos reputatis et vestre Absolucionis antidodo mitigandos. Quod nullo modo crediderim vestram sapere sobrietatem, cum hoc esset Romanam Ecclesiam, ad quam recurrebatur, que et Causam approbavit Appellacionis et remedium propinavit Inhibicionis, iniquitatis arguere, et me meosque omnes dampnacionis vinculis irretire, cum per Dei graciam nos Catholicos et Apostolice Fidei cultores, Divino et humano judicio, reperietis. Et utinam idem Simon, proprie non immemor salutis et fidei, professionis Romane Ecclesie et Pontifici exhibite verus cultor et custos extiterit, et a nodis Sentenciarum liber cum carnis vinculis absolutus. Unde, prudentissime Pater, proprii semel irrevocabilis dicti et sentencie memor vestre, qua id idem sibi, si ad vestram tunc Wintoniensem declinasset Ecclesiam, rependisse asseruistis, talia, si a vestris dicta fuerint aut dici contigerint, caritatis, si placet, et mutue honestatis intuitu obmutescere faciatis. Scio, enim, quosdam Predecessoris ejusdem quondam familiares assistere, qui sub melliti fuco veneni, honoris scilicet Ecclesie Cantuariensis, pro quo incomparabiliter eis fervencius zelamus, piissimam amiciciam vestram erga nos avertere satagentes. Set frater qui adjuvatur a fratre, juxta Sapientis sentenciam, efficitur munita forcior civitate. Utinam frater vester minimus Benjamin dextere filius reputetur, qui, licet eciam amaritudinis filius interpretetur, fructus dulcedinis in tempore pariet oportuno. Post aggrestem (sic) namque saporem uve dulcedinem vinea dinoscitur parturire. Ceterum, karissime Pater et Domine, vulgari modo et grosso lator Presencium qualiter cotidie ad bestias pugnemus referet viva voce. Reverende Pater et Domine karissime.—Quo ad Licenciam Magistro Roberto Luke quam petitis, noveritis, si placet, quod sine vituperio et scandalo non possumus ulterius sibi hujusmodi[2] Licenciam impartiri; quia toto tempore nostro, usque nunc, extorsit Licenciam prece et precio, ita quod, anno elapso, Patrono et Parochianis et Majoribus Cornubie instantibus, promisimus bona fide quod ulterius extunc non concederemus. Et preterea ex miseria sua et mala consciencia medica, vel pocius mendica, ad parcendum burse ex uno latere et lucrandum ex alio, contra statum suum, cum sit sacerdos et Ecclesia sua valeat c marcas, et ipse de patria oriundus nunquam aliud faciet dum subterfugere possit et misere latitare, sub colore studiorum vel Curie, vel cure Magnatum, cum et ad studii profectum exnunc ineptus, et veraciter medicinalia nesciens vel oblitus, incipiat delirare. Et nescimus quando in cura animarum proficiet qui jam seipsum spiritualiter non curet. Scitis, eciam, qualiter Dominus nunc Summus Pontifex non immerite absenciam abhorreat Curatorum, cum nec Episcopis aliquem de propria Diocesi Procuratorem Curatum habere permittat, ubi et patria communis et studium censetur generale. Expedit, eciam, et decet Prelatos secum magis proprios retinere subditos, cum verisimiliter utrobique utiles reperiantur. Ista, si placet, pro malo non habeatis, quia non sine magna causa hec ex cordis habundancia scribo; quia sine ficcione vobis in omnibus cupimus complacere.—Scripta apud Chuddeleghe, xxv die Novembris [1335].

Quibus, nullius arguendo seu approbando Processum, nec Appellaciones seu Inhibiciones quascumque fol. 85b. parvi pendendo, in foro Penitencie Absolucionis beneficium impendimus; quia, sicut noverit vestra Amicicia, secundum Jura Canonica, ubi de salute anime agitur, ut salva fiat, in pejorem partem est interpretacio facienda. Nec credat vestra Fraternitas quod aliquibus nobis assistentibus, expresse vel colore quesito tacite dicentibus seu procurantibus per que discordie seminarium inter nos posset aliqualiter pululare, nullatenus adhibebimus auditum, set more aspidis obturabimus aures nostras; quem modum penes vos observare velitis, ne mutue amicicie vinculum, inter nos ab antiquo contractum, lingua tercia, que secundum Sapientem caritatis multociens est impeditiva, aliqualiter minuatur, set in Christo, Qui est vera Caritas, crescat lacius in futurum. Sicque, ut nobis scripsit vestra Fraternitas, erit frater qui juvatur a fratre quasi civitas firma; et in pugna vestra bestiali, quam nobis retulit Epistole predicte bajulus, fraterno conflictu vos juvabimus celeriter, juxta posse. Et, revera, post Dominum meum singularem, Dominum Penestrinum[2] vos, inter indignas preces ad Deum, nominaliter antepono. Ad hec, karissime Pater et Domine, non sine dolore cordis, refero quod Ministri Comitis Cornubie omnia tam Regalia quam Episcopalia non desinunt usurpare, in tantum quod nec Vicecomitatus Regis aliqua vix negocia habeat, nec Ecclesiastica Jurisdiccio, eciam in personalibus injuriis injeccionis violente in Sacerdotes aut Clericos, vel in Testamentalibus, sinatur libere excercere; set omnes, eciam

Unde et communitas Majorum et Minorum Patrie insurgere proponerent, si oportunitatem viderent. Set, quia frater Regis est et juvenis ductilis,[1] aliqualiter formidant ne, forte, apud Dominum Regem vel eundem justiciam invenirent. Preter hec, non minor in sene fatuo, Comite novo[2] Devonie, insania reperitur, qui nec homines suos testari, vel eorum Testamenta coram Ordinariis sinit probari, vel alias correcciones Ecclesiasticas in dominio suo excerceri. Quinimmo in Capellis suis, absque Privilegio quod sciatur, contra Interdictum Diocesani facit solempniter, Licencia nec petita nec optenta, continue celebrari, et pocius prophanari. Dicit, eciam, palam, suam ostentando vanam gloriam, quod par Regis est, et sibi licet leges condere, et de omnibus judicare; et, sub pretextu Commissionum sibi factarum, omnia pro libito licere; et, quod dictu ridiculum est, seipsum sapienciorem Regni jactat, et ab eo negocia Regni principaliter dependere. Talia et alia que verecundum est retexere, inter simplices Devonicos, qui alium Regem non vident, de seipso predicat et affirmat; cum, tamen, in factis et gestis sit miserior universis. Unde, de hiis et aliis Ecclesie injuriis, dum Dominus noster Rex extra Regnum agit, supersedendum duximus; ne, forte, tumultus insurgeret et presumpcioni mee, qui, ut scitis et scio, temerarius a quibusdam reputor; de quo Ille Qui omnia novit veritatem non ignorat. Cui me, et quicquid de me Sibi placet fieri, fidenter et humiliter committo. Ceterum, Reverendissime Pater, adjutorium et solacium vestrum sperando, personam et negocia dilecti domicelli et fidelis servitoris mei, Johannis de Topfelde, aurifabri, et civis Londoniensis, corditer recommendo, ut apud Dominacionem vestram in agendis graciam reperiat et favorem.—Scripta apud Chuddeleghe, iij die Decembris, in Obitu Johannis, Pape nostri[3] [1335].

Tamen, multa sunt que contra Ministros Domini nostri Comitis, qui, ut hic communiter dicitur, per vos in suis maleficiis foventur, habemus pro loco et tempore obicienda et necessario corrigenda. Per hoc, autem, dicto Domino nostro Summo Pontifici vos displicere non credimus, set placere, et a Domino nostro Rege, cujus in hoc versatur utilitas, grates uberes poteritis reportare. Et ideo, si placet, in hoc vos difficiles non reddatis. Et de eo quod facere decreveritis curetis nos cum festinancia qua poteritis efficere cerciores. 254.—Responsalis ad Literam precedentem,—

Reverendissime ac karissime Pater et Domine,—Literas Dominacionis vestre predilecte recepimus quinta die mensis istius Septembris; quibus quid responderem, eo quod angustias undique michi inferebant, penitus ignorabam. Hinc, enim, Domino nostro Regi, necnon et vobis, Domino Patri Spirituali, non inmerito summe affectabam obsequi et placere; inde, vero, impossibilitas simul et perplexitas nimis anxie obsistebant; unde non quod eligerem, quia non erat, set qualiter indignacionem effugerem cogitabam. Impossibilitas, quidem, quia quod petebatur in potestate mea propria non erat, eo quod Decanum et Capitulum Exonie deputaveram Collectores; quorum consensum sine convocacione habere non poteram; et precedente feria secunda, ut moris erat Ecclesie nostre, propter celebre Festum Sancti Gabrielis[1] congregati fuerant, et jam unusquisque ad propria recesserat, usque novum residencie terminum minime reversuri. Non minor aliunde perplexitas occurrebat, quia, licet convocarentur, tot essent sentencie quot capita, tum propter latas sentencias in Literis Apostolicis, tum propter temporum et tam mee quam aliarum personarum variacionem et inminentem jacturam, cum periculo singulorum. Hec, prout temporis brevitas permisit, diligenter discuciens et pertractans, hoc solum in presenti remedium fore duxi; scilicet, quod vestra reverenda Paternitas scribat Decano et Capitulo Exonie quatinus illam Decimam penes Dominacionem vestram et Capitulum vestrum Cantuariense deponant; quia penes laicos, et maxime extra Diocesim, talis deposicio fieri non posset, ut vestra melius Magis nimirum vellemus Domino nostro Regi pellem cum ossibus dare, quam extra Regnum suum, pro incertis et nugatoriis passagiis, minimam ligulam destinare. Tamen, quantum ad nos attinet, parati semper erimus, quantum cum Deo possumus, exequi que jubetis. Paternitatem vestram reverendam conservet in prosperis nostri clemencia Salvatoris! Scripta apud Clist, vj die Septembris [1336].

A.D. 1337. 255.—Litera missa Domino Bernardo Sistre,[1] Domini Pape et Sedis Apostolice Nuncio,—

Domine reverende,—Quasdam Literas, Dominum nostrum Summum Pontificem Officiumque vestrum in hiis Partibus concernentes, recepimus; quibus parebimus pro posse humiliter et devote. Alias, eciam, vestras proprias vidimus, ad quas longum foret plenarie respondere. Unum, tamen, dicere non timemus; quod Dominus noster, Summus Pontifex, si sciret qualiter in hujusmodi Beneficiis illicita contrahuntur commercia, qualiterve Ecclesia Dei et Cultus Divinus per tales contempnitur et diminuitur, prout parati sumus palam ostendere, congruum remedium adhiberet. Nichil, enim, tales aliud faciunt nisi lac sugunt, et lanam ovium Christi tondunt, et spolia secum tollunt. Unde illud in eis Propheticum[2] adimpletur,—Ve Pastoribus qui pascebant semetipsos: et sequitur—lac comedebatis. Credimus, enim, quod jam de toto tempore suo unum ibi pauperem de decimis suis non pavit, nec unam Antiphonam in Ecclesia intonuit, vel habitum semel portavit; nec ruinosam domum refecit, nec nos qui Superior ibi Dominus et Pastor, licet indigni sumus, voluit intueri. Unde quod Deo placere credimus pro posse facimus. Cetera, que non possumus propter talium fautores, Deo committimus, et vestras consciencias oneramus. Ceterum, Domine reverende, summe mirantur quod tam precipites processus contra aliquos facitis, et impossibiles terminos, considerata locorum distancia, assignatis [1337].

A.D. 1337. statim per Presencium portitorem ita duximus respondendum. Primo, quo ad Denarios Sancti Petri, quod injuriose bis idem petitur; quia usque ad annum preteritum acquietancias habemus. Et quod debetur ulterius de uno anno, cum oportunum fuerit, satisfaciemus; quia Archidiaconi nostri illos Denarios colligunt communiter post Pascha, et nobis non solvunt nisi tantum et non plus in uno obolo quam nos Romane Curie solvimus; et tantum, ut dicitur, ipsi ulterius percipiunt. Et justum esset quod ipsi vobis illud propriis expensis et periculis transmitterent de cujus lucro ipsi gaudent. Unde rogamus quod possimus exnunc exonerari, et de omni quod recepimus satisfaciemus. Quo ad aliud Mandatum vestrum de Beneficiis recelatis,[1] ut per fidedignos intellexistis, ut dicitis, miramur non mediocriter et concutimur multipliciter; quia, ut in eodem scribitis Mandato, non estis contenti Certificatoriis nostris, et quasi in subversionem tocius status nostri et persone impingitis evidenter. In quo casu nobis committere non debetis contra nos ipsos, set pocius uni illorum fidedignorum cui magis quam nobis creditis. Unde, per Dei graciam, cum, secundum prudenciam nobis desuper datam, in omnibus nos senciamus prout Deo et Sancte Romane Ecclesie tenemur egisse, meliori modo quo Deus dederit et poterimus nos defendere oportebit; quia non credimus quod ad Episcoporum deposicionem vel degradacionem Commissionem habeatis sufficientem. Quod si habeatis quantum Canones volunt, usque ad mortem pro justicia et defensione nostra stabimus nos tuendo. Proponimus, tamen, mittere ad Dominos et amicos super hoc in Romana Curia consulendos; quia non credimus quod Dominus noster Summus Pontifex intendat Prelatos et Clerum tam injuriosis exaccionibus ut jam incipitur pregravare. Interim, autem, quo ad dies nobis per vos assignatos, prout justum fuerit faciemus. Quod si Dominus Bernardus[2] jam redierit et prefata rata habuerit, quidve aliud volueritis, nobis, si placet, per Presencium portitorem dignemini celeriter nunciare.—Scripta apud Chuddeleghe, xv die Maii [1337].

Reverende Domine,—Literas vestras responsales recepi, multa quidem, non, ut michi imponitis, magna nec magnalia, aut miranda, set pocius inconveniencia, continentes. ab aliquo creditore, maxime per illum qui facta propria nosse debet; quia, cum Deus non puniat bis in idipsum, si accopas sigillo vestro signatas fortuite perdidissem, ab iniquo exactore oppressus, ad cujus Registri copiam recurrere debueram, que reddideram iterum solvere injuriose compellerer et injuste. De quo, tamen, minus ad presens miror, quia hoc multis aliis fieri, quod michi soli fieri credebam, didici et audivi. Nec credo, ut dicitis, vos potuisse compulsivas contra me rite Literas transmisisse, quia certum terminum nec recipiendi ipsos Denarios Sancti Petri, nec eciam solvendi, sub quacumque juris caucione, hucusque potui explorare; nisi, ut scribitur, novi recentesque venerunt, etc.—Quo ad Archidiaconos qui plus recipiunt, quia mea non interest, quod vestrum fuerit potestis exequi quando placet. Quo ad recelata Beneficia, que vos scitis, ut dicitis, et reperiuntur vacasse, que ego penitus ignoro, cum mea, ut impingitis, ignorancia crassa et supina, que subversio finalis status cujuscumque Prelati sufficiens foret, si in judicium fuerit deducta; prout aliter scripsi, libenter recipiam quod fuerit racionis. Iterum, ad hoc—quod petitis quod Mandatis Apostolicis sine rancore vel iracundia paream, juxta illud Apostoli—Sit, autem, omnis homo, etc., devotissime, ut dixi, parui, pareo, et parebo. Set utinam dicta Jacobi Apostoli pretacta, et regulas Theologicas in allegacione Sacre Scripture, mecum Parisius subtilius didicissetis; quia nec taliter nec talia proprium allegatorem redarguencia proposuissetis, in quo circumscripto eciam statu Apostolico Dominum nostrum Summum Pontificem, qui nunc est, judicem affectarem. Quo ad conclusionem Literarum mearum vobis directarum, ut dicitis, quarum copiam, sicut vestrarum, penes me registratum teneo et tenebo, collacione facta cum originalibus, quas penes vos habetis, et defendere coram quibuscumque parati estis, cum Apostolo indifferenter loquendo quod suppono pro Paulo, dico—in quo quis audet, in insipiencia dico; audeo plus ego. Finaliter ad hoc, quod replicatis de Sanctissimo Patre, Domino nostro, nunc Summo Pontifice, me credere ipsum nolle aliquem injuste gravare; quod nunc scitis, diu ante vos in quolibet statu et studio plus vobis didici et scio. Et ideo audenter quod scripsi scripsi. De restitucione injuste ablatorum per vos in quadruplum, ut dicitis, facienda, licet talia ignorem nec ad me pertineat, possem forte vobis, si oporteret, respondere; set ad presens duxi melius reticere. Ad hec, quicquid penes me de Denariis Beati Petri habui, jam Mandatis vestris obediendo transmisi; regraciando Dominacioni vestre de perutili doctrina in conservandis acquietanciis adhibenda. Certificatorium, eciam, alterius Mandati vobis

Et successive habita deliberacione inter nos, Milites, Senescallos, et Ballivos Hundredorum et Libertatum, ac alios tunc presentes, de modo singulorum vota scrutandi, quale subsidium vobis facient, jam necessitatis articulo imminente omnibus, tam pro relevacione laborum et expensarum populi quam pro vestro comodo, expediens videbatur quod in proximis turnis Vicecomitis Hundredorum magnis Curiis et Letis, statim circa instans Festum Sancti Michaelis tenendis, hujusmodi negocia singulis exponantur, et eorum facultates et voluntates caucius exquirantur, ut extunc nos de nominibus et voluntate singulorum decem libratas terre, redditum, vel bonorum, communiter vel divisim, habencium, vos et vestrum Consilium, cum celeritate possibili, informemus. Omnes, tamen, presentes unanimiter nos rogarunt quod Celsitudini vestre Regie suggerere curaremus de notoria illarum Parcium sterilitate et monete ibidem raritate, quodque Majores Patrie redditus suos proprios vix, vel nunquam, levare, aut populares jam sua blada vendere possunt; necnon, qualiter diversis tallagiis, expensis Militum ad Parliamenta, sagittariisque inveniendis, licet pauci ibi fuerint, onerantur; qualiter, eciam, multi magni et divites ac tenentes Magnatum de illis Partibus, in fraudem vestram et Dominorum suorum, Collegio Stagnariorum dolose se hactenus ascripserunt, ut hec et alia onera communia, que tota Communitas habet agnoscere, evitent, pretextu cujusdam Privilegii vestri, quo quantum ad hec et alia pessime abutuntur; et potissime de Warda Maris in illis Partibus, propter portus quodammodo immunerabiles circumquaque patentibus, periculis et timoribus plus ceteris pregravantur. Verum, universi et singuli Beneficiati ibidem, ex causa premissa, coram nobis tunc congregati, non inmerito moleste ferentes, cum multis suspiriis et lamentis, Ecclesiastica ac Regia, universeque plebis sibi subjecte, in premissis pericula, post deliberacionem per eos adinvicem habitam diuturnam, demum proponi fecerunt, coram nobis, quod, quia notabilis brevitas temporis, nedum a die vocacionis eorum set eciam usque ad instans Parliamentum, vestrum Regium deliberandi consilium aut vota scrutandi singulorum presencium, aut aliorum non per contumaciam set per causas racionabiles absencium, non permisit; et, ideo, nobis cum instancia supplicarunt quod ad audienciam vestre mansuetudinis Regie deduceremus quod, ad complendum uberius et acceptabilius beneplacitum Regium in hac parte, decreverunt ad instantem Provincialem Congregacionem Reverendi Patris nostri, Domini Cantuariensis, in Ecclesia Sancti Pauli Londoniarum faciendam, Procuratores suos sufficienter instructos destinare; ut quod subito placenter fieri non posse pertimescebant, tali deliberacione media, efficacius compleretur. Nullus, tamen, qualemcumque excusacionem petitorum fugitivam pretendebat, set omnes et singuli id faciendum hillariter ac summopere decreverunt. Dignetur, ergo, Regia clemencia, que Tronum Principum solidat et confirmat, predictas tam affeccionem quam responsionem, una cum humili scribentis execucione, benigniter acceptare. Reverendissime Pater et Domine carissime,—Audivit reverenda Paternitas vestra—si, tamen, diligenter adverterit, qualiter heri Dominus Bernardus,[1] in presencia tot et talium in me subito sagittavit, cor suum declinando in verba malicie ad excusandas excusaciones in peccatis, et quod sequitur non advertendo. Corripiet, inquit, me justus in misericordia, et increpabit me : oleum, autem, etc. Qui, vero, juxta Sapientem, odit increpaciones insipiens est. Confessus, tamen, est et non negavit—aliter et plus quam Litere Apostolice sibi concedunt recepisse, rapinam per consequens et furtum, immo sacrilegium committendo. Aliter, inquam, quia a Prelatis et Clero communiter datur sibi recipere quod ipse a Collegiis et Cellulis, sine personarum delectu[1] aut facultatum, colligit indistincte, ut in unum sibi satisfaciant dives et pauper. Plus, eciam, dico, quia, ultra cotidianos septem solidos, quinque—ut verbis suis utar—marcas fatetur jam recepisse; et adhuc de Hibernia, que major est Anglia, et triginta vel plures habet Episcopos,[2] dicit se nil penitus habuisse, cum quod differtur non aufertur. Set pocius, multiplicatis granis, fiet maxima summa caballi.[3] Et vere possum dicere quicquid ipse fabuletur. Non tantum sepcies recipit, set septuagies sepcies. Unde et sepcies in die cadit. Utinam forcius resurgat! Cum non resurgant impii in judicio, neque peccatores in consilio justorum. Centuplum, ergo, accipiat; nec vitam eternam possidebit. Ad hec, dilectissime Pater, quod dicit se vice et nomine Domini Icherii fragmenta collegisse, ne pereant, cujus auctoritate ad ea levanda fungebatur? Nescio. Deus scit quod non ipsius Icherii, quia jam revocata; nec eciam Apostolica, quia se extendit tantum ad futura, et non pro Icherio set Bernardo. Si bene fecerit, judicet eum Eterni Tribunal Judicis, et non ego. Ceterum, quod excommunicavit et interdixit pro procuracionibus jam solutis, ut clare per datas accoparum et processuum liquere poterit, si ex errore, ut dicit, hoc contigit, sequitur ex errore error, et sic processus in infinitum quousque peccator veniat in profundum. Quis, ergo, secum dispensavit ad Archidiaconatum? Miror, nec mirari sufficio, quod dereliquit Papam, factorem suum, et adhesit Archiepiscopo, creatori suo; nec ultra oblivisci poterit creatoris sui. Cum duobus Dominis talibus nemo valeat deservire. Tales, autem, duo, in hac regione longinqua positi, satis poterunt inferioribus dominari; cum Legato et Nuncio Apostolicis nequeat faciliter contradici.—Omissis, igitur, aliis Articulis, quia longum esset prosequi, digestis jam seriis, ad nugas me converto. Dicitur quod Anglici sunt caudati. Set certe dicere possum quod Bernardus meus non Anglicus, set jam Anglicatus. Suam michi heri caudam patefecit, quam

[1] This Letter may have been addressed to Earl Warren. See No. 263.—It is an original draft, written and revised by the Bishop himself ; and it was, probably, intended that it should be copied into this Register of the Bishop's Private Letters, loose between two folios of which it has happily been preserved. Being of great interest as an autograph draft, it has been reproduced in facsimile, by way of Frontispiece to the present Volume.

[3] It will be observed that the Bishop wrote, in the first instance, "des choses e les condiciouns," which he intended to alter into "de lestat e des condiciouns." He struck out "choses" and neglected to strike out "e les."

[4] A portion of another draft, preserved with the above between the folios. It has been torn in two, and so roughly as to mutilate the writing slightly from top to bottom. It refers to some Diocesan difficulty and was addressed, apparently, to the President of the Consistory Court, by a Commissary ; but there is nothing to shew by whom or when. Much of it was very carelessly written, and some of the contractions (to say nothing of some of the phrases) are barely intelligible. The mutilated words have been restored, within brackets, as far as was found practicable.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

Page 101, No. 11.—This Letter was addressed to "Frater Matheus" Orsini, who was consecrated Bishop in 1327, but resigned his See in the same year and remained at the Roman Court. Before 1327, he occurs as "Matheus Ursini, Titulo Sanctorum Johannis et Pauli Presbiter Cardinalis." See the undated List of Cardinals, infra (Register, vol. ii, fol. 75). On the 18th of December, 1338, he was raised to the rank of Cardinal Bishop of Sabina. He died, at Avignon, in August or September, 1340.

Page 213, note 3.—The MS. has "certeme," plainly; but no one whom I have consulted can interpret the word as it stands. Mr. Baigent suggests that it may be derived from "serte,"—"le temps du service d'un valet ou d'un apprenti (servitium)"—Du Cange. Professor Meyer, of Paris (to whom I am greatly indebted for much valuable help in dealing with difficulties in several of the French Letters) believes it to be a clerical error for "costome, in the meaning of consuetudo (Du Cange)." It seems clear that, when the scribes did not know a word, or were unable to read it (and the facsimile at the beginning of this Volume shews that they had frequently to deal with very rough drafts), they were accustomed to make the best they could of it by simply copying the forms of the letters.

Page 283, note 2.—Mr. Greenfield, of Southampton, has kindly sent me the following Document, relating to Chancellor Meryet:—

Page 302, No. 261.—" Dominus Bertrandus, Titulo Sancte Marie in Aquiro Presbiter Cardinalis ; et vocatur communiter Cardinalis de Monte Favencio." This extract from a List of Cardinals in 1326, in Archbishop Reynolds' Register, has been sent to me by Mr. Baigent, who adds that he occurs as Cardinal by this Title as early as 1319, and is continually named in connection with English affairs till July, 1341. He died either in that year or before 20 Sept. in 1342. In 1332 and 1338 he occurs as Rector of Brantingham, Yorkshire, and he appears to have retained the Benefice till his death. In the undated List of Cardinals in Bishop Grandisson's Register, referred to above, he is entered among the " Diaconi Cardinales," as " Bertrandus de Monte Favencio, Sancte Marie in Aquiro."

Set Reverendus Pater Dominus Petrus, Titulo Sancte Susanne Presbiter Cardinalis, dicti Collegii Camerarius, querele et supplicacioni hujusmodi temere se opponens, asserebat quod Obligacio predicta fuit, prout in Registris Camere compertum esse dicebat, multiplicatis vicibus iterata, tam tempore felicis recordacionis Domini Clementis Pape V^ti^ quam tempore Domini Bonefacii Pape VIII prelibati, et impedivit propterea quominus dicta supplicacio suum tunc habebat effectum, dictumque Dominum Johannem Episcopum ad prestandum hujusmodi servicium fecit ad suam presenciam evocari. Coram quo comparente eodem Domino Johanne Episcopo, et petito ab eo per Dominum Petrum, Cardinalem predictum, quod super prestacione dicti servicii juramentum prestaret corporale, idem Dominus Johannes Episcopus palam et Et, quia dictus Dominus Cardinalis ipsum Dominum Johannem Episcopum super hoc admittere et audire, contra justiciam, denegavit, idem Dominus Johannes Episcopus, in Beatam Mariam, Gracie Matrem, et justiciam suam ponens fiduciam, propter magnam reluctanciam dicti Domini Petri Cardinalis, non cessavit a prosecucione sui juris in hac parte, licet alias nonnulli Reverendi Patres Cardinales, Pontifices, et alii periti, de insecucione tanti facti stupentes, immo pocius de ejus felici expedicione desperantes, ipsum Dominum Johannem Episcopum induxerunt et consuluerunt incessanter ad desistendum. Set, ad Dominum Papam predictum recurrens, eidem per seipsum, secundo, gravitatem dicti oneris viva voce detulit in querelam, exhibens sibi Articulos in Scripta redactos, per quos ad ejus informacionem se probaturum offerebat, per testes fidedignos in Curia presentes, prefatum Dominum Petrum Cardinalem contra supplicacionem ex parte sua propositam, contra bonum consciencie, ac male et indebite, replicasse; necnon, Ecclesiam Exoniensem, toto tempore Domini Bonefacii Pape VIII, ac ante et post continue, usque ad tempus Domini Jacobi, proximi Predecessoris sui, fuisse plenam de Episcopis a Capitulo et Canonicis Ecclesie Exoniensis in Partibus illis electis, et ab Archiepiscopis Cantuariensibus pro tempore existentibus, auctoritate Metropolitica, confirmatis et consecratis. Unde dictus Dominus Papa, volens super petitis justiciam ministrare, per seipsum in Consistorio gravitatem dicti oneris ac factum contrarium replicacionis per Dominum Petrum Cardinalem proposite, per ipsum Dominum Johannem Episcopum fuisse sibi denuo exposita, eciam cum prompta probacione facienda, recitavit; et mandavit dicto Domino Petro Cardinali, ac Arnaldo,[1] Archiepiscopo Arelatensi, suo et Collegii Camerariis, quod, inspectis Registris Camere, cum eodem Johanne Episcopo amicabiliter et plano modo componerent, et eidem exhiberent justicie complementum. Cujus, quidem, auctoritate Mandati, prefati Camerarii, productis coram eis ex parte dicti Domini Johannis Episcopi decem testibus fidedignis, ad probandum plenitudinem Ecclesie Exoniensis toto tempore Domini Bonefacii Pape VIII, quo quemdam Exoniensem Episcopum fuisse in Curia promotum dicebatur, et eis admissis, iidem

Obligacio ad prestandum servicium Camere,—

Anno Domini M^{o}. CCC^{mo} vicesimo septimo, die ix^{a} mensis Decembris, Reverendus Pater et Dominus, Dominus Johannes, Episcopus Exoniensis, promisit, pro suo communi servicio Camere Domini nostri Pape et Collegio quatuordecim Cardinalium, quinque milia florenorum et quinque consueta servicia familiarium persolvere in Curia Romana; medietatem, videlicet, a Festo proximo Resurreccionis Dominice [27 March] ad annum, et aliam medietatem in alio Festo Resurreccionis proximo tunc venturo, anno revoluto; alioquin, redire ad Curiam Romanam infra quatuor menses, et de ea non recedere donec de dicta pecunia sit plenarie satisfactum. Et juravit ad Sancta Dei Evangelia, per eum corporaliter Libro tacto, predictam pecunie quantitatem loco et terminis supradictis cum integritate persolvere. Pro quibus attendendis et observandis obligavit se, Successores suos, et sua ac dicti sui Episcopatus bona mobilia et immobilia, presencia et futura; submittens se propterea jurisdiccioni duorum Cameraríorum Domini Pape et Collegii supradictorum: prorogans nichilominus in se, idem Dominus Episcopus, ipsorum Dominorum Camerariorum jurisdiccionem, quod si predictam pecunie quantitatem loco et terminis non solverit supradictis, vel ad Curiam non redierit, ut dictum est, Excommunicacionis Majoris, Suspensionis, et Interdicti Sentencias in ipsum et Ecclesiam Exoniensem latas se noverit incurrisse ac ab Administracione Pontificalis Officii se suspensum.

[3] On the 26th of April, 1323, the Bishop of Bath and Wells commissioned "two of his Canons, empowering them to carry out a Papal Provision granted to Richard Rokbare, a poor clerk, against Taunton Priory." (Reg. Drokenesforde, Ed. Bp. Hobhouse, p. 216.) A similar Commission was issued on the 1st of August following, "authorizing them to proceed with Rokbere's Provision." (Ibid, p. 218.) On the 27th of May, 1326, Bishop Drokenesforde commissioned the Rector of Thornfagon to make Inquisition as to the vacancy of the Vicarage of Kingston, and, if all were right, to institute and induct John de Dichford (ibid., p. 268). It will be observed that Bishop Grandisson's Commission was directed to the Prior of Barnstaple in 1328. Dichford seems to have retained the Benefice till 1337, in which year Richard de Rokebeare became Vicar (Reg. Rad. de Salopia, fol. 166). See Wells MSS., R. 138, where he is called "the pretended Vicar." He defied Bishop Ralph ; and, apparently in the same year, he was superseded by Roger de Makele, who in August, 1339, exchanged Kingston for Keinton-Mansfield with John Davesey (ibid. fol. 206). Within three months, Davesey exchanged with Richard Pyon, Vicar of East Pennard (ibid. fol. 208). But in the following year Rokebeare again appears as Vicar (ibid. fol 253). He did not hold the Benefice long, however ; for he was succeeded by Adam Payn, who in 1343 exchanged for Winsford with William de Aysshelegh (ibid. fol. 292). See Weaver's Somerset Incumbents, page 389.

Johannes, etc.—Prout nuper dilectis filiis, Ecclesie, nostre Exoniensis Decano, vobisque et nonnullis ejusdem Ecclesie Concanonicis, apud Clyste, nos plene recolimus explicasse, ipsam Ecclesiam invenimus, in nostre Promocionis[1] exordio, per factum bone memorie Domini Jacobi, Predecessoris nostri, in cujusdam importabilis ac perpetue servitutis onere Domini nostri Summi Pontificis Camere subjugatam; a qua servitute ferrea, etsi non a tota, ab ejus, tamen, majori parte,—postposita, ut decuit, utilitate nostra privata,—cooperante Deo Ejusque Benedicta Matre interveniente, Sponsam nostram liberavimus Ecclesiam antedictam; quod absque vigilanti studio fieri posse nullus expertus ambigit, nec absque validis laboribus et expensis. Cum, itaque, non obstante mitigacione predicta, ipsa Ecclesia nostra ad ea que restant oneris illius non sufficiat, absque subvencionis filialis remedio, supportanda, eo maxime quod per crebras et adhuc recentes Sedis ejusdem vacaciones valde a suis facultatibus sit dilapsa, nimisque breves nobis ad solvendum termini prefigantur; dilectis in Christo filiis, Clero nostre Diocesis, qui sue Matris depressioni vehementer compacientur, ut credimus, magis esse debeat complacitum quam molestum, si ad ipsos habeat recursum, modis videlicet non coactivis aut questuariis, set benignis pocius et honestis; vestram devocionem injungendo requirimus et hortamur quatinus Clerum Archidiaconatus vestri, quamcito commode poteritis, faciatis in eodem Archidiaconatu, ad diem vel dies, locum vel loca, quibus vobis commodius videbitur, convocari; ubi et quando tam Religiosi, Rectores, Vicarii, quam alii Beneficiati residentes personaliter, absentes, vero, per Procuratores sufficientes, poterunt absque dispendio convenire. Et vos ipsi, una cum aliquo nostrorum, quem ad vos ob id destinare proponimus, eos salubribus monitis et allectivis precibus, ad tale aliquod nostri subsidium inducatis ut quilibet quantum sibi placuerit apponat, non communiter set absque gravamine singuli prout voluerint singillatim. De die, vero, convocacionis hujusmodi, et quid in premissis duxeritis faciendum, nos per Literas vestras clausas, Presencium bajulo assignandas, dilucide reddatis cerciores. In votive prosperitatis gaudio vigeat vobis salus!—Data apud Chuddelegbe, Kalendis Julii [1 July], Anno, etc.

In quibus domibus ipsi laici, cum uxoribus, prole, et familia, indecenti inhabitare, tabernas condere, et alios turpis lucri questus indies exercere comprobantur, ex quibus rixe et contenciones oriuntur, verbera et vulnera mutua perpetrantur ; unde secularibus ballivis et aliis tribuitur materia in ipsum Sanctuarium ingredi, ibidemque, tanquam in solo laicali, animalia et alia bona comperta capiunt, asportant, et abducunt; necnon, ipsos ministros ad forum vetitum trahi et inibi graviter vexari procurant; in vituperium Ecclesie Dei et Ministrorum ejusdem Ecclesie periculum non modicum, tranquillitatis et Obsequii Divini perturbacionem, et scandalum plurimorum. A.D. 1328. The Subsidy for the Bishop; Litera missa Decano Exoniensi [pro Subsidio petendo],— fol. 54. Litera missa Domino Thesaurario Exoniensi, pro eodem,— Salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—Discrecionem vestram latere non credimus quod, dum pro Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis sublevacione a limo profunde et perpetue servitutis in quam dejecta fuerat, in Curia Romana diu stetimus in angustiis et expensis, duos terminos redditnum nostrorum in Anglia prevenisse poteramus, et tempora seminacionum post Consecracionem nostram, et hujusmodi Autumpni vesturam dictosque redditus habuisse, si, spretis ipsius Ecclesie utilitatibus, nostris curassemus comodis instetisse. Unde vos rogamus, intimo requisitu, quatinus ista velitis singillatim Confratribus et Concanonicis vestris, in hac instanti convocacione vestra Exonie, quanto complacicius poteritis, intimare, ipsosque ad tale quoddam nostri subsidium inducere graciose, quod nullus exinde gravari possit aut debeat, set prout cuilibet placuerit, et nos in supportando juvemur in id quod remanet oneris antedicti; ut spes magna quam in bonitate vestra gerimus ex previsis, per hanc expedicionem in nobis firmissima radicetur. Salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—Confidenti vestre dileccioni supplicamus attente quatinus, in proxima convocacione vestra futura Exonie, Concanonicis vestris ibidem velitis exprimere singillatim quod, post Consecracionem nostram, in Curia, ad servilis oneris Ecclesie Exoniensis vincula dirumpenda, tam diu stetimus in laboribus et expensis quod duorum terminorum redditus interim in Anglia perdidimus, et seminacionis tempora transivimus; unde et vesturam similiter amisimus hujusmodi; Ecclesie honori utilitatem, ut decuit, propriam postponentes. Ob hanc, igitur, causam et alias, amicabilius quo poteritis, eorundem velitis singulas allicere voluntates ad conferendum nobis subsidium mediocre, quod conferentes non oneret, et, tamen, id quod restat ejusdem oneris nobis reddat portabilius; quod scimus alias excedere vires nostras. A.D. 1328. Vol. II. diccionem.—Ecclesiam nostram Exoniensem atque Sponsam, in nostre Prefeccionis exordio in eadem, per factum bone memorie, Domini Jacobi, Predecessoris nostri inmediati, in cujusdam importabilis ac perpetue servitutis onere Camere Domini nostri, Summi Pontificis, invenimus subjugatam, prout nuper dilectis filiis, Domino Decano, ac nonnullis Concanonicis Ecclesie nostre antedicte, in Manerio nostro de Clyste nos plene recolimus explicasse. Quod absque vigilanti studio, validisque laboribus ac expensis variis et innumeris, fieri posse nullus ambigit sciolus vel expertus. Cum, itaque, non obstante mitigacione predicta, ipsa Ecclesia nostra ad ea que restant oneris illius non sufficiat, absque subvencionis filialis remedio, subportanda, eo maxime quod, per crebras et adhuc recentes Sedis ejusdem vacaciones, valde a suis facultatibus est dilapsa, nimisque breves nobis ad solvendum termini prefigantur ; [et] dilectis filiis in Christo, Clero nostre Diocesis, qui sue Matris depressioni vehementer compaciuntur, ut credimus, magis esse debeat complacitum quam molestum si ad ipsos habeat recursum,[1] modis videlicet non coactivis aut questuariis, set benignis pocius et honestis ; vestram, idcirco, devocionem injungendo requirimus et hortamur quatinus Clerum Archidiaconatus vestri, cum celeritate qua poteritis, faciatis citari ac eciam convocari ad diem Martis proximam post instans Festum Beati Petri quod dicitur Ad Vincula [2 Aug.], in Ecclesia Sancte Sativole,[2] extra Portam Orientalem, in suburbio Civitatis Exonie ; quibus die et loco tam Rectores et Vicarii quam alii beneficiati hujusmodi, residentes personaliter, absentes, vero, per Procuratores sufficientes, compareant, et vos ipsi personaliter, tunc, ibidem, una cum aliquo de nostris quem ad vos ob id destinare proponimus, comparentes, eos salubribus monitis et allectivis precibus ad tale aliquod nostri subsidium prestandum inducatis, ut quilibet quantum sibi placuerit apponat et contribuat, non communiter, set, absque gravamine, singuli prout voluerint singillatim. De die, vero, recepcionis Presencium, et quid in premissis feceritis, nos, vel nostrum Commissarium, per Literas vestras clausas et patentes, dictis die et loco, reddatis dilucide cerciores. In votivo prosperitatis gaudio vigeat vobis salus ! Data in Manerio nostro de Peyngtone, ix Kalendas Augusti (24 July).

Vol. II. fol. 53b. Salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—In hac instanti convocacione vestra, nostro velitis amore in effectum ad memoriam Confratrum reducere qualiter, a tempore Consecracionis nostre, si festinanter in Angliam rediissemus, Episcopatus nostri Temporalia a Domino Rege non fuissent continuo restituta, et sic non solum tempora seminalium prevenissemus et presentis vesture fructum percepissemus, verum eciam duorum habuissemus redditus terminorum. Quas omnes utilitates proprias Ecclesie nostre liberacioni ab imposito sibi onere postponentes, apposuimus ex nostro expensas plurimas, crebra laborum dispendia sustinentes. Et ex hiis factis novitatis nostre singillatim velitis ipsos Concanonicos excitare quatinus, ad supportandum oneris supradicti residuum, nobis tale singillatim prout cuilibet placuerit graciose concedant quale nulli per se noceat nec displiceat subsidii fulcimentum; ut spes, quam in amicicia vestra, in hiis principiis nostris, firmam hinc cepimus, in hujusmodi effectum negocii solida comprobetur. Diu et feliciter in Domino valeatis! [24 July].

Sane vobis, Domine Decane, et nonnullis ejusdem Ecclesie nostre Concanonicis, apud Clyste recolimus exposuisse qualiter ipsam Ecclesiam invenimus, in nostre Promocionis exordio, per factum Domini Jacobi, Predecessoris nostri, in cujusdam importabilis ac perpetue servitutis onere Domini nostri Summi Pontificis Camere, ac Dominorum Cardinalium Collegio subjugatam, et in Romanis Archivis ad perpetuam memoriam registratam ; a qua servitute ferrea, etsi non a tota, ab ejus tamen majori parte—postposita, ut decuit, utilitate nostra privata, in tantum quod duos terminos reddituum nostrorum, Natalis et Purificacionis, quos alias prevenisse potuimus, necnon et yemalis seminis tempus perdidimus, ut nostis—cooperante Deo Ejusque Benedicta Matre interveniente, Sponsam nostram liberavimus antedictam ; quod absque vigilanti studio fieri posse nullus expertus ambigit, nec absque validis laboribus et expensis.

fol. 55. The Bishop wrote, also, on the same day, to Sir John de Godele [Dean of Wells, and] Canon of Exeter, asking him to contribute to the Subsidy. And he wrote again, on the same or the following day, to the Abbat of Forde, requesting him to use his influence with the members of his Convent in the matter ; adding—"Ad hec, in hiis que dilectus Clericus familiaris noster, Dominus Johannes de Eysy, lator Presencium, ex parte nostra vive vocis oraculo vobis exponet, fidem velitis credulam adhibere." He wrote, also, to Master Robert de Hasilschaue, another of the Canons, as follows,—

Salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—Cum non sit a vestra cognicione remotum quod nos, Ecclesie Exoniensis honori utilitatem propriam postponentes, citra ejusdem Ecclesie liberacionem, post Consecracionem nostram, in Curia tam diu stetimus fatigati laboribus, affecti tediis et expensis, donec, transcurso in Anglia seminacionis tempore et duorum redditibus terminorum, unde caremus simul et redditibus et vestura ; et, quia ad solvendum id quod ad hec restat ejusdem Ecclesie oneris, terminis suis, ex fol. 55. The Subsidy for the Bishop; Responsio Decani Exoniensis ad Literas sibi missas pro Subsidio,—

Domino suo reverendo omnem obedienciam, reverenciam, et honorem.—Literas vestras recepi inter cetera continentes quod Fratres meos Concanonicos inducerem quod quilibet pro beneplacito suo, pro laboribus et expensis in eisdem Literis contentis, quantum cuilibet placuerit, manum graciosi subsidii apponeret. Lectis dictis Literis in Capitulo, videlicet presentibus Ada Murymouthe, Precentore, Thoma de Hentone, Thesaurario, Thoma Hereward, Archidiaconatus Exonie, Ada, Cornubie, Rogero, Tottonie, Ricardo, Barnastapolie, Locorum Archidiaconis, Thoma de Cherletone, Willelmo de Kylkenni, Roberto Hereward, Thoma de Stapeldone, Ricardo de Brayleghe, Roberto de Haselsawe, Johanne Bloyou, Ada Murymouthe, juniore, Reginaldo de Chambernoun, Concanonicis meis ejusdem Ecclesie; qui, advertentes labores et expensas, ac eciam dampna, que vitasse potuistis, si mora vestra pro negociis ad utilitatem Ecclesie Exoniensis expediendis non fuisset, eisdemque plene intellectis, concorditer responderunt presentes quod vos quilibet respiceret graciose. Verum, quia honestius eis videbatur quod quilibet vobis votum suum, aut vestris, exponeret quam alteri, eo quod quanto secrecius fieret et honorificencius intelligi posset esse factum; videtur, tamen, multis quod eciam utile esset et honorificum quod responsio usque adventum vestrum ad Capitulum Exoniense differretur, si vestram offensam ex hoc incurrere non timerent; nec ex dilacione sequetur, ut credo, magnum periculum, quia multi eorum medio tempore qui se non expediverunt actualiter se expedire permiserunt. Valeat Dominacio vestra in Christo!—Scripta Exonie, secunda die mensis Augusti.

Reverende ac semper prompte Dileccioni vestre de solaciis multiplicibus et amiciciis regraciamur quantum possumus, ut tenemur. Admiramur, autem, non modicum si per ea que nobis modo scripsistis vestre, quod absit consciencie sit serenitas obfuscata. Presertim cum, sicut ipsi magis nostis pro Episcopi Intronizacione quicquam exigere jura Divina simul et Canonica districte inhibeant, terribiliter execrent, atque dampnent. Et, preter hec, si hii qui Cantuarie Consecracionis munus admittunt, juxta consuetudines antiquas aliquid fortasse solvere tenerentur, vel racione honoris ibidem adepti, seu laboris impensi, sive colore alio qualicumque; nos, tamen, quos satis constat nichil a Loco illo nostri traxisse principii, non posset equitas, ut videtur, ad onus hujusmodi coartare. Et certe, si ab hiis que principali Ecclesie Cantuariensi communiter fiunt in Consecracionibus ibidem pretacta racio nos absolvat, multo magis ab exaccionibus Archidiaconi ejusdem, videlicet Ecclesie membri, erimus penitus absoluti. Nec vos lateat quod eadem, et plura quam ea, que racione Archidiaconatus vestri exigitis,[1] petit, de jure suo ut dicit, Nobilis Vir, Dominus Hugo de Curtenay, scilicet palefredum et omnia vasa argentea in quibus nobis ministrabitur ipsa die, cum residuo doleorum vini, sub barra, et multa alia que aures prudencium abhorrerent. Unde, ista vice, accessus noster ad Ecclesiam nostram Exoniensem aliquantulum est dilatus. Cicius, enim, pedes illuc accederemus, et de vasis ligneis vel vitreis comederemus, quam tales servitutes continuando aliqualiter approbaremus. Non, enim, videmus quin, quandocumque nobis libuerit, invisere possimus libere Sponsam nostram. Ad hoc, autem, ut scitis, indissolubiliter astricti sumus, prout per Apostolica Scripta recepimus in mandatis. Advertere, eciam, poterit vestra Discrecio circumspecta quod Episcopatus Exoniensis per duas jam vacaciones, sibi absque medio notabili succedentes, destructus et spoliatus est a suis Temporalibus adeo per Regales, quod per multa tempora non sufficiemus, eciam cum victu mediocri, Maneria restaurare, et nichilominus debitum ejusdem Ecclesie Exoniensis in Curia Romana, ad quod astricti sumus, non poterit aliquo subterfugio minui vel differri. Sane vota vestra ac precepta, in quantum persone vestre, salvo jure Ecclesie nostre et professione nostra, parati semper erimus pro viribus adimplere. Adaugeat vobis Deus successus prosperos et longevos!—Scripta in Manerio nostro de Chuddeleghe, xvj die mensis Augusti.

[3] There were antiently four Prebends in the Church within the Castle of Exeter. The Church itself was destroyed in 1792 ; but the Prebends remain, with the exception of Ashclyst, the revenues of which were alienated to Torre Abbey as long ago as 1238, and Hayes, which was despoiled at the time of the Reformation, though Prebendaries were instituted till 1591 ; Walter Herte, who was presented in that year by Queen Elizabeth, being the last. Institutions to the Prebend of Carswell have never been discontinued ; but the revenues, which were considerable, have long since passed into lay hands, and the Prebendary now receives only £2 13s. 4d. per annum. The Prebend of Cutton, referred to in this Licence, has enjoyed a better fate. The List of Incumbents is complete from 1260 to the present time. The Aclands (of Killerton) have presented since 1634 ; and the present Incumbent, Peter Leopold Dyke Acland Prebendary and Subdean of Exeter, was instituted in 1845. In 1863, by Order in Council, it became an integral part of the Benefice of Broadclyst (which is in the same Patronage and is, also, held by the Subdean), to be held and enjoyed by the Vicar thereof and his successors for ever. The Prebendal Manor is in the adjacent Parish of Poltimore, and consists of about 290 acres.

Eisdem die et loco, emanavit Mandatum Decano Christianitatis et Domino Mauricio, Rectori Ecclesie Sancti Laurencii, Exonie, sub hac forma,—Johannes, etc.—Sacrosanctam Matrem Ecclesiam, que nemini claudit gremium redeunti, non solum Patres Apostolici set eciam Romani Principes immunitate multiplici decorarunt, ut sicut ipsa, tanquam pia Mater, in sinu suo recolligit universos, ita singulos eciam reos sanguinis, ad ipsam confugientes, sub ipsius clamide ab hominum incursu protegit illesos. Hec, siquidem, prudenter attendens, quidam Johannes le Hennere per Ecclesiam de Alphyngtone, prope Exoniam, transitum faciens, ad ipsam Ecclesiam, de ejus immunitate confisus et proteccione, noviter confugit, ipsamque ingressus humiliter petiit ejus immunitate illesus protegi et defendi. Dominus, tamen, Willelmus de Chyverestone,[1] Miles, cum quibusdam suis in hac parte complicibus et fautoribus, Dei timore contempto et Ecclesie reverencia prorsus abjecta, ad ipsam Ecclesiam vi armata personaliter accedens, ipsum sic confugientem, invitum et fol. 61b. reclamantem, a dicta Ecclesia violenter abstraxit, abstrahive fecit, seu abstraccionem hujusmodi, suo nomine factam, ratam habuit pariter et acceptam ; ipsumque sic abstractum fecit carcerali custodie in Castro Exoniensi mancipari, et hucusque in carcere hujusmodi arcius detineri inclusum ; immunitatem Ecclesiasticam ex premissis temere violando. Que omnia et singula adeo sunt publica et notoria in Parochia dicte Ecclesie de Alphyngtone et Civitate Exonie, ac locis undique vicinis, quod inficiacioni probabili locus non existit. Propter que dictus Dominus Willelmus, Miles, ceterique sui complices et fautores hujusmodi, Sentenciam Majoris Excommunicacionis, tam a Canone quam Sacrosancte Sedis Apostolice Legatorum Constitucionibus, contra hujusmodi violatores proinde latam et pupplice promulgatam, noscuntur incurrisse. Nos, igitur, [quia] tanto prompcius circa premissa debite corrigenda oportet intendere quanto magis novimus hujusmodi temeritatis audaciam periculum importare ; ut quos Dei timor ab errore non revocat saltem coherceat severitas discipline ; vobis in virtute Obediencie firmiter injungimus et mandamus quatinus, ad ipsum Dominum Willelmum, Militem, qui in dicta Civitate et ejus continentibus edificiis cotidie se exhibet pupplice universis, absque dilacionis incommodo accedentes, ipsum coram Notario et testibus, auctoritate nostra, efficaciter inducere curetis et monere quatinus dictum confugientem, abstractum et incarceratum, a dicta carcerali custodia qua tenetur caucius liberatum, Ecclesie de Alphyngtone supradicte, a qua ipsum, ut premittitur, idem Miles noscitur abstraxisse, restituat indilate, ex tunc immunitate Ecclesiastica libere fruiturum. Ad hec, peremptorie citetis eundem Militem, et ejus complices et fautores—de quorum nominibus et personis per vos diligenter inquiri volumus et mandamus—quod sufficienter compareant coram nobis, seu nostris in hac parte Commissariis, uno vel pluribus, proximo die Juridico ante instans Festum Sancti Michaelis Archangeli [29 Sept.], ubicumque fuerimus in nostris Civitate vel Diocesi, nostram Pronunciacionem finalem seu Sentenciam diffinitivam, juxta hujusmodi facti notorii qualitatem et naturam, prout et quatenus de jure fuerit faciendum, audituri, et Penitenciam salutarem pro suis hujusmodi commissis recepturi ; facturi ulterius et recepturi quod justicia suadebit. Denunciantes eisdem quod, sive venerint sive non, in dicto negocio procedetur quatenus de jure fuerit procedendum.

Holy Orders ; Inhibicio ne quis accedat ad Ordines nisi in Quatuor Temporibus, et tunc nisi digni,— Quinto Kalendas Septembris [28 Aug.], emanavit, apud Chuddeleghe, omnibus Archidiaconis Mandatum, sub hac forma,—Johannes, etc.—Cum, secundum Sacros Canones, quos impune transgredi non licet, in cunctis Sacris Ordinibus et Ecclesiasticis Ministeriis, etatis maturitas, morum gravitas, et literarum sciencia requirantur, et in Magistrum assumi non debeat qui formam boni Discipuli non assumpsit ; nam quisquis esse doctor desiderat, ut possit docere quod didicit, debet ante esse discipulus. Omnis, enim, vite institucio hac ad id quo tendit se racione confirmat, quod qui minime Literis operam dederit preceptor Literarum non potest esse ; qui non per singula stipendia creverit ad meritum stipendii non potest ad Ordinem pervenire ; gradatim, namque, deferendi sunt honores, et casum appetit qui per abrupta querit ascensum. Sane clamor validus nuper ad nostrum deduxit auditum quod nonnulli nostre Diocesis subditi, preesse magis quam prodesse cupientes, etate, literatura, moribus, vel vita defectum pacientes, mediantibus Procerum Literis et precibus, vel—quod deterius est—fictis vel falsis titulis, non sine scripulo Symoniace pravitatis, que de prece eque ut de precio dependet, retroactis temporibus, a nostris Predecessoribus,[1] perpropere et nimis periculose, in onerosa multitudine nitebantur ad Ordines promoveri, dictos Predecessores nostros plus debito fatigando, ipsos inquietos reddendo, dignosque et habiles, ordinari volentes, per concursum multociens impediendo. Volentes, igitur, super hoc de congruo remedio providere, et animarum saluti subditorumque nostrorum et nostre quieti prospicere, ac hujusmodi ausibus temerariis obviare ; vobis, tenore Presencium, injungimus et mandamus quatinus, per publicum Inhibicionis edictum, in Capitulis et convocacionibus aliis Cleri vestri Archiaconatus, districcius ex parte nostra inhibeatis, prout tenore Presencium expresse inhibemus, sub pena Excommunicacionis Majoris, ne quis preces vel Literas pro Ordinibus suscipiendis per se vel alium impetret, seu impetrari procuret nobis vel nostris Clericis porrigendas ; set qui ydonei et digni fuerint, per quinque dies vel sex Sabatum celebrandorum Ordinum prevenientes, cum suis titulis sufficientibus, ad nostram accedant presenciam, examinacionem Canonicam subituri. Si quis, autem, contra hanc nostram Inhibicionem temere venire presumpserit, ut in eo puniatur quo deliquid (sic), a petito Ordine, ea vice, se noverit repellendum, ac nostram indignacionem incursurum. De die, vero, recepcionis Presencium et quid in premissis feceritis, nobis citra Festum Beati Mathei, Apostoli, proximo futurum [21 Sept.], per Literas vestras patentes, harum seriem continentes, dilucide rescribatis. Valete.—Data, etc.

fol. 62. Bodmin Priory ; Commissio super Rescripto Apostolico pro Thoma Hayswylle,— Quinto Kalendas Septembris [28 Aug.], apud Chuddeleghe, emanavit Commissio Officiali Archidiaconi Tottonie, sub hac forma,—Johannes, etc., Executor unicus ad providendum Thome de Hayswylle, pauperi presbitero, nostre Diocesis, de aliquo Ecclesiastico Beneficio, secundum sue probitatis merita, competenti, cum cura vel sine cura, consueto abolim Clericis

[1] The Bishop, I think, must have had in view the Ordination Lists which he found in the Register of Bishop Stapeldon, who at his first Ordination, at Crediton, in 1308, ordained, in a single day, no less than 1005 candidates—an onerosa multitudo indeed ! See Stapeldon's Register, page xiv (Preface), and pp. 446-456.

Johannes, etc., dilectis filiis, Decano et Capitulo Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, ac Vicariis et ceteris Ministris ministrantibus in eadem, salutem, graciam, et benedicciónem.—Ineffabilis Misericordie Matris beneficia toti humano generi, manu prompta, ab exordio Redempcionis nostre indesinenter exhibita, et perpetuo duratura, pre cordis oculis jugiter habentes, non inmemores quociens nos juverit, foverit, texerit, et apud Filium excusaverit, Sibique pie reconciliaverit; aliorum mentes ad ipsius amorem et famulatum alicere (sic) pariter ac accendere cupimus toto corde. Unde, ut experimur, nonnunquam velocius adest remedium ipsius quam Filii Nomine invocato; non, utique, quia ipsa melior est aut potencior quam Ipse; set, sicut accidere solet quod quis, predilecti amici proposito nomine, efficacius ab alio inpetrat quod reportare sua prece simplici non valebat, ita ejus Filius, Judex noster et Dominus, singulorum districte merita decernens, invocatus a nobis quandoque non exaudit; set, adhibito Matris Nomine—Maria, et si merita invocantis non sufficiunt, supplentibus invocate meritis, statim ad tribuendum quod petitur inclinatur. Si, itaque, tam utilis et necessaria est in subveniendo clamantibus memoria Matris Dei, non mirum si grandem afferat fructum ejus in Ecclesia cotidianum Officium mente sedula persolutum. [fol. 66b.] The Bishop's controversy with the Archdeacon of Canterbury; Litera missa Domino per Dominum Episcopum Wygorniensem[1],— Reverende Pater et amantissime Domine.—Affeccio amicicie specialis, quam ad vestram Paternitatem gerimus, nos inducit ut super hiis que vestrum respiciunt commodum et honorem vobis confidenter scribamus; pro certo tenentes quod, quanto vos specialiori affeccione prosequimur, et honoris vestri voto pleniori diligimus incrementa, tanto vehemenciori commocione turbamur cum audire contingit quod vestram quietem turbare poterit et amicos vestros contra vos multipliciter commovere. Sane, referente nobis Venerabili viro, Domino Hugone [de Engolisma], Archidiacono Cantuarie, qui sui gracia nobiscum per aliquos dies moram fecit, didicimus quod vos, conscienciam nimis habentes scrupulosam, consuetudinem laudabilem, qua singuli Episcopi Provincie Cantuariensis auctoritate Domini Archidiaconi Cantuarie, qui pro tempore fuerit, intronizari debent, et quedam bona eidem Archidiacono exhibere, voluntarie immutare (sic); inter alia in Literis vestris, quas inspeximus, allegantes quod, quandocumque vobis libuerit, invisere potestis libere Sponsam vestram, et ad hoc estis astricti, prout per Apostolica Scripta recepistis in mandatis; quod utique, [fol. 67.] Cantuariensi Archidiacono inconsulto, cui Mandatum Apostolicum quod recepistis non derogat, in primo adventu vestro ad Ecclesiam Exoniensem, vobis credimus non licere. Hinc est quod vestre Paternitati bona fide consulimus et vobis humiliter supplicamus quatinus, circumspectis consideracionibus attendentes quod consuetudinis predicte, per omnes Episcopos Cantuariensis Provincie qui vos precesserunt, a tempore cujus contrarii memoria non existit, hactenus approbate, non est levis auctoritas, et mater discordie novitas sapientibus sit exosa, vos Intronizacionis vestre negocio, deposito cujuslibet singularitatis vicio, viros gloriosos, Patres nostros, mortuos et vivos, in hoc casu dignemini imitari, et vos ipsorum studiis laudabilibus conformare, postpositis persuasionibus in dictis vestris contentis Literis, quas cuicumque sano intellectui de facili solubiles, ne dicamus frivolas et supervacuas, reputamus. Licet, enim, Commissarius dicti Domini Archidiaconi forsitan predixerit et prescripserit aliqua sibi debita ex consuetudine memorata, non tamen pro Intronizacione, quod Canones prohibent, exiguntur; set hoc casu et similibus sine difficultate debent prestari ab illis qui ad hoc per consuetudinem laudabilem sunt astricti. Ceterum, quia hec causa, quantum ad famam vestram, plus habet oneris quam honoris, plus detraccionis quam laudis, ni fallimur, decet et expedit quod magis in ea vincamini succumbendo quam fama vestra succumbat vincendo, licet contra prefatam consuetudinem non credamus vos posse quomodolibet prevalere. In omni prosperitate vos[2] conservet Altissimus ad regimen Ecclesie Sue Sancte!—Scripta sub nostro privato sigillo, apud Beaumes[3], iij[a] die mensis Septembris.

[fol. 66b]. Litera missa Domino per Magistrum H. de Engolisma,—

Reverendo Patri in Christo, Domino Johanni, Dei gracia Episcopo Exoniensi, Hugo de Engolisma, Archidiaconus Cantuarie, salutem, cum omni promptitudine tam reverencie quam honoris.—Reverende Pater,—Notificato per vos michi quod volebatis intronizari in Festo Assumpcionis Beate Marie proximo preterito [15 Aug.], misi ad vos certum ad hoc Commissarium

Vol. II. Archidiaconatus hoc vellem ; quia, tamen, vos reputavi, et adhuc, si placet, reputo Dominum specialem, volui, et sibi injunxi, sicque Reverencie vestre scripsi, quod, predicta sibi primo tradita vobis, de speciali gracia, retraderet, inde facturus pro vestre libito voluntatis. Ita quod non video qualiter circa fratrem meum si esset, in casu simili, possem liberalius processisse. Nunc, autem, Domine, percipio quod vos noluistis intronizari per dictum Commissarium meum, nec reddere res predictas. Percepi eciam, per vestras Literas, de quo non sufficio admirari, vos inniti, super hoc, juribus que velle asseritis vos ad talia non teneri ; et quedam alia subjungitis eisdem, vestris Literis comprehensa, que in nullo, salva vestri Reverencia, in hac parte prejudicant intencioni mee vel juri. Rogo, itaque, venerandam Circumspeccionem vestram,—tanquam ille qui vellem, quantum esset possibile, vestrum honorem in omnibus, et amiciciam quam michi vestri gracia ostendistis, retinere pariter et augere, et si quod esset devium, quod absit, omnimodis amputare,—quatinus diligenter considerare velitis jura que dicunt quod in talibus et multis similibus quis debet cogi ad laudabilem consuetudinem observandam, et quod oportet quod homo continuet jura vel servitutes que consueta sunt laudabiliter exhiberi ; nec licitum est cuiquam, in istis vel similibus, quasi jus sibi dicat, vel alias aliquem spoliare sua possessione, vel quasi ; et quod Archidiaconi consueverunt intronisare et predicta recipere, sive intronizandi fuerint consecrati Auctoritate Apostolica seu Metropolitana,—esto quod nichil sui principii ab Ecclesia Cantuariensi habuerint; cum hoc Archidiaconatus habeat jure suo, separato a juribus que debentur Cantuariensi Ecclesie vel Metropolitano in casu Consecracionis inde suscepte ; et jam ego per Commissarium intronizavi duos tales, videlicet Dominos Wygorniensem et Herefordensem Episcopos, qui michi res et jura predicta, consuetudinem laudabilem observando, liberaliter reddiderunt ; et quod nunquam alias fuit Archidiaconus Cantuarie in talibus impeditus per aliquem de Suffraganeis Cantuariensis Provincie, inter quos tot excellentes vestra reverenda Prudencia novit esse, et ante ista tempora precessisse ; et, istiset aliis, decentibus tantum Dominum et tam prudentem, consideratis et[1] attentis, si placet tantam novitatem incipere contra me, qui sum vester ; quia nostis quod melius esset michi me Archidiaconum nunquam esse, quam si jure tam evidenti et tanto honore Archidiaconatus per meam necgligenciam laberetur. Unde, si in prefata novitate velitis intendere, quod non credo nec vellem, cogar invitus jus Archidiaconatus non relinquere indefensum. Vos, autem, carissime Domine mi, semper, tanquam vestro, michi potestis precipere confidenter, parato vobis obsequi quamdiu vivam, si placet, sine mei juris intolerabili lesione. Tavistock Abbey; Responsio [fatui] Abbatis de Tavistochia ad Literas sibi missas per Dominum ——[Iste Abbas, qui dicebatur bonus, erat pessimus quasi hereticus],[1]

Domine mi,—Vidimus vestras Literas, et primo respondemus ad primum continens in eisdem, quod Recepcio Monachorum et Tonsoracio ad Nos solum et Conventui nostri Monasterii pertinet de consuetudine et de jure. Unde, si aliquos Monachos induimus consensu unanimi, nulli in hoc casu, et specialiter ubi necessitas imminebat, credimus prejudicium generari[2]. Nec, Pater, salva vestra Dominacione et Reverencia, de hoc non debet vester animus perturbari. Nam, si recolimus, primum Mandatum de non Tonsorando quod nobis fecistis, in Manerio vestro de Chuddeleghe, in presencia plurium, vestri gracia revocastis. Et ultra hoc, in Exonia, in Camera vestra, die Solempnitatis vestre, dum Licenciam recedendi a vobis optinuimus, vobis supplicavimus in hunc modum; videlicet, quod placeret vobis quod indueremus et Tonsoraremus dictos receptos ad hoc, ut non inveniretis Chorum vacuum dum veniretis; tunc Paternitas vestra nobis sic respondit: Placet nobis; faciatis quid vultis. Quare, Domine, non sufficimus admirari de displicencia vestra si eos induerimus, a vobis, primo, Revocacione et Licencia preoptentis. Super quibus et aliis si in aliquo defecimus contra vos, quod non credimus, vobis admittere placeat excusaciones nostras, et ab omni illacione gravaminum contra nos, qui vestri sumus, si placet, superno intuitu justicie abstinere; scitis, enim, Pater, quod tanti vobis valere possumus quam forte aliqui qui personam vestram contra nos excitant cum mendaciis desperatis, et melius de bonis nostris velle vestrum conplere poteritis, et de nostro servicio, quam illorum qui contra nos, licet sine culpa, student vobis continue complacere. Verum, Pater, significamus vobis, quod hiis diebus per Conventum nostrum audivimus, quod consuevit esse nostrum Monasterium totaliter exemptum et ab omni Jurisdiccione Episcopali fuisse inmune, quare, etc. Nichilominus, Pater, in omnibus Canonicis et a jure permissis, sine nostri Monasterii prejudicio et Ecclesie Romane, parati sumus vobis pro viribus obedire. Bona vita sit vobis et longa sanitas!—Scripta apud Tavystoke, vij Idus Septembris [7 Sept.].

[1] A similar List, Mr. Baigent tells me, occurs on a fly-leaf of the Register of Adam de Orleton, Bp. of Winchester. A careful collation of the names has convinced him that this was written after 20 Sept., 1342, and before the deaths of the two Cardinals who died in 1343 (Andreas de Florencia, 2 June; Bertrandus "olim Generalis Minister Predicatorum, Tituli Sancte Sabine, 23 Sept.) were known to the compiler. Our List must have been written a little later; for the last two Entries refer to the Creation of Cardinals (two only) on 27 Feb., 1343-4. The news, therefore, had reached our compiler, but not the particulars; so he left the Entries to be completed later on, which was never done.

[fol. 21b.] Decretum Visitacionis Cathedralis Ecclesie,—

Johannes, miseracione Divina Exoniensis Episcopus, dilectis in Christo filiis, Decano et Capitulo Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, salutem, graciam, et benediccionem.—Visitatis per nos dudum personaliter Ecclesia et Capitulo nostris Exonie, prout ex ordinario nobis incumbebat Officio, inter cetera quedam sunt detecta communia; quedam autem, personalia delicta sunt merito corrigenda. Sane, quam sit Ecclesie perniciosa et Divine Majestati offensiva bonarum ac racionabilium transgressio Consuetudinum a Sanctis Patribus olim inductarum, non modo Divina vel humana clamant jura, verum eciam tocius agnicionis mater experiencia manifestat. Ea sibi que ad Divinum in eadem spectant Officium et ejusdem Ecclesie honorem ac salutem respiciunt animarum, hactenus per adinvenciones oberrata novellas, seu forsan necgligenter in aliquo pretermissa, ad antiquas, sacras, racionabiles, et approbatas Consuetudines, pro viribus, Deo juvante, reducere corditer affectamus; ut sic, nostro tempore, Divina favente gracia, tam ipsi Ecclesie nostre, quam Personis in eadem Omnipotenti Deo ministrantibus, emendacionis ad presens materiam posterisque memoriam tribuamus. Set, quia humana infirmitas, ad deteriora solito magis procliva, vix aut nuncquam ad meliora induci se patitur, nisi aliquo coaccionis stimulo compellatur, nos quedam hac vice comperta, sub certis corrigenda Censuris, Presentibus duximus inserenda.

j. Primo, videlicet, quod nonnulli Canonici, pro lucro temporali, ut mercenarii —utinam non latrunculi!—ficte ac mendaciter residentes, qui Horis Canonicis, nocturnis pariter et diurnis, personaliter interesse, Divinaque juxta vices suas celebrare, nisi impedimento interveniente legitimo, tenerentur, se presencialiter absentes subducere presumunt, alii privatis commodis, alii avibus canibusque venaticis, plusquam Divino Officio vel fraterno solacio intendentes, parum aut nichil de Clericali Milicia pretendentes. Et, licet raro ac tarde Ecclesiam vel Chorum forsitan ingrediantur, illicitis quidam confabulacionibus et murmuracionibus, tam Canonici quam ceteri inferiores Ministri, Divina reverencia ac Ordinis Clericalis abjecta modestia, dum offerre Deo Sacrificium Laudis labiorumque suorum vitulos in puritate consciencie et animi devocione deberent, Horas Canonicas susurrando transcurrunt, colloquia vana et inutilia inmiscendo, ante finem quandoque Officii recedentes.

ij. Nonnulli, eciam, Canonici hospitalitatem prout eis incumbit, ac pauperum Christi, quorum administratores fore dinoscuntur, indigencias necgligentes, dum ea, tamen, que sua sunt, non que Jhesu Christi, querunt, laqueos diaboli dampnabiliter illabuntur.

iij. Aliqui, vero, Canonici panem et cotidianas distribuciones quadraginta sex dierum et dividendam tocius quarterii recipiunt, qui in ipso quarterio rarissime in Civitate Exoniensi pernoctant, seu in domo vel mensa propria comedunt in eadem; quas refecciones ita latenter et intempestive recipiunt, iiij. Ex quibus omnibus Cultus Divinus ac devocio populi minuitur, honor Ecclesie subtrahitur, et plurimorum scandalum generatur.

A.D. 1328. Vol. II. quod nec Ministri Ecclesie nec pueri Chori, qui aliunde victum sufficientem quam Mensam Canonicorum non optinent, nec alii Concanonici sui ex hoc aliquod senciunt relevamen.

Premissa sibi ad examen debite consideracionis reducentes, et ea sub dissimulacionis clamide pertransire non valentes incorrecta, tenore Presencium monemus, semel, secundo, et tercio ac peremptorie, et per vos, Dominum Decanum, ex habundanti, nominatim et Canonice, nichilominus moneri Nota. volumus, et sub Canonice Obediencie debito, firmiter injungendo, mandamus omnes et singulos ejusdem Ecclesie nostre Canonicos, qui cotidianas et alias distribuciones hujusmodi, solis vere residentibus et Divinis, nocturnis pariter et diurnis, Officiis, ac defunctorum exequiis vel Obitibus interessentibus, ut premittitur, debitas, deinceps percipere voluerint et habere, quatinus in Officiis hujusmodi presencialiter intersint et sine fraude ; ne in Divinis oculis furtum, quin pocius sacrilegium, aliena sibi nequiter applicando, committant. Quo ad Canonicos Civitatem ex veris et honestis causis, vel ex nostra speciali Licencia exeuntes, et ipsam Civitatem postmodum hora competenti intrantes, vel Senescallorum Scaccarii privilegia, consuetudines, et statuta, racionabiliter hactenus usitata, per premissa Nota. quicquam non intendimus inmutare.—Illi, eciam, qui jam sunt in Sacerdocio [fol. 22.] constituti, in Missa Majoris Altaris, et aliis Ecclesie ejusdem Horis Canonicis, suis ordinibus, temporibus, et vicibus ministrent debite pariter et devote. Et, ut premissa facilius a singulis subportentur, Canonici in inferioribus Ordinibus constituti, [qui] quotidianas distribuciones predictas amodo percipere voluerint, vel intendunt a tempore Monicionis hujusmodi, nisi Canonicum impedimentum ac causa racionabilis, vel de Licencia sui Superioris, prout in Statuto a ficilis[1] memorie Domino Waltero,[2] quondam Exoniensi Episcopo, Predecessore nostro, de consensu Capituli ejusdem, dudum edito, et a Venerando Patre Domino Octobono, Sancti Adriani Nota Octobonum. Diacono Cardinali, Sedis Apostolice tunc Legato in Anglia, confirmato, plenius vidimus contineri, infra annum, sub pena juris, se faciant ad Sacerdocium promoveri.—Vicarii, eciam, omnes et singuli, Horis Canonicis, Nota de Vicariis. nocturnis pariter et diurnis, intersint, prout in Consuetudinario antiquo et Statutis Predecessorum nostrorum plenius continetur, sub penis contentis in ipsis. Illi, vero, Vicarii qui panem percipiunt ad celebrandum pro animabus defunctorum onera eis ea occasione incumbencia fideliter subeant et agnoscant, vel eis statim alii subrogentur. Necnon tabernas et alias insolencias quaslibet evitent, que Ecclesiasticam contaminant honestatem, prout Divinam ac Canonicam vitare voluerint ulcionem.—De Libris, vero, Nota de Usu Sarum. qui in predicta Visitacione defectivi reperiuntur provideatur Ecclesie, et maximo de certo et sufficienti Ordinali ac Consuetudinario, in quibus discrepant ab Usu Sarum vel aliarum Ecclesiarum, necnon de Collectario correspondente ; qui remittantur ad nos ad examinandum, corrigendum, et approbandum, citra Festum Nativitatis Beati Johannis Baptiste [24 June]. —Premissis, insuper, adiciendo, modo premisso monemus, et moneri volumus, omnes et singulos dicte Ecclesie nostre Canonicos et Ministros quatinus in Choro psalmodizando, in medio et fine versuum, interposito quodam vocis silencio, uniformem magis solito faciant pausacionem. In Antiphonis, quoque, Ymnis, et Responsoriis, ita conformiter cantare, et,

Illa, videlicet, quorum reparacionem usque Festum Natalis Beati Johannis Baptiste proximo futurum prorogavimus, sub pena decem librarum, in Fabricam Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis predicte convertendarum, vobis injungimus et mandamus; decernentes quod solida pena committatur si defeceritis in aliquo eorundem, et quod extunc reparacio, ordinacio, et emendacio propter vestram negligenciam ad nos extunc devolvatur, vestris sumptibus facienda. [1] John de Malstone was Rector of Portlemouth, which is very near Charleton, and, therefore, conveniently situated for the purpose of this Commission. Why he is called Rector of "Wynsdone" I cannot imagine; probably, by a clerical error. See under Cowick Priory (infra), fol. 108, where John de Kylwer is called "de Wynnesdone." I cannot identify this place. Malstone is in the Parish of Sherford, which adjoins Charleton.

Gravamina proponenda in Concilio,—

Conqueritur Clerus Exoniensis Diocesis—

Quod, cum nativi quorumcumque Dominorum ejusdem Diocesis libere consueverunt habere Testamenti faccionem, eorum, tamen, Domini ipsos fol.106b. testari libere non permittunt, contra Libertates Ecclesiasticas et antiquam Consuetudinem diucius approbatas.

Item, Judices Seculares ejusdem Diocesis in Causis mere Spiritualibus cognicionem sibi usurpant; et, quod deterius est, per secularem potenciam viros trahunt Ecclesiasticos in Causis quarum cognicio, tam racione rerum quam personarum, ad Forum Ecclesiasticum notorie dinoscitur pertinere.

Item, licet Appellacionis remedium non sit ad defensionem iniquitatis set ad presidium innocencie institutum, nonnulli, tamen, ejusdem Diocesis subditi incorrigibiles a correccionibus licitis et Canonicis ac aliis, a quibus de jure non foret appellandum, ad Curiam Cantuariensem indifferenter appellantes retroactis temporibus, a dicte Curie Presidentibus, de facili et nimis voluntarie, Inhibiciones in hac parte sibi concedi obtinuerunt, correccionem Ecclesiasticam taliter eludendo, et in suis nequiciis ac rebellionibus, sicut prius, perseverando, animo pertinaciter indurato.

Super quibus Paternitati vestre reverende supplicat Exoniensis Episcopus, et dictus Clerus, studio et deliberacione hujusmodi instantis Concilii sibi de congruo remedio provideri.

Epistola Privata missa Domino Cantuariensi,—

Reverendo in Christo Patri ac Domino, Domino Symoni, Dei gracia Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, Tocius Anglie Primati, suus humilis et devotus, Johannes, ejusdem miseracione Exoniensis Episcopus, obedienciam [et] reverenciam tanto Patri tam debitam quam devotam.—Reverende Dominacionis ac dilecte Paternitatis vestre Mandatum, michi nuper, sicut ceteris Dominis et Confratribus vestris, Provincie vestre Coepiscopis, per Literas Venerabilis Patris, Domini Stephani, Dei gracia Londoniensis Episcopi, directum, de interessendo personaliter, una cum eisdem Confratribus, Sanctissimo Concilio vestro, Londoniis, die Veneris proxima post instans Festum Conversionis Sancti Pauli [27 Jan.] celebrando, suscepi xxij° die mensis Decembris, cum prona reverencia et devota. Cujus tenore Mandati juxta parvitatem meam, non absque cordis suspirio, plenius intellecto, vehementer animo sauciatus extiti non mediocrius consternatus. Dolui, quidem, et doleo, non inmerito, quod non possum juxta votum ad presens vestrum implere Mandatum absque dispendiis et periculis inhumanis. Concucior, vero, stupore nimio, ultra quam verbis explicari posset, ut cum

A.D. 1328-9. Vol. II. Gracia vestra confidencius loquar, qualiter Locus ille, stante rerum deordinacione moderna, pro Cleri aut Regni reformacione, aliave utilitate Ecclesie sit electus. Et revera, Pater, licet alii Domini et Patres mei, qualiter viderint ipsi; ego, tamen, quantum sapio, illinc honeste accedere nequeo, neque tute. Novit, enim, occulata prudencia vestra quod populus ille, Deo et Ecclesie gravis, in tantam, non est diu, et tam atrocem contra personas Ecclesiasticas seviendo prorupit insaniam, ut sese pariter et locum, quod auditu est horrendum, Pontificali sanguine macularet: cujus adhuc clamor de terra in auribus Domini Sabaoth, vindictam petens, cotidie invalescit; statimque post, in augmentum perpetrati sceleris, a quibusdam Prelatis pro inpunitate, si fieri posset, commisse nequicie, metu mortis juramentum, perverso juris ordine ac nature, ab Episcopis laici, a Patribus degeneres filii, nequiter extorserunt; ut sic Prelati, timore prestiti sacramenti, ad ulcionem primi sceleris commissi procedere non auderent. Que duo supreme (sic) mala simul intueri diligenter volentibus sole clarius constat quod, in occisione Presulis Civium Majorum auctoritas vulgo ministrabat audaciam, et in extorsione sacramenti Potenciores ipsos supportabat nepharie plebis indomita multitudo. Et sic omnes, ut a nonnullis creditur mundi pericioribus, chaos uno culpe et anathematis includuntur. Set, ne hoc ex proprio capite inconsulte vel temerarie sentire redarguar; si quis optaverit plenius agnoscere veritatem, Beati Augustini Doctoris precipui expressam sentenciam de materia per omnia simili audiat et attendat. Ait, namque, in Epistola quadam, versus finem, ad Nectarium Episcopum,[1] querentem et deposcentem de persecucione in Civitate Calamensis colonie, tam Clero quam Episcopo illata, ut, si quo modo excusari vel defendi res posset, et ab innocentibus molestia separari; accipe, inquit, breviter que commissa sunt, et noxios ab innocentibus ipse decerne. Et deinceps sentencium infert ita,—Nemo compescere, nemo subvenire temptavit illorum quorum posset esse gravis auctoritas, preter unum, qui multos impedivit;[2] per quem clarum factum est quam facile illa vel omnino non fierent, vel cepta desisterent, si cives, maximeque Primates, ea fieri perficique vetuissent. Proinde in universa illa Civitate non innocentes a nocentibus, set minus nocentes a nocencioribus poteris fortasse discernere. Scelerati, inquid, omnes, quibus etsi non facientibus, neque inmittentibus, alias inmitentibus, tamen volentibus ista commissa sunt; sceleraciores qui commiserunt; sceleratissimi qui inmiserunt. Hec ibidem et plura ad propositum Augustinus. Ad hec, eciam, Reverende Pater, si id quod ipsi Londonienses ficte fatentur veritatem habere supponamus; quod, scilicet, in perempcione Predecessoris mei nepharia Potenciores Civium non poterant vulgi cohibere demenciam; consequenter sequitur illuc nullatenus esse conveniendum ad tractanda Ecclesiastica judicia ubi dominatur potens insania fatuorum. Sane, Pater reverende, donec contrarium liqueat, tenebunt omnes quod eis placuerit. Ego pro firmo aliud sentire nequeo nisi quod in civibus illis eadem ad nocendum unanimitas adhuc manet.
fol. 107. Et, si hoc, quid eos aliud moliri et cogitare conjici potest, nisi vos et subjectum vobis Clerum, in potestate tenebrarum, quod absit, infra urbis menia coartatos, ad simile priori juramentum, aliudve quicquam, enormis mortis timore, pro libito compescere, et contradicentes in ore gladii trucidare? Quod si, Deo prohibente, ut supplico, non contingat, pocius est Divine clemencie quam eorum malicie ascribendum. Si, enim, pronum est ad malum omne genus mortalium, quanto magis illi quos inimicus ipse pro libito ducit anathemate vinctos, et a Christi gracia separatos. Item, Reverende Pater, si inter eos vix adhuc audeat quis de quacumque re loqui, nisi totus sermo complacenciis adornetur, aut necis statim mine inserantur,

A.D 1328-9. Vol. II. qua securitate illuc accersiri tute possint qui non solum culpe correpcionem ore proferre debeant, verum eciam pro tanto commisso penam infligere corporalem? Scio, Pater, et vere scio, quod tandem Angelum Dei Excercituum in chamo et freno maxillas eorum constringere oportebit; set qui, equo lascivienti frenum volens inponere, dorsum non frenati primo presumit ascendere, nonne salutem contempnit propriam, equi seu muli, quibus non est intellectus, lascivie se committens? Immo plane magis ergo, ut michi videor, donec frenum talibus inponatur, secus nobis standum est et solide terre securitati liberis pedibus innitendum. Hec, autem, Pater mi reverende, non idcirco scripserim, quasi doctos indoctissimus, aut Magistros discipulus, credam, quod absit, in aliquo edocere; set, ubi meum adeo magis quam ceterorum formidem imminere periculum, si de modo et circumstanciis hujusmodi rei diligenter inquiram, aliis forsan jam notis, mihi, tamen, adhuc incognitis, vestram, ut spero, justiciam non offendam. Demum, Reverende Pater et Domine, licet, pensatis modo dierum brevitate, aquarum inundacione, itinerumque tenacitate profundissima, ac mocionis Regni clade terrifica, quantum video reliqua que supra posui, non adventum hac vice meum, qui aliis remocior sum, possent in genere probabiliter excusare; restant, tamen, alia quedam specialia, ut de secrecioribus taceam, que me personaliter illuc accedere non permittunt. Primo, quidem, quia Londoniis est notorium, et vestram credo venerabilem non latere periciam, quod Dominus noster Summus Pontifex Inquisicionem de morte dicti Predecessoris mei alicui se promisit committere Prelatorum; creduntque nonnulli, ut tacite loquar, quod michi forsitan est commissum; et propter hoc tanto me periculo gratis exponendo Dominum Deum meum non temptabo, ut in manus eorum incidam mea sponte. Et preter hec, Reverende Pater et Domine, sine culpa mea Hospicium meum Londoniis, ut nostis, adeo per eosdem interius est destructum, disclusum, et per particulas asportatum, quod honestius forte tuciusque crederem me in memoris[1] solitudine pernoctare. Moneant, ergo, si placet, mee racionuncule tales quales predicte paterne viscera pietatis, ne quid in hiis estimet vel arguat contra me vestra karitas ad contemptum; cum, teste Deo ac consciencia, ad hoc vehementer inardescat animus ut vestre possim visionis et allocucionis interna dulcedine relevari; et hoc multo magis in quiete seorsum quam alias in strepitu populari. Dignetur, eciam, si placet, Bonitas vestra Decanum Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis de personali compariciione recipere excusatum. Credit, enim, quod quedam pretactis similia eum merito debeant excusare. Ad egrotantis Regni Anglie medelam, et Ecclesie levamen ac regimen, adaugeat vobis Deus successus prosperos et longevos!—Data apud Chuddeleghe, xix° die mensis Januarii.—Ista, si placet, Reverende Pater, cedula, propter malignancium pericula, non nisi Confratribus, si tantum oporteat, ostendatur.

Excusaciones Domini a personali compariciione, in Concilio proponende,—Dominus Exoniensis non satis potest comparere tute nec honeste quoquo modo. Tute, quidem, quia, si interesset, ipsum ex debito oporteret prosequi, quantum ad ipsum singularius spectat, ad Canonicam vindictam vel correccionem sceleris in Predecessorem suum Episcopum perpetrati. Honeste, quia non deceret ipsum interesse et dictum facinus sub silencio preterire.

Epistola missa Dominis Londoniensi, Wygorniensi, et Wyntoniensi,—Venerabili in Christo Patri, etc., salutem, et seipsum indissolubili caritatis vinculo convinciri.—Quia, Reverende Pater et Domine, de personaliter veniendo ad hoc instans Concilium, in Loco prefixo, cause urgentes legitime et necessarie nos retrahunt, non voluntarie, quidem, set invite, quas Reverendo Patri nostro, Domino Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, pro excusacione nostra, literatorie intimamus, prout Presencium ostensor vestre posset

Vol. II. exprimere Caritati; si, tamen, tempus audiendi negocia vobis concederent alciora, Dominacioni vestre preces agimus affectivas quatinus, excusaciones illas, quatenus ad vos attinet, si placet, approbantes, amicabilis eciam instancie vires pro nobis, licet inmeritis, ulterius apponatis, que penes eundem Reverendum Patrem, hac vice tantum et pro loco illo, placide valeant acceptari; scientes quod in tam excellenti negocio, ubi tot et tantorum Patrum inesse teneremur consorcio, unus numero, etsi non merito, multum honori nostro subtrahi reputamus, dum procul in ultimis finibus cogimur elongari. Predilecte Dominacionis vestre jussis parati semper erimus, pro viribus, adimplendis. Ad Ecclesie Dei vestrumque profectum et meritum diucius valeat vestra Paternitas reverenda!—Scripta in Manerio nostro de Chuddeleghe, xix° die mensis Januarii.

Et, quia totaliter ibi pater abesse non creditur ubi gratus filius invenitur, paterna vos affeccione rogamus quatinus, intellectis excusacionum nostrarum racionibus, ipsas adeo apud dictum Dominum nostrum vestra conetur industria roborare ne nos injuste ipsius indignacionem incurramus. Satagat, eciam, rogamus, vestra devocio circumspecta ne, in casibus anime salutem mere tangentibus, Inhibiciones a Curia, cui vos presidetis, emanent, cum, absque Pastorum fructu vel commodo salutari, nimium egre sint Gregi et subditis onerose. Ceterum noveritis quod sponte, non requisitus, antequam certitudinaliter innotesceret vacacio Ecclesie de Laherne,[1] quam Dominus Robertus de Tautone tenebat, Johannes de Arundelle nobis promisit quod, cum vacaret illa Sancte Felicitatis,[2] quam frater suus, Dominus Radulphus, tenet per assecucionem, si fieri posset, illius de Laherne, quam preoptat, se presentare (sic) unum de nostris pro libito voluntatis; set modo, postquam mater racione dotis, ut scitis, filium ad illam de Laherne presentavit, idem Johannes, variabilis et inconstans, ut assolet, premissa dissimulat adimplere. Et, tamen, credimus quod Dominus Radulphus sufficiens (sic) titulum non habeat in prima, ex racionibus que melius nobis nostis. Habet, tamen, Literas Inquisicionis a diu est; set nondum est Certificatorium reportatum. Miramur quod Dominus Archiepiscopus quibusdam in nostris Partibus notificavit Intronizacionem suam, per suas Literas, et non nobis. Item, misit quasdam Literas mirabiles, ut videtur, Priorisse et Conventui de Polslo,[3] et vere non deceret quod amodo tales mitteret aliis nostris Conventibus Religiosis; quia nec ego, qui inmediatus sum, facere volui ex causa. Ista, tamen, sunt secreta, nisi sibi soli; quia non credimus quod omnino processerint a seipso.—Data in Manerio nostro de Chuddeleghe, ut supra, etc.

[fol. 1.] Mevagissey; Appropriacio Ecclesie de Lamoreke, facta Ecclesie Collegiate de Glasneya,—

Universis Sancte Matris Ecclesie filiis presentes Literas inspecturis, Johannes, etc., salutem in Domino sempiternam.—Accedens ad presenciam nostram Nobilis Vir, Dominus Oto de Bodrigan, Miles,[3] nostre Diocesis, sua nobis humili insinuacione monstravit quod, licet Ecclesia Collegiata Beati Thome, Martiris, de Glasneya, dicte nostre Diocesis, pro certo numero Canonicorum et Ministrorum fundata extiterit, ipsorum, tamen, numerus non est tantus qui sufficiet ad Divinum Officium in ea, ut deceret, utiliter et honorabiliter peragendum, et precipue pro Missis matutinalibus, ad devocionem itinerare volencium vel aliis horis Missas audire non valencium, in eadem Ecclesia celebrandis. Quare nobis supplicavit quatinus Ecclesiam de Lamoreke, dicte nostre Exoniensis Diocesis, cujus Ecclesie idem Miles est verus Patronus, Venerabilibus Viris, Preposito et Capitulo Ecclesie de Glasneya supradicte, pro augmentando numero Ministrorum ipsius et Missis matutinalibus celebrandis in eadem, appropriare et fructus et redditus et proventus dicte Ecclesie de Lamoreke eisdem Preposito et Canonicis in proprios usus concedere et assignare Canonice curaremus; presertim cum fructus, redditus, et proventus Ecclesie de Glasneya adeo sint tenues et exiles quod, ultra victum necessarium Ministrorum nunc existencium in eadem, ad premissa onera, vel aliqua alia, ordinaria vel extraordinaria, non sufficiunt in presenti, et minus sufficere in futurum verisimiliter formidetur. Nos, igitur, piam devocionem dicti Militis commendantes, et ad rectam intencionem suam nostrum intuitum dirigentes, ac volentes, servato juris ordine qui in hac parte requiritur, pia vota prefati Militis pro viribus adimplere; cum discretis viris, Decano et Capitulo Ecclesie nostre Exoniensis, propter hoc specialiter convocatis, necnon cum Preposito et Capitulo dicte Ecclesie de Glasneya, [et] cum Domino Thoma, Rectore Ecclesie de Lamoreke

Vol. II. habere curavimus diligentem, vocatis ad hoc omnibus quorum interfuit in hac parte. Et, quia invenimus, in tractatu, inquisicione, et cause cognicione predictis, premissas causas per prefatum Militem nobis suggestas veritate fulciri; advertentes, eciam, utilitatem evidentem dicte Ecclesie et augmentum Cultus Divini in hac parte versari; prefatam Ecclesiam de Lamoreke, de consensu expresso et unanimi dictorum Decani et Capituli Ecclesie Exoniensis, Prepositi et Capituli dicte Ecclesie de Glasneya, predicti Rectoris, necnon prefati Militis, pronunciavimus et decrevimus predictis Preposito et Capitulo de Glasneya in proprios usus fore Canonice assignandam; ipsamque Ecclesiam de Lamoreke, cum suis juribus et pertinenciis universis, fructus, redditus, et proventus ipsius Ecclesie de Lamoreke, prefate Ecclesie de Glasneya Preposito et Capitulo appropriamus, ac fructus, redditus, et proventus dicte Ecclesie de Lamoreke in usus proprios dictorum Prepositi et Capituli, juxta moderacionem et taxacionem nostram infrascriptam convertendos, concedimus et Canonice assignamus. Ita quod, cedente vel decedente Rectore dicte Ecclesie de Lamoreke, liceat dictis Preposito et Capitulo ipsam Ecclesiam intrare, et, absque consensu nostro vel Successorum nostrorum, ipsam Canonice possidere, ipsiusque fructus, redditus, et proventus in usus proprios retinere, secundum formam et modum subscriptos. Ita, videlicet, quod, cum Ecclesie prefate de Lamoreke fructus, redditus, et proventus ad summam viginti quinque marcarum et octo solidorum, omnibus annis, secundum verum valorem, ascendant, volumus et ordinamus quod prefati Prepositus et Capitulum habeant et teneant in proprios usus glebam ejusdem Ecclesie, et percipiant de fructibus, redditibus, et proventibus ejusdem Ecclesie omnes majores decimas de Treflunen; item, omnes majores decimas de duabus Tresgaseks[1]; item, omnes majores decimas de Pentewyn[2] cum suis pertinenciis; item, omnes majores decimas de Tregeski Woels[3] et Northe Pentewyn; item, omnes majores decimas de Tregeski Wartha[3], et omnes majores decimas de Treweny[4]; quas, quidem, majores decimas ad tresdecim marcas sterlingorum annuas ad minus ascendere verisimiliter opinamur; una cum omnibus aliis emolumentis que de supradictis decimis majoribus eisdem poterunt prevenire,[5] pro omnibus infrascriptis supportandis: videlicet, quod prefati Prepositus et Capitulum, et eorum successores, imperpetuum invenient unum Vicarium, presbiterum, quem idem Dominus Oto et sui heredes prefatis Preposito et Capitulo, nunc et inposterum, quociens vacaverit presentabunt; ac dicti Prepositus et Capitulum, et eorum successores, ipsum ad Presentacionem hujusmodi admittere tenebuntur, absque difficultate, si ydoneus repertus fuerit, ultra numerum in eadem Ecclesia consuetum, habitum Vicariorum ejusdem Ecclesie Glasneye deferentem, et cum aliis Vicariis ejusdem Ecclesie, Matutinis exceptis, Chorum sequentem; qui, singulis diebus, in aurora, in Altari quod nuncupatur Altare de Bodrigan, ubi corpus matris dicti Militis quiescit humatum, celebrabit unam Missam pro animabus patris, matris, et parentum ejusdem Militis, et pro salubri statu ejusdem, dum vixerit; necnon, pro anima sua et heredum suorum, postquam migraverint ab hac luce; et quod in Missa Beate Virginis, exceptis Majoribus Duplicibus Festis, vel in Missa Capitulari in ipsa Ecclesia de Glasneya celebranda pro salubri statu dicti Militis dum vixerit, et pro anima sua post ejus decessum, specialiter dicatur una collecta cum nota. Dictus, vero, Dominus Oto prefato Vicario presbitero Libros, Calicem, et Vestimenta, ac alia pro Missa hujusmodi necessaria, et Domos pro eodem Vicario competentes in solo ejusdem Ecclesie Glasneye, sumptibus ejusdem Militis, primo inveniet, seu saltem eisdem Preposito et Capitulo, secundum quod inter eos condici et conveniri poterit, de Libris, Calice, Vestimentis, ac aliis necessariis, et Domibus hujusmodi satisfaciet. Et dicti Prepositus et Capitulum, ac eorum successores, extunc onera Librorum, Calicis, Vestimentorum, ac aliorum pro Missa predicta necessariorum, et Domorum hujusmodi, imperpetuum sustinebunt et agnoscent de Porcione ipsorum predicta. Item, dicti Prepositus et Capitulum, et eorum successores, singulis annis, imperpetuum, Obitum dicti Militis tenebunt et celebrabunt post mortem ejusdem, sicuti tenent et celebrant Obitum unius Canonici ejusdem Ecclesie Collegiate, et solvent octo solidos sterlingorum, prout in Obitu unius Canonici solvere sunt hactenus consueti. Volumus, insuper, et ordinamus quod, cedente vel decedente Vicario predicto, dicti Prepositus et Capitulum, et eorum successores, unum alium presbiterum ydoneum, ad hujusmodi Missam in aurora celebrandam, de hujusmodi quinque marcis invenire interim teneantur, quousque unus alius per dictum Militem, seu ejus heredes, presentatus fuerit et admissus. In Ecclesia, vero, de Lamoreke sit Perpetuus Vicarius institutus, qui in ea curam gerat et habeat animarum, cujus Porcionem ordinamus taliter et taxamus; videlicet, quod idem Vicarius habeat omnes Domos Rectorie ejusdem Ecclesie, cum toto Manso et Sanctuario ejusdem. I found them, first, in the Taxation of the Vicarage of Broadhembury, which I printed in my Edition of Bishop Quivil's Register (p. 339) from MS. 3625, fol. 100, in the Archives of the Dean and Chapter. The writing was obscure, and I read the first of the words "scuagii,"—"onus procuracionis scuagii et cremagii." It is, however, written quite plainly here,

"senagium." And it will be found below (I cannot say on what page till the sheet containing it is printed), also under Broadhembury, in a Visitation Roll of July, 1330, preserved among the Cathedral MSS.,—"onus procuracionis, senagii, cremagii," etc. I submitted the words to several friends, without result. But at last Canon Brownlow, of Plymouth (now Bishop of Clifton), who kindly devoted much time and trouble to the matter, succeeded in (at any rate partly) solving the difficulty. He found in Dr. Oliver's Monasticon, among the expenses of the Sacristan of Ottery St. Mary, that certain payments were made in 1414—"pro procuracione Archidiaconi Exoniensis, 6*s.* 8*d.* ;" "pro cenagio et cremagio, 2*s.* 3*d.* ;" and "pro portacione cenagii et cremagii, 4*d.*" He thinks that "cremagium" may have been a tax paid to the Bishop when a Parish Priest went to fetch the Holy Oils—Chrisma, Chrême, or Cream—on Maundy Thursday—"Cena Domini." And he quotes Du Cange,—Chrismales denarii: Præstatio quæ a Presbyteris, pro Chrismate quod circa Pascha ab Episcopo accipere solent, eidem Episcopo exsolvebatur." If this be the meaning of "cremagium," it is possible that "cenagium" was the payment exacted by the Bishop's steward for the meal (cena) which would be supplied to the priest on the occasion. Martene (De Antiq. Eccl. Rit., Lib. IV., cap. xxii.) gives a full description of the Rite of the Church of Poictiers in A.D. 800 ; and at the end of the Function is the following Rubrick,—"Tunc Pontifex revertitur in Sacrarium, cum ordine Ministrorum sibi obsequencium, precedente eum acolyto cum chrismate. Et tunc, si hora permiserit, datur ipsum Chrisma, per manum Archidiaconi, tam legatis Monasteriorum . . . . quam Presbyteris oppidanis atque vicanis ; sin autem reservatur in crastinum. Similiter agitur de oleo ad baptizandos et ad infirmos. Porro, autem, Missa finita, invitantur per vice-dominum ad prandium Pontificis, etc." It appears that it is still the custom in Ireland for the Parish-Priests to go in person for the Holy Oils, and to pay the Bishop what they call "Oil-money." One of the payments made by the Sacristan of Ottery was "pro spicis et potu in Cena Domini, . . . 19*d.*, and another "pro colleccione ovorum in Cena Domini, 2*d.*" We have here, I think, a distinct clue to the nature of these "onera."

A.D. 1329. Vol. II. existunt hujusmodi, juramento, confirmacione dicte Sedis, seu quacumque firmitate alia roboratis; aut si fructus, redditus, et proventus hujusmodi primi anni ex Privilegio Sedis ejusdem, vel alias de jure, seu quacumque Consuetudine vel Statuto, alicui vel aliquibus debeantur; aut si sint in usus alios convertendi. Volumus, autem, quod, si idem Beneficium bis in anno vacare contingeret, non nisi semel fructus illius pro ipsius vacacione duplici exigantur, quodque predicti fructus, redditus, et proventus juxta taxacionem Decime persolvantur, et recipiantur a te, super hoc tenore Presencium Collectore deputato, seu subcollectoribus a te constituendis; ut, scilicet, Summa pro qua unumquodque Beneficiorum ipsorum in Decime solucione taxatur exigatur et recipiatur[1], totali residuo Beneficia hujusmodi optinentibus remansuro, nisi forte tu aut subcollectores predicti residuum hujusmodi pro nobis et Camera nostra velletis recipere et habere, et optinentibus Beneficia hujusmodi, ad supportanda eorum onera et substentacionem habendam, Summam pro qua Beneficia ipsa taxantur in Decima remanere. Nos, enim, percipiendi utrumlibet predictorum, scilicet taxacionem ipsam vel residuum antedictum, te et subcollectores predictos habere volumus opcionem; ita quod, quicquid tu et ipsi subcollectores elegeritis, Beneficiorum ipsorum onera debeant eadem Beneficia optinentes, de parte sibi dimissa, ut premittitur, totaliter subportare; ni forte ipsi optinentes velint omnes fructus, redditus, et proventus Beneficiorum ipsorum tibi vel dictis subcollectoribus dimittere; quo casu tu et ipsi subcollectores habeatis hujusmodi Beneficiis, quoad curam animarum, si eis immineat, necnon et quoad Divinum Officium et Sacramentorum Ecclesiasticorum ministracionem, facere per personas ydoneas deserviri, et cetera supportare onera Beneficiis incumbencia supradictis. Ceterum voluimus et eciam declaravimus quod Deputacio nostra hujusmodi nullatenus extendatur ad Archiepiscopalem et Episcopales Ecclesias, nec ad Abbacias Regulares, nec ad Beneficia illa quorum redditus et proventus annui valorem sex marcarum argenti non excedunt, et que ex Permutacionis causa vacare continget; nec eciam ad Vicarias, seu Capellanias ut plurimum a decedentibus secundum morem diversarum Ecclesiarum institutas, ad Missas pro ipsis decedentibus celebrandas, certis constitutis redditibus presbitero inibi celebranti, seu aliis, ut diurnis et nocturnis Horis Canonicis intersint; nec, eciam, ad cotidianas distribuciones quarumcumque Ecclesiarum, seu Anniversaria vel obveuciones que ad certum quid deputate noscuntur. Verum, quia fructus, redditus, et proventus hujusmodi Beneficiorum primi anni debentur interdum defuncto, vel Fabrice, aut Prelato, seu Ecclesie habenti Annalia, declaravimus ut pretextu nostre Deputacionis non prejudicetur eisdem qui alias primi anni fructus, redditus, et proventus fuerant percepturi de Consuetudine, Privilegio, vel Statuto, quin fructus, redditus, et proventus hujusmodi sequenti anno percipiant, sicut consueverunt percipere temporibus retroactis. Item, volumus, prout est consonum racioni, ad scandala evitanda, quod solucio hujusmodi fructuum, reddituum, et proventuum fiat in duobus terminis congruis tui arbitrio statuendis; sic, equidem, quod, ubi tu aut subcollectores tui taxacionem decimalem fructuum, reddituum, et proventuum hujusmodi primi anni pro Camera nostra habere volueritis, optinentes ipsa Beneficia, dictorum fructuum, reddituum, et proventuum residuum habituri, de ipsis fructibus, redditibus, et proventibus, quos eo casu iidem optinentes in totum colligent, eandem taxacionem solvant tibi, sive ipsis subcollectoribus, in duobus terminis, sicut premittitur statuendis; caucione, nichilominus, prestita de solucione hujusmodi facienda. Ubi, vero, tu, seu subcollectores predicti, taxacionem prefatam optinentibus Beneficia ipsa dimiseritis, et habere residuum fructuum, reddituum, et proventuum predictorum elegeritis, tunc tu, seu subcollectores predicti, de ipsis fructibus, redditibus, et proventibus, quos in totum recipietis eo casu,

Quocirca discrecioni tue per Apostolica Scripta committimus et mandamus, quatinus per te, quem Collectorem dictorum fructuum, redditnum, et proventuum tenore Presencium deputamus, ac subcollectores a te super hoc deputandos, eosdem fructus, redditus et proventus primi anni per idem triennium, nostro et ejusdem Ecclesie nomine, petere, exigere, colligere, ac recipere, juxta formam Deputacionis predicte, integraliter non postponas. Quocirca Paternitatem vestram ex parte Domini nostri Pape, sub obediencia qua Romane Ecclesie tenemini, cum reverencia qua decet, requirimus ac Canonice monemus, et ex nostra rogamus, quatinus circa colleccionem fructuum predictorum, pro quorum racione reddenda legitima vos et Ecclesiam vestram, tanquam pro Apostolico et fiscali debito, volumus obligari, sic fideliter et diligenter per vos, vel alium seu alios, fide et facultatibus ydoneos, velitis interponere partes vestras quod jura et honorem Sancte Romane Ecclesie vos sincere diligere per effectum operis ostendatis, nosque proinde Domino nostro Pape devo-

Certificantes nos de Beneficiis predictis nunc vacantibus infra duorum mensium spacium a tempore recepcionis presencium Literarum, et de in antea vacaturis infra duorum mensium spacium a tempore vacacionis ipsorum, per vestras Literas competenter.—Datum Londoniis, sub sigillo Officii nostri, die xxvj Octobris, Anno Domini Millesimo CCC^mo vicesimo nono.

—Quibus Literis perlectis et eis plenius intellectis, dictus Reverendus Pater quandam Literam Privatam prefato Domino Icherio direxit, sub hac forma,—

Venerabili et discreto viro, Magistro Icherio de Concoreto, etc., Johannes, etc., salutem, cum reverencia et honore.—Literas vestras, Mandatum Apostolicum de reservacione primorum fructuum Beneficiorum Ecclesiasticorum in nostra Diocesi per triennium vacancium, una cum quibusdam aliis Literis vestris de Denariis Beati Petri in Diocesi nostra debitis, apud Chuddeleghe, secundo die mensis Decembris, cum reverencia qua decuit

A.D. 1329. [Vol. III.] recepimus continentes ; quibus in omnibus juxta posse nostrum parebimus, ut tenemur, reverenter pariter et devote. Super execucione, autem, ipsarum Literarum vestrarum, necnon vacacione Ecclesiarum, sicut scribitis, in brevi vobis significabimus plenius, Deo dante.—Cum honoris incremento adaugeat vobis Dominus successus prosperos et longevos !—Data apud Chuddeleghe, tercio die mensis Decembris, Anno, etc.[1]

Quarum, eciam, auctoritate Literarum, Mandatum Apostolicum et subdelegacionem eidem Patri, Domino Exoniensi Episcopo, seriose, ut premittitur, continencium, idem Pater rimari fecit Registrum suum ; in quo de vacacionibus et vacacionum temporibus Beneficiorum quorumcumque in Diocesi Exoniensi vacancium a die date Literarum Apostolicarum hujusmodi liquet. Beneficia Ecclesiastica subscripta tempore recepcionis ipsarum Literarum usque diem Mercurii proximam ante Festum Conversionis Sancti Pauli [comperit vacavisse], et dictum Nuncium de ipsis Beneficiis vacantibus certificavit in hunc modum,— Venerabili et discreto viro, Magistro Icherio de Concoreto, etc., Johannes, etc., salutem, cum reverencia et honore.—Literas vestras, Mandati Apostolici tenorem et subdelegacionem per vos inde nobis factam seriose continentes, super reservacione Apostolica fructuum, redditiuum, et proventuum primi anni omnium et singulorum Beneficiorum, etc. (ut supra), secundo die mensis Decembris proximo preterito recepimus, cum reverencia tam debita quam devota. Cujus auctoritate Mandati, rimato Registro nostro, in quo de vacacionibus et vacacionum temporibus Beneficiorum quorumcumque in nostra Diocesi vacancium, ad plenum liquet et inpromptu, Beneficia Ecclesiastica, quorum nomina in Cedula Presentibus annexa, una cum modo vacacionis eorundem, seriosius continentur, a die date Literarum Apostolicarum hujusmodi usque in diem confeccionis Presencium comperimus vacavisse. Quorum fructus, redditus, et proventus, licet nobis, noviter in hiis Partibus positis, et circa Officium nostrum multipliciter occupatis, tediosum sit et laboriosum, juxta vim, formam, et effectum Mandati et subdelegacionis vestre prelibate, ad commodum Domini nostri Pape et Ecclesie Romane predicte, exigere, colligere, ac recipere, Deo favente, intendimus ; diligenter et debite, juxta scire et posse nostrum injunctam nobis sollicitudinem exequendo. De Beneficiis, vero, a die date Presencium vos debite certificare curabimus temporibus oportunis. Verum, quia tempore horrende perempcionis Predecessoris nostri Londoniis, quod dolenter referimus, Registrum Taxacionis Beneficiorum Ecclesiasticorum in nostra Diocesi, una cum aliis Registris ac bonis ipsius Predecessoris nostri ibidem existentibus, per iniquitatis filios sublatum extitit et surreptum ; nec nos ad illud seu quodcumque aliud certum Registrum Taxacionis, omnem diligenciam nobis aut nostris in hac parte possibilem adhibentes, hucusque devenire potuimus quoque modo ; vos de certa Taxacione Beneficiorum [fol. 160b.] hujusmodi vacancium ad presens certificare non valemus ; attamen, tam de illis que, juxta estimacionem nostram, sub reservacione hujusmodi cadere dinoscuntur, quam illis que propter eorum exilitatem non taxantur, quorum aliquod (sic) per se, quia minima sunt, vix ad unius sustentacionem sufficiunt sacerdotis ; vos, ad omnem ambiguitatem tollendam inposterum, dignum duximus reddere cerciores. Unde, ut securius, commodius, et consulcius procedatur in hac parte, vestram Amiciciam reverendam sedulo imploramus affectu, quatinus transumptum Registri vestri de Taxacione Beneficiorum Ecclesiasticorum in dicta nostra Diocesi consistencium, sumptibus nostris faciendum, nobis transmittere velitis per Presencium portitorem.[2]—Cum Folios 163 and 164 were left blank, apparently for further similar Entries; and on fol. 165 are memoranda of the payments actually made on account of the several Churches, with the amounts paid at six different times, when acquittances were given (from 3 April, 1331, to 17 June, 1333). One or two notes are interesting. We are told that in the case of Bratton-Clovelly the Bishop was out of pocket, at any rate for a time,—"Thesaurarius non solvit xij*li.* de Ecclesia de Brattone, nec Dominus recepit, quamvis Icherio de eisdem satisfecit [1331]." Rackenford paid only 50*s.* "in partem solucionis centum solidorum," and Widworthy 60*s.* part of £6 due [1332]. The amount paid, 17 June, 1333, was £25 3*s.* 4*d.*,—"de qua Summa viij*li.* vj*s.* viij*d.* de Ecclesia de Yuddesleghe [Iddesleigh] non debentur Domino Pape, eo quod non est taxata, set Domino; quia fructus dicte Ecclesie tempore vacacionis ejusdem Domino debebantur. Item, Thesaurarius non solvit pro Ecclesia Sancte Felicitatis dictas x marcas, de quibus tantummodo per Dominum oneratur; quia Dominus ipsas recepit.—Et memorandum quod acquietancias de solucionibus supradicte pecunie, factis Magistro Icherio de Concoreto, continentur in Magno Registro; videlicet, in quaterno de Obligacionibus, Pensionibus, et Acquietanciis."

It must have been merged in other lands long ago, and its existence can only be traced, now, in the name of an enclosure. Mr. Chichester, of Hall, tells me that his Branch of the Family held lands in High Bickington for centuries, and that his Father and he sold them in 1864, in order to purchase other lands nearer Hall. One of the farms, he thinks the largest, was called High Hayne; and he remembers the names "Chichester park" and "Arundel."
